TRIED BLOW PLANT

(American News Service) Chicago, Oct. 7.—An attempt was made at an early hour to blow up the plant of the South Chicago People's Gaslight and Coke company by three men. They entered the engine-room, which is still uncompleted, overpowering, bound and gagged Engineer John Sullivan and after removing him outside, exploded a quantity of explosive under the engine. The engine was destroyed but the force was not sufficient to damage the huge gasometers less than 100 yards away.

AWARDS MADE AT THE FLOWER SHOW

In the Professional Class the Knopf Floral Company takes Honors.

WINS MAJORITY FIRTS

IN AMATEUR COMPETITION SEVERAL AWARDS WERE MADE—EXHIBIT PROVES MOST ATTRACTIVE ONE.

Flowers in perfect forms and in the most beautiful designs were on exhibit at the Flower Show of the Fall Festival yesterday. A goodly number of the thousands of visitors who were in Richmond attended the flower exhibit and pronounced it the better of the two annual exhibits in this city. The committee to award prizes announced its decision early and the majority of visitors yesterday saw the completed show.

The following are the prizes awarded and the exhibitors:

In the class of fifty carnations, the Charles Knopf Floral company won four firsts in the enchantress, crimson, scarlet and white carnations. G. R. Gause won one first in the light pink carnation and one second in the white carnation.

Knopf Continues Success.
In the class of twenty-five carnations the Charles Knopf Floral company again carried away the majority of prizes. That company secured first in the dark pink, crimson and scarlet carnations. The Fred H. Lemon company secured one first in the white carnation. B. H. Grave also secured a first.

The rose display again gave honors to the Charles Knopf Floral company, that company winning first in the pink rose and white rose display. The Fred H. Lemon company won first and

B. H. Grave second in the red rose class.

The G. R. Gause company received three firsts and the Fred H. Lemon company three seconds in the basket roses, lyre and wreath. In the table display the Fred H. Lemon company secured first premium.

There were a number of flowers exhibited by amateurs and the following prizes were awarded in this class:

FALL AND WINTER FOOTWEAR

We have always claimed the largest and best assortment of HEAVY WINTER SHOES for everyday and general wear and this claim has never been successfully denied.

We have a large and up-to-date basement full of HEAVY and HIGH CUT SHOES and all kinds of RUBBERS and ARCTICS.

Our Dress Shoe Departments are full of the very newest styles and patterns. We believe that the people of Richmond and vicinity are not behind other cities when it comes to dressing well and we have spared no pains in making it possible for them to get at home what they usually can get only in the larger cities in the way of footwear.

When you are attending the Fall Festival, drop in and see our store and make yourself at home with us. We have a special Rest and Toilet Room for the ladies and children which is at all times at your disposal. Leave your packages or wraps, arrange to meet your friends here and simply feel at home with us whether you need any shoes or not; you are always invited to make this store your headquarters. And don't forget that this is the store that will sell you "THE BEST SHOES FOR THE LEAST MONEY" not part of the time, but ALL THE TIME and our guarantee goes with every pair we sell. We want your trade. We'll treat you fair and you will always find a COMPETENT, COURTEOUS and CAREFUL force of salesmen to look after your needs.
