"A plutocrat, my son, is a man who is vastly wealthy, but declines to endow any project in which you are immediately interested." — Washington Star.

STANLEY IS ONLY ONE SURE OF JOB

Candidates for the Earlham Football Team Are Showing Form.

FIRST GAME ON SATURDAY

ON THAT DATE THE QUAKER ELEVEN WILL PLAY CEDARVILLE COLLEGE ELEVEN—CONOLY SHOWING GOOD.

After a week of practice on the Earlham gridiron only one man is sure of a place on the varsity this year. The competition for places is so keen that Captain Stanley, who has no opposition, is the only man who is practically sure of a place on the 1909 squad. During the past week when three teams have been at work, most of the time on signals, each man has put up a fight and the coach is at present at a loss to know who he will line up against Cedarville college on Reid field next Saturday.

Captain Stanley who is rapidly showing his old form, at center will probably fill that place on the varsity this season. Stanley is an old "E" man and made himself a statewide reputation in the Purdue game last season by his work as center. No other member of the three squads is a candidate for this position.

Connolly is a Find.
During the first week of practice one new man has made an excellent showing, namely Connolly of New Haven, Conn. Connolly came to Earlham with a great reputation as an all-around athlete and his credentials were so good that even the coach and members of the faculty doubted their authenticity. But the last week as quarter back he has proven beyond a doubt his efficient work in this position. One of the features being his accurate passes.

The old men to report at practice this week include Johnson, Hill, Brunner, Raegan, Jones, Haworth and Lewis. Bruner a member of the last year varsity, is troubled with his feet and it is doubtful whether he will be in condition to play many games. Lewis at guard is making a good showing and is playing this position much better than he did last year. Haworth as full back, is a strong candidate for that position. Jones is making all the Earlhamites take notice of his forward passes. When he was placed in charge of a squad in signal practice, that squad made some good plays and large gains were made. Francis at end did well in receiving passes and Beebe at quarter is gradually rounding into form.

Some Good Recruits.
The new recruits to "shine" after a week's practice are Mills, T. E. Jones, a former Fairmount man, Hughbanks of Rose Polytechnic and Wann and Overman. Hughes the former New Haven high school full, is being tried at half back and is making good in practice.

Some members of the student body are inclined to believe that Earlham will have a hard time to win from Cedarville college. The Quakers were unexpectedly beaten in basket ball last winter by Cedarville that some students are inclined to believe that Cedarville will have something in store for the Quakers October 9. Coach Thistleton, however, is at work with his new plays and keeping an eye on his men so that a squad may be started in scrimmage this week.

FAST MAT ARTISTS

Postl and Olson Will Give a Fast Exhibition Here Wednesday.

MATCH AT THE COLISEUM

An attraction not on the regular Fall Festival program, but which will be a source of entertainment for the public will be Wednesday night's wrestling match between Charley Postl, the protege of Frank Gotch, and Charles Olson, the light heavy weight champion, and a strong Richmond favorite. The bout is the first of the series to be pulled off here by the promoters, which include the officers of the Richmond Athletic club, owners of the Coliseum, and Kenneth Craig, a local newspaper man. The Coliseum directors are all well known business men, who are backing the match with their business integrity.

The match will be called about 9 o'clock and will give the public ample time to witness the clever automobile parade, which has been planned as one of the Fall Festival features.

There will be no preliminaries, but arrangements have been made for a band concert previous to the ringing of the initial gong.

Interest in the match is unusually great as is evidenced by the advance sale of seats at the Simmons Cigar store.

The plat was opened yesterday morning and a large number of tickets were sold during the day.

The wrestling platform has been so arranged that the seats on the east end of the Coliseum are as good as those on the sides.
