OLSON THE WINNER

Defeated Steinmetz of Cincinnati in Two Straight Falls.

POSTL DID NOT ARRIVE

Charles Olson, the Indianapolis grappler, defeated Charles Steinmetz of Cincinnati last evening at the Coliseum by pulling his shoulders to the mat in two straight falls in 23½ minutes and 17 minutes respectively. About 500 persons witnessed the performance, which was the opening of the game in this city, for the season. Charles Postl, the Milwaukee boy, who is a pupil of Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler of the world, was scheduled to meet Olson, but owing to an injury received Monday night at Chicago had to call his contract off. However, Steinmetz put up a creditable match, considering the fact that he was opposed to the champion middle weight wrestler of the world. Olson did not have to exert himself to win the match. He allowed Steinmetz to get all the holds known to the game and then interested the crowd in breaking what seemed certain falls. Steinmetz played aggressively most of the time, but when Olson assumed the offensive there was something doing. Olson used the toe hold a number of times. The first fall was secured by a full Nelson and the second by the toe hold.

Society Women Lead Bidders at Smugglers' Sale in New York

New York, Oct. 7.—Collector Loeb's smugglers' sale today in the seizure room of the appraiser's warehouse, resembled a corner in the field of a baseball ground, for he had provided a regular "bleacher" of ten tiers of seats on the main side of the room for the rush of bargain hunters. Every society woman who appeared was escorted to a reserved seat, where she could look through the catalogue at her leisure, or look down and smile upon the auctioneer, Mr. Sheldon, when he accepted a bargain offer. When the stand was full and more women continued to arrive, Caspar Schaefer, assistant to Colonel J. H. Story, chief of the seizure room, compelled some of the men bargain "fans" to give up their seats to the women.

It was more like a reception than an auction, as the collector had his assistants brew tea and pass a cup to each woman, with a cracker, when the noon hour arrived. The diplomatic collector had a reason for this. He found that many of the women were leaving to get luncheon and as they were the most lively bidders against the dealers it would affect the sale, so he served light lunch to hold them. Only one-half of the articles comprising the 1,100 lots in the sale were disposed of. The remainder will be sold tomorrow.

Included in the varied assortment of merchandise was a basket containing 20 pounds of bones, but whether of man or animal was not explained, there being only one bidder who secured the gruesome lot for 25 cents. An old-fashioned country circus outfit, wagon, tents and other apparatus, which came from Liverpool, Eng., on the White Star liner, Georgic and was never claimed, is another offering. It will be sold tomorrow afternoon. Dr. Carl Hermann was the name on the traveling circus.

HE REACHES LONDON

James J. Jeffries, Unbeaten World's Champion, to Return Home.

HE WILL SAIL SATURDAY

(American News Service)
London, Oct. 7.—James J. Jeffries, unbeaten heavyweight champion fighter of the world, has arrived here and will sail for America on the steamer Lusitania Saturday. Jeff has improved greatly by his trip through Europe and says he will require but little hard work to fit himself for a fight with Johnson. When told that there is some doubt in the minds of the public here as to his sincerity of his agreement to take on the negro fighter, Jeff said:

"I was silent even under the heaviest fire of questions as to whether I would take on Johnson until I was fully satisfied that I could get in shape. When I learned that I could get into condition I publicly announced my willingness to fight and backed my agreement with a $5,000 forfeit, which is now up in America. I will leave here Saturday and hurry to Chicago, where I hope to meet Johnson and sign final articles. I can see no hitch as matters stand now, unless Johnson has changed from his stand when he met Berger, my personal representative. "I'll not only sign with him, but I'll bet him a few thousand and then defeat him just as I have all my other opponents. I am not the Jeffries of old and I never expect to be, but I will be good enough to beat Johnson. I desire the fight to take place in America and prefer Frisco. If Jim Corbett of California will offer as much as the highest bidder he can have the fight. I do not want to train months and then have authorities step in and prevent the fight."

Chocolate Ammunition Used by 5,000 Girls in Necktie Strike

New York, Oct. 7.—Chocolate is depended upon by 5,000 girls who quit making neckties because they wanted higher wages and shorter hours, to win their strike. They are forewarned to subsist chiefly upon chocolate until the strike is won, and they are to use chocolate as bait for other girls who may take their places in the shops and for their employers, should they meet the men in a conference.

The strikers began work at headquarters by making an appropriation out of the union fund for chocolate. The beverage was served all day during meetings and between meetings at Clinton hall, 151 Clinton street, on the assumption that it is nutritious and cheap and would save the girls who have quit work the expense of buying lunches.

At the afternoon meeting the strikers voted to equip picket squads, sent out to watch the necktie shops, with a liberal supply of chocolate creams to be used in tempting workers who had
