CITY IS DISROBED

All Gay "Party Fixins" Have Been Removed in Quick Time.

STRENUOUS LIFE IS OVER

Fifteen hours after the close of the second annual Fall Festival, Richmond presented an entirely different appearance. The decorations on Main street had been removed and the thousands of people who were guests of this city for three days were no longer here but had given way to the ordinary number of shoppers.

The firm which "dressed" Main street began its work of removal early today and in a short time most of the decorations had been taken down. The merchants too began to work on their displays and by noon a majority of them found their buildings in the usual appearance.

The firemen at the city building were still working on their decoration this morning and will be some time before it will be removed.

The thousands of people who had flocked and crowded Main street were not to be seen today. Many local shoppers were in the city, however, as well as some visitors who remained to do some buying. Business is reported as good with the merchants despite the fact that the Fall Festival just closed. Many of the people who passed the stores during the Festival and saw the displays, are calling on the merchants today.

Food for Fans

In Cleveland they still persist that Lajole is likely to be traded to the Boston Americans.

Jack McLean, the Cincinnati catcher is now able to get about on crutches, and is confident that he will be all right in the spring.

Lou Criger wishes to be traded, as he claims the St. Louis climate is prejudicial to his health.

Howard Camnitz, the crack Pittsburgh pitcher, has been confined to his bed with a bad throat trouble.

Get the habit. Talk spikes and keep on talking spikes. It's up to the major league managers to provide the law to prevent spiking affairs on the ball field. And the abolishment of steel cleats is the best remedy.

John McGraw has drafted another fullblooded Indian to keep company with "Chief" Meyers. He is John Bull Williams of the Marion club of the Ohio State league. He is an Oneida and plays the outfield.

It has been a rare thing in base ball to have a pitcher shift behind the bat and make a really good catcher, but Fred Mitchell of Toronto is a shining example of this transformation. Fred not only proved to be a crackerjack catcher, but was one of the best hitters in the Eastern league.

The story is told that Eddie Grant in crossing the Polo grounds before the double-header Saturday, found a seven domino and predicted then that it was his lucky piece and that he would make seven hits in a row. He made five off Marquand and two off Mathewson.

Hugh Duffy is named as the probable manager of the Chicago White Sox. Duffy is part owner of the Providence club and had been a success as a minor league team handler. Several years ago he had charge of the Philadelphia Nationals, but he was handicapped by a lack of financial backing. Owner Comiskey of the Sox and Duffy are old friends and if the latter assumes a management of the Chicago club he will have a big bankroll behind him.

Mullen, the young National League umpire, who forfeited a game to the Giants at the polo grounds Monday, has made a pronounced hit with President Heydler. Mullen had the courage to withstand the browbeating tactics of the Philadelphia Nationals, whose failure to live up to the rules will compel the new owners of the club to hand over a fine of $1,000, which seems to be richly deserved.

George Davis, who has worn the spangles for nearly twenty years in the major league, will probably manage a western minor league team next season, as the White Sox have let him out. Davis joined the Cleveland Indians in 1890, and was traded to the Giants several years later. He was manager of the New Yorks for a short time in 1895, and remained with the team until he jumped to the Chicago Americans in 1902. In his prime Davis was a great hitter, a first-class fielder in all the diamond positions, and a sensational outfielder. He hung on gamely until Father Time handed him the inevitable release.

BIG SIX DAY RACE.

Crack Motorcyclists to Take Part In Long Grind In New York.

MILE A MINUTE EXPECTED.

Leading Officials Say Little Two Wheel Machines Will Pile Up Enormous Mileage During the Week—To Start Sept. 26—Automobile Gossip.

What promises to be the greatest event in the history of the motorcycle industry this year is to take place at the Brighton Beach Motordrome, at Coney Island, N. Y., the week of Sept. 26. The event will be a six days' grind for motorcycles, the teams being made up of three riders each, one rider being on the track at a time, the other two men being used for relief.

That this event will be national in importance is evidenced by the fact that already all the leading manufacturers of the country who give attention to motorcycle racing have expressed their intention of participating in this event.

Entries have been received from half a dozen or more concerns, and in many factories preparations have been under way for weeks looking to the most successful handling of teams in the race. The Indian factory, among others, has announced its intention of entering not one but two teams for the big event, one a midget team composed of the smallest riders in the race, the other a team of heavy men.

Since announcement of the race was made the affair has assumed an international significance through the announced intention of several foreign teams to enter.

The American automobile record for twenty-four hours is 1,177 miles. That this record will be shattered in the first twenty-four hours of riding goes without saying. It is expected that during the week these little two wheel machines will pile up an enormous mileage. In fact, it would not be surprising if the winning team totaled 6,000 miles for the six days' riding. This to the average reader is nothing but figures, but when we come to put this into a cross country picture it would mean that a relay of three men riding in a given direction would in six days cover a distance equivalent to a trip from New York to California and return. The latter fact will demonstrate the importance of the motorcycle as a means of covering space in a shorter length of time than that made by any other known motor driven vehicle.

A device has been brought out in England automatically to prevent violation of speed laws, and trials have proved that the device will do what is claimed for it.

The apparatus is contained in a compact aluminum box, takes up little space and works in oil. When the speed slightly exceeds the limit set it automatically throws out the clutch and, if necessary, puts on the brakes. This continues until the speed is reduced to the point below the limit, when the brakes are released and the clutch again allowed to engage. In connection with the speed stopper is a signal to indicate to the driver that he is nearing the limit.

It is stated that on exhaustive trials every attempt was made to run the machine faster than the limit of sixteen miles an hour set. On coming to a fairly steep hill the engine was allowed full power, and the car instantly started to gain speed, but as soon as the limit was reached the clutch was disengaged as if by magic, and the motor merely raced until the speed of the machine was reduced to sixteen miles an hour.

FRENCH PUGILISTS COMING.

Light and Middle Weight Champions to Arrive in This Country Shortly.

France, which hitherto has imported American boxers freely, often to the greater profit of the latter than the advancement of the noble art of self defense, has now reached the point where she can export some. This result has been attained through the American invasion. Lightweight Champion Henri Piet and the holder of the middleweight title, Marcel Moreau, are expected to arrive in this country about the 1st of October.

Rugby Football in California.

Preliminary work for the Rugby season at the University of California has started. Coach Schaeffer is again in charge of the team and has issued a call for candidates. Already over a hundred freshmen have announced their intention to try for the varsity team, and the prospects for a good eleven were never brighter at so early a time in the year. Among the freshmen candidates are men with good reputations, and it is thought that when the team is finally picked several of the first yearers will be found in the lineup of the varsity.

Goulding's Great Mile Walk. George H. Goulding of Toronto has made a new world's record of 6 minutes 25.5 seconds for the one mile walk, cutting four-fifths of a second from the record of G. E. Larnar at Brighton, England, in 1904.

APPELLATE COURT AFFIRMS VERDICT

Rules That Mrs. Jeannette Sudhoff Was Damaged $5,000 by Railroad.

HUSBAND KILLED ON DUTY

WAS AWARDED DAMAGES BY THE JURY IN CIRCUIT COURT. AND DEFENDANT COMPANY PROMPTLY APPEALED RULING.

The verdict of the local jury in the case of Jeannette Sudhoff, administratrix of the estate of her husband, John Sudhoff, a Pennsylvania engineer who was killed at Logansport several years ago, against the railroad company for $5,000 damages, has been affirmed by the appellate court of Indiana, according to word received by Shively and Shively, the plaintiff's attorneys.

The case has been pending for three years and the favorable action of this court will result in Mrs. Sudhoff receiving the total amount of the damages awarded by the local jury with the accrued interest. The law gives six percent interest per annum.

John Sudhoff was a Pennsylvania engineer and when running into Logansport the train was wrecked through the negligence of one of the road's employees, and he was killed instantly. Suit was brought by Mrs. Sudhoff for damages and was one of the most bitterly fought in the Wayne circuit court. Following the verdict of the jury, John L. Rupe, attorney for the company, appealed the case to the appellate court.

Water from the engine was used in putting out the blaze. The bridge was not badly damaged, and but one or two of the supports of the trestle will have to be replaced. The entire trestle was charred, however. The reward to be given the boys has not been made public.

A peculiar case was tried in the city court this afternoon. Walter Bragg, colored, pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery on George Sittloh, Wednesday afternoon at the market place on South Sixth street. He was fined $1 and costs. ## FIREWORKS DISPLAY

Fine Pyrotechnics Last Evening Marked the Close of The Festival.

A LARGE CROWD ATTENDS

Following the shooting of a nine foot sky rocket at Fifteenth and South B streets, last evening, it was announced that the second Fall Festival, so far as the association was concerned, was at a close. The display of fireworks was probably the finest ever seen in this city, and lasted for more than a half hour.

The display included sky rockets, Roman candles, and all varieties of set pieces. The pieces were not of the regular size but, instead, resembled cannons and some when shot off made as much noise. A crowd of at least 3,000 persons followed the Mardi Gras parade to the scene of the fireworks display.

It is reported that a girl had her too cut off by a falling sky rocket, but the rumor could not be verified. Several people had small holes burned in their clothing, as a result of falling sparks.

WAS HORSE STOLEN?

Beech McMullin, a liveryman at Greensfork, has reported the presumed theft of a horse and buggy by a Greensfork young man, whose name the authorities say they have forgotten. It is alleged by McMullin, that the young man came to his establishment, Thursday, and hired a horse and buggy to visit his girl. Instead of returning the outfit when he promised, he drove away and has not been heard from since. It is believed by the authorities that the boy, whom they say McMullin alleges works for D. W. Harris, a prominent farmer of Greensfork, came to this city and got on a spree and drove away. It is not believed that he intended to steal the animal.
