

BLOODY PIRATES RIP UP SUMMERS IN THE GETAWAY

With a Landslide of Hits and Some Wild-eyed Tiger Fielding, Pittsburg Takes a Very Fair Lead.

WILLETT RUSHED IN TO RELIEVE HIS PAL

Thousands of Detroit Supporters Stunned by the Suddenness and Fierceness Of Pirates' Attack.

Detroit, Oct. 11.—With rapidly clearing weather Bennett park quickly filled today. The general admission fans at an early hour, after many had camped near the gates all night long, stormed the park. By noon the reserved seats, all of which were engaged a week ago, began to fill. A Pittsburg man named McGreevey, who slept on a cot at the gate, bought the first two tickets when the box office opened, the second one being for his father.

Summers was announced to pitch for Detroit, but Jennings said he might change to Mullin before the game starts. Mullin is considered especially good on heavy grounds, such as exist today. Maddox will work for Pittsburg. At Chicago a hundred thousand dollars was placed, ranging mostly at three to two, on the Pirates.

Pittsburg fans were asking seven to five today, but the prevailing price here was even money.

Prior to the start of the game Pitcher Mullin was called to the plate and presented with a bunch of two hundred one dollar bills by his Detroit admirers.

HE FINDS BICYCLE

Myron Hill, who thought he had his bicycle stolen Saturday, has received his wheel. The bicycle was left standing in front of a local wholesale house on North E street and by mistake was ridden to Webster by Albert Muhl, who thought it was the wheel he had borrowed. Upon discovering his error Mr. Muhl returned the bicycle to its owner this morning.

She Had Waited For It. He (about to ask for a kiss)—I have an important question to ask you. She (playfully)—I know what it is, George. You want me to be your wife. Well, take me. He (rather taken aback)—This is somewhat sudden, isn't it? She (tenderly)—I don't know, George, whether it is sudden for you or not, but I have waited for it for three years.

EGGS ARE SOARING

Predicted They Will Fly High Enough to Hit the 35 Cent Mark.

ARE 30 CENTS DOZEN NOW

By the latter part of the week, it was declared by a local grocer this morning, eggs will be selling at 30 cents a dozen, and it was estimated that the price would steadily climb then until the 35 cent mark would soon be reached. Eggs are at present selling for 25 cents a dozen, and even now the price is considerably higher than it has been at this season for years. At this time last year "hen fruit" sold for 18 and 20 cents a dozen.

This unusual raise in price is due to the fact that the hens are moulting and the further and more convincing fact that the farmers realize they can get an exorbitant price just as readily as a reasonable one. "You can depend upon it," said the grocer, in speaking of the matter, "anything that comes off of the farm bears a price that cannot be reached by persons even in moderate circumstances.

M'MANUS IS HAPPY

Patrolman Dan McManus is wearing the broad grin. The Roosevelt bird hovered over the genial policeman's home the other night and left a bounding baby girl. Both mother and child are doing nicely and its up to Dan to pass the cigars around.

CASE IS CONTINUED

The case of Ed Holder, the livery man, charged with assault and battery on Earl Perry, which was to have been tried in the city court this afternoon, has been continued again until Friday afternoon in order to permit the defense to look up their witnesses.

Electricity Will Be Power to Fear

Lewis Nixon, shipbuilder and graduate of the U. S. Naval academy and at one time head of Tammany Hall, New York, who expresses his belief that electric impulse will be the death dealing agency of future military and naval operations, enabling warriors to hurl a thunderbolt upon battleships that will instantly shock to death every man on board. Aeroplanes, the naval authority declares, will be used principally for observation purposes, and not, as has been supposed, for actual fighting operations.

Suit was filed in the circuit court today by Edna Freeman against her husband, Carl Freeman, asking for divorce and custody of their only child. Cruel and inhuman treatment are the grounds aversed.

LAST SIGN IS GONE

"Panic Proof" Sign Over Main Street Has Now Been Removed

ENCHANTED CITY IS GONE

With the taking down this morning of the large sign, "Panic Proof" which was stretched across the street at the Fall Festival headquarters, Main street, now presents a bare appearance. Like the enchanted cities in fairy tales did the principal thoroughfare of Richmond resemble during the three days of the festival, but the merchants and decorators have been very busy in the past two days and the festive and gay decorations have been put away until next fall when the fair will be repeated.

It is amusing to watch persons dodge step ladders which are stretched across the sidewalk on Main street for the purpose of taking down the flags and bunting. The old superstition that it is bad luck to walk under a ladder has established a firm hold on many who walk clear out in the gutter rather than run the risk of any ill fortune befalling them.

IN GOOD TRAINING

Both Johnson and Ketchel Are In Fine Shape at the Present Time.

INTEREST IN THE MATCH

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—Johnson and Ketchel are well along in their training now, and it is reasonable to suppose that both of them will land in the ring in as good condition as conscientious preparation will permit. The public has kept close tab on both men at their respective camps and while the championship candidates have not heeded to the line in everything they have done, it is felt they have both kept in view of the necessity of being at their best when they toe the scratch at Coffroth's arena.

An interesting thing about the work is that Johnson had been trying to get down to a lower weight than he has fought at for years, while Ketchel has been trying to build up a bigger notch than usual. According to all accounts each man has made his point. Johnson says he will scale a pound or two over the 190 pound mark next Saturday. Ketchel expects to tip the beam at 175 pounds or thereabouts.

Heavy tragedian seated at a rail way hotel before a roast chicken and small potatoes—Fritter, landlord, dwells there within the precincts of this hamlet a matchin?

Laudford—A matchin? Yes, sir.

Tragedian—They take to him this bird or many springs. Bid him wrench asunder these iron limbs and then for our regalemen to chisel slices from its underlying bosom, for we dine anon, and do it quickly. Your pens you need not carry, for those, with dexterous management, we can swallow whole. Away!—London Tatler.
