

15 YEARS PRACTICAL SHOW CASE MAKING BY CLARK SHOW CASE CO., Columbus, O.

Merchants who have bought show cases ON PRICE regardless of quality, do not make this mistake again; QUALITY is their first consideration, PRICE SECONDARY. 'Tis cheaper to buy GOOD CASES ONCE, than poor cases twice. No store is improved with cheap, low priced fixtures, or are the goods displayed in them at their best.

Grace Van Studdiford in "The Golden Butterfly" at the Gennett Wednesday, Oct. 12.

"The Traveling Salesman."

"The Traveling Salesman," James Forbes's latest comedy, which Henry B. Harris will present at the Gennett Monday, October 18 monopolizes the laugh market for the season, inasmuch as it is being designated by the press and public as the greatest comedy success of the past twenty years. The faithfulness with which Mr. Forbes has depicted certain incidents in the life of a drummer on the road, is worthy of commendation, sufficiently so as to warrant the endorsement of the United Commercial Travelers' and the Travelers Protective Association. It will be acted here by the same company that helped make it a huge success in New York and Chicago, in which cities it ran for over a year.

"The Golden Butterfly."

The Hungarian grape harvest scene in the third act of "The Golden Butterfly" is an artistic triumph and true to nature in color and action. The masses of foliage, green, silver and brown, the great clusters of purple, red and golden grapes, the gay hues of the girls and the picturesque costumes of the men and the tinkling of the horses' bells as they are driven past with great baskets piled high with grapes, and the singing of the harvesters, is considered one of the most beautiful and unusual scenes afforded the public. "The Golden Butterfly" with Grace Van Studdiford and a large corps of comedians, singers and dancers, will be the attraction at the Gennett theater Wednesday evening, Oct. 20.

"The Merry Widow."

The Viennese are essentially a bright, happy, pleasure-loving people, fond of music, gaiety and the dance, and "The Merry Widow" the wonderful musical importation from gay Vienna has lost not an atom of her brilliancy and sparkle by translation into the English tongue.

It is a draught of intoxicating wine, full to overflowing of golden bubbles. No sooner does one reach the surface and burst than it is followed by another and another, with an apparently inexhaustible supply. Never once does the wine lose its sparkle. The draught is invigorating, full of delicious exhilaration, and when the glass is drain-

If It Disappears, It's Eczema.

How to Tell Whether a Skin Affection is an Inherited Blood Disease or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to W. H. Sudhoff's or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents' worth of poslum. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslum acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blisters, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itch, scaly scalp, and all surface skin afflictions.

Those who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

New Play House Opened Last Evening With Two Performances and Big Crowds Attended Each.

IS A MODEL THEATER AND IS FIRE-PROOF

Manager Murray, in Return
For Compliments Given Him
Offered Best Vaudeville Bill Possible.

The New Murray theater, Tenth and Main streets, was formally opened to the public last evening, with the most exceptional program that has ever been given in this city, and in the presence of two large audiences which taxed the capacity of the theater. Many were prevented from attending the first performance, but were present at the second.

The New Murray theater has been under the progress of construction since last spring. The finishing touches have not all been put on the building as yet, although the theater proper is completed. It was pronounced the most up to date vaudeville house in the middle west by the patrons who were present.

House a Safe One.

Every detail for the comfort and safety of the public has been effectively worked out in the construction of the house. Likewise every detail for putting on the attractions to best advantage. The color scheme is old ivory, green and gold, being particularly pleasing to the eye.

The seating capacity of the play house is approximately 800 and sufficiently large to warrant the staging of high class plays, other than vaudeville attractions. In fact, the management may later bring a few of the best shows on the road here. In respect to the seating capacity, it could have been increased a large percent, had not Mr. Murray made comfort the most important rule of his plans in the construction of the house. The seats are sufficiently wide to admit the fat man at the circus and permit him to enjoy the performance. The tall man who has no place to put his knees at the ordinarily arranged play house, will have no complaint to make about the seat arrangement in the New Murray.

A Spacious Lobby.

In entering the theater, one passes into a spacious lobby, attractively fitted and decorated. The wainscoting of both the main entrance and the lobby is marble. Both the entrance and the lobby are well lighted. Off to the left of the lobby as one enters, is to be found the office and ladies retiring room. Before passing into the main auditorium of the theater, one goes through three sets of doors which prevent all noise from Main street and cold air from entering.

In respect to the fire protection afforded the public, Mr. Murray has arranged so that in the event of a fire the danger is reduced to almost nil. The stage curtain is made out of asbestos and there is also provided a waterproof curtain. Any blaze starting on the stage would be confined to that particular section of the theater. Even providing a fire started from some source in the main auditorium, it would be possible to empty the theater in record time, there being exits to either side of the theater. This is true of the gallery as well as the main floor.

Murray Complimented.

Compliments were bestowed on Mr. Murray from every side. Those who could congratulate him personally did so, but this was impossible for all and they showed their appreciation of Mr. Murray's efforts in their behalf by applause. It is safe to say that there was not a disappointed person present last evening.

A number of professional theater men were present. These formed an inspection party and paid Mr. Murray the highest compliments.

Mr. Murray was represented by Attorney Will Reller. Mr. Reller made a short speech in which he congratulated the public on having such an excellent play house and made complimentary references to Mr. Murray for his endeavor to furnish Richmond with the best vaudeville attractions. These references were followed by prolonged applause from the audience.

A Spacious Bill.

As pertains to the initial performance given in the theater, nothing too complimentary can be said of it. It is without exception, one hundred percent better than any vaudeville performance ever put on in this city before.

Le Clair and Sampson, the burlesque strong man have one of the cleverest stunts on the stage today. Ferguson and Passmore, who are advertised as past masters in dancing, live up to their advertised reputation. The one act comedy "Our Wife" put on by Frank Rutledge and two supporting characters is very good. However, the hit of the evening was Eddie Adair and his Yankee Octette and Edythe Henney. This act is high class musical comedy. The eight members of the chorus, Mr. Adair and Miss Henney, are well costumed, have a number of catchy and original songs and carry special scenery.

The opening overture by the New Murray orchestra, the illustrated song and the motion pictures were also excellent.

It was announced that the performances in the future would in no wise be less interesting and included in the coming attractions are "Childhood Days, the Juvenile Joyfest," "The Six Squabs from Happy Land," "The Seminary Girl," and "The Soul of the Violin" with Vere Ridgely.

OPHEUM STOCK CO.

The Orpheum Stock company which opened a week's engagement at the Gennett theater last evening has a number of very good plays in its repertoire. For tonight the bill is that old familiar play of Daniel Sully's "A Parish Priest." Both Miss Louise Brown and Mr. Edward Doyle made pronounced hits last evening.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

Bad Stomach Causes Unsightly Complexions. L. H. Fine Has a Remedy.

Bad stomachs mean bad blood; bad blood means sallow, unattractive skin. Why? The stomach in a healthy condition separates the nutritious matter from the food and gives it to the blood to supply the entire body with nourishment.

If the stomach is not in a healthy condition it does not separate from the food the nutritious matter and it passes off with the waste.

Thus the blood is impoverished and has not sufficient nourishment to supply the muscles, skin and body generally.

If you have belching of gas, distress after eating, nausea, biliousness, nervousness or foul breath, then your stomach is wrong and you want the best prescription for stomach troubles the world has ever known.

You want Mi-ona tablets, the great stomach remedy which L. H. Fine guarantees to cure indigestion, no matter of how long standing, or money back.

Relieves stomach distress at once.

Mi-ona is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Richmond by L. H. Fine for 50 cents a large box. Test samples free from Booth's Mi-ona, Buffalo, N. Y.

Scotch Smooth.

For traveling, trading and all the things one must do on the Sabbath, Scotland, of course, must ever hold the palm. Not in the seventeenth century alone, but through all the ages and even unto the present day the Scotch Sunday has a law unto itself. There is the experience of James Payn, for instance, in the Edinburgh of only the seventies. "In the street where I first resided," he wrote, "it struck me that to judge by the drawdown blinds the people spent a good deal of their time upon the seventh day in bed. On my second Sunday, however, I was undeviated, for my landlady came up and informed me that, though she had not spoken of it last Sunday, she must now draw my attention to the fact that it was not usual in Edinburgh to draw up the window blinds on the Sabbath and that the neighbors had begun to remark upon the 'unlawful appearance' of her establishment, which had heretofore been a God fearing house."

BURGLARS' TOOLS.

Most of Them Made by Supposed Respectable Mechanics.

Every little while, said a detective recently, the police arrest a man with a set of burglar's tools in his possession, and one naturally wonders where they all come from.

It is easy to buy a gun of any description, and the most reputable person would not be ashamed to be seen purchasing the most wicked looking knife ever made. But who would know where to get a "Jimmy" or a device for drilling into a safe or any of the many tools used by the professional burglar in the pursuit of his calling?

There are places in the large cities where these things are made and sold to the users, but such places are exceedingly scarce. It may seem a little strange to learn that most of the tools used in burglaries are made by mechanics who are looked upon as respectable men in the community.

Thus the blood is impoverished and has not sufficient nourishment to supply the muscles, skin and body generally.

If you have belching of gas, distress after eating, nausea, biliousness, nervousness or foul breath, then your stomach is wrong and you want the best prescription for stomach troubles the world has ever known.

HIS Sound Sleep.

Lord North slept in the house of commons, says Mr. Spencer Leigh Hughes, more than any other man who ever led it, but even he was awake at times.

There was an occasion on which some gentleman was denouncing the noble lord in really very fine style, and the noble lord gave every indication of being not only asleep, but fast asleep and snoring.

The indignant member exclaimed,

"Sir, even in this crisis in the history of our nation the noble lord is asleep."

Lord North opened one eye for one moment and made the memorable remark, "I wish to heaven I was," and then he resumed his attitude of repose.—London Scraps.

"Well, my teachers say I'm brighter than most pupils."—Cleveland Leader.
