STATE CLAIMS TO HAVE GOOD CASE

It is Thought Sam Jaffe, Junk Dealer, Will Be Convicted.

GRAND JURY INDICTS HIM

WILLIAM H. HARRIS WILL BE TRIED TUESDAY NEXT WEEK FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY WITH INTENT TO KILL.

Great effort will be made to successfully prosecute Samuel Jaffe, a junk dealer, charged with grand larceny. Samuel Jaffe and William Smith were arrested recently on a charge of stealing approximately $300 worth of brass from the Richmond City Water Works company. The grand jury investigated the cases and returned four indictments as follows: Two against Jaffe and Smith jointly charging grand larceny and two against Jaffe, separately, charging him with receiving stolen goods. Jaffe and Smith will be tried Monday.

State Has Good Case. The state claims to have a good case against the two men, by reason of the confession obtained from Smith. Jaffe has been in trouble several times with the police.

The trial of William H. Harris is not expected to take more than a few hours. He was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill John D. Lancaster, a well known gardener. Harris laid in ambush for Lancaster one Saturday night early in September and shot him five times as Lancaster was entering the gate to his place.

State Has Good Case. The state claims to have a good case against the two men, by reason of the confession obtained from Smith. Jaffe has been in trouble several times with the police.

DON'T WANT FOOD: WOMEN ARE ANGRY

Bring Legal Action Because of Action of English Authorities.

DESIRE TO BE MARTYRS

WRITS CHARGING ASSAULT HAVE BEEN ISSUED AGAINST HOME SECRETARY GLADSTONE—A MILITANT MOVE.

(American News Service) London, Oct. 4.—Writs in an action charging assault, were issued against Home Secretary Gladstone and the governor and physician of the Birmingham jail at the instigation of the suffragettes, who are raging because the authorities are compelling the imprisoned suffragettes to eat food, while they are apparently desirous of becoming martyrs to the cause by starving themselves to death. The action today is the most militant move of the votes for women leaders.

On several previous instances suffragettes were released from imprisonment when they refused to eat, but the women arrested in Birmingham were forcibly fed.

Fought Desperately. Ellen Barnwell and Hilda Burditt, who were the leaders in the attack on Premier Asquith's train, this leading to their arrest, fought desperately to prevent taking food, but they were held while a stomach pump was used to force them to take beef tea. The women have resorted to violence, smashing the jail windows and breaking all the furniture in their cells. They scream "Votes for women" until the rules-abiding prisoners complain bitterly.

As a result of their violence the rights of the suffragettes have been forfeited in part. No one is allowed to visit them. Miss Christabel Pankhurst, desirous of interviewing one of the women under a legal point, was refused admittance to the jail.

LINE OF MARCH IS SLIGHTLY CHANGED

Committee for Fantastic Parade, on Friday Night, Holds a Meeting.

LODGES MAKE DRAWINGS

MOOSE LODGE GETS FIRST PLACE IN THE PARADE—AFFAIR WILL BE MOST UNUSUAL EVER HELD IN INDIANA.

If the enthusiasm manifested at the meeting of the marshals from the various secret societies which are to take part in the fantastic parade on the last night of the Fall Festival is a safe criterion the event will far eclipse the same parade held last year and should prove to be one of the most pleasing features of the entire Fall Festival.

The line of march for the parade was slightly changed on account of the obstruction on North 9th street, due to the building of the new high school. The parade was to have gone down this street to North E, but instead it will go down North 7th street to Port Wayne Avenue, and then on the Avenue to North E street. Along E street the parade will go as far as 10th street, and then counter march to 7th street, and back up 7th street to Main. Going east on Main from 7th street the parade will proceed as far as 15th street, and then move to the scene of the big fireworks display.

Street Cars to Stop. The street cars will stop during the parade. Due to the many things arranged for Mardi Gras night, and in order that car service be blocked but a short time, it will be necessary that the parade form at prompt 7 o'clock, and move exactly at 7:30. The formation will be on 3rd, 4th and 5th streets. Arthur Burr will act as grand marshal, and Frank Taylor and Dr. Anderson will be his aides.

A platoon of police will head the parade, followed by a division of Smith's band. There will be other divisions of the band, the Fall Festival band and the Bugal corps in the parade. There will be a number of floats, and vehicles, besides the many costumed pedestrians. All those having floats in the other parades are invited to use them in the fantastic parade. It is thought that many will take advantage of this, not only to help out Mardi Gras night, but for the sake of additional advertising.

Ten Lodges Draw. The lodges will be assigned regular positions in the parade, and ten of them have already drawn for their positions, but the individual maskers, and others who will join in the parade will assemble on Fifth street, and fall in line as ordered by the marshals.

In the drawing for positions at the meeting yesterday, the Loyal Order of Moose, the secret order now being formed in Richmond got first place.

THE DREW A $5 FINE

In the city court this morning John Mulholland was fined $5 and costs for public intoxication. The man was arrested Saturday night and a charge of assault and battery on his wife was placed against him. However, Mrs. Mulholland appeared in the city court this morning and declared that her husband had not assaulted her, that he "only threatened to kill her," so the charge was changed to intoxication. In lieu of payment of the fine Mulholland went down for fifteen days.

If this concerns you, read carefully: Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is positively guaranteed to cure indigestion, constipation, acid stomach, nervousness, headache, and all diseases arising from stomach trouble.
