

GARY BLIND PIGS ARE IN DEFIANCE

Following Indictment of Saloon Men Hot Municipal War Begins.

GRAND JURY DENOUNCED

A CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR, NOW PRESIDENT OF THE TOWN BOARD, CALLS 63 TRUE BILLS A POLITICAL MOVE.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 12.—Prospects of becoming an incorporated city has plunged the town of Gary into the biggest uproar over the enforcement of law against saloons that it has known in the three years of its existence.

Following the indictment of sixty-three keepers of illegal saloons by the Lake county grand jury on the eve of the first city election in the steel city, open defiance of the anti-saloon laws was more rampant yesterday than it has ever been before.

Open denunciation of the act of the grand jury in bringing true bills against saloon-keepers as high handed political trickery was made by the chief executive, Thomas E. Knotts, president of the town board, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination as mayor of the new city.

On the other hand, the conservative element of the democratic and the republican leaders declare that the chief executive has permitted the opening of wide open saloons in the face of the Deuell remonstrance in order to curry favor with the foreign laborers employed at the Illinois Steel company's plant, who are rapidly becoming naturalized as voters.

Big Election Fight Near. In the vernacular of Gary the saloons are known as "blind pigs," because Gary is theoretically "dry" territory under the Indiana law.

A report that true bills had been voted against two members of the town board was denied during the day by witnesses who testified before the inquisitorial body. They said that evidence offered against the board members was held up until after the election.

Next Saturday the citizens of Gary will vote to incorporate as a city. There is no opposition to this move, for within three years the steel city has grown to a population of 15,000. On November 2 the first city election will be held and a mayor and city council will be named. Even a new city government, however, cannot nullify the "dry" law, which positively prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquor in Gary until May 1, 1910.

The Deuell remonstrance was made possible by the fact that the number of signers required was based upon the last town election, at which only 165 votes were cast. Unless the saloon element can overthrow this law in the courts, there is no hope for them for nearly six months, no matter how large their majority, because county officials have agreed that even the Anti-Saloon league cannot recall the remonstrance.

Says Gary Wants Saloons.

In a spasm of reform two months ago the citizens and business men rose up in arms and drove out gambling houses and disorderly resorts in the district known as the "patch" in the south end of the town. The "blind pigs" were closed and an appeal was made for a few well regulated licensed saloons. The saloons remained closed but a few weeks and were reopened in defiance of the law. There was no interference on the part of the police.

"I do not deny that the 'blind pigs' are running," said Mr. Knotts; "but the people of Gary want saloons and they are determined to have their beer. When we enforced the closing law liquor was shipped in to all of the express companies and brought in by wagons and on trains. I ordered a carload seized and made arrests, but could not get a conviction."

"This grand jury indictment is merely a political move to 'get' met at the coming election. I am the only democrat on the present board and the opposition party has control of the county offices. They are willing to try to besmirch the character of the two other members and me in order to carry the election."

Calls It Political Move. "I know who is back of this movement. They could stop many of the 'blind pigs' if they wanted to. There are twenty of them running on the property of the Gary Land company, but I am confident that it is only my friends who have been indicted."

"I do not know which of the saloon-keepers are Mr. Knotts' friends and which are not," said State's Attorney Charles E. Greenwalt. "It makes no difference to me. I am not interested in the city election."

Knotts is opposed to the democratic nomination for mayor by W. C. Crolius, former mayor of Joliet, once candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Illinois. The republican candidate for mayor is John A. Brennan, a druggist, who has been active in the business men's movement for reform.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. A. G. Luken & Co.

CITY IN BRIEF

Mrs. C. A. Brehm, 35 N. 8th St., has just received a large shipment of the latest hats to be sold at lowest prices.

The River Jordan. The historic river Jordan has its origin in one of the largest springs in the world.

See the elegant line of black plumes at Mrs. C. A. Brehm's, 35 N. 8th St.

PRESIDENT TAFT VISITS VETERANS

Early This Morning Went to Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle, California.

ALSO VISITS HOLLYWOOD

IS SHOWN MILLIONAIRES' ROW AND IS THEN TAKEN IN AN AUTOMOBILE THROUGH PRIVATE ORANGE GROVE.

(American News Service)

Los Angeles, Oct. 12.—A day of inspection and sight-seeing that did not end until eight cities of Southern California had been visited and the train will have started for El Paso, at 9:30 o'clock tonight, was planned for President Taft today. And to the president during the day's travel was unfolded the flowerland of the country, adjacent to this city.

At 8:30 o'clock this morning the president and party left the Los Angeles-Pacific electric railway station in a private car for an inspection of the Sawtelle soldiers' home. Arriving at Sawtelle at 9:35, the president was taken through the grounds and the buildings and made a fifteen minute address to some 2,000 veterans of many wars. At 9:05 the special car bearing the president's party left the soldiers' home for Hollywood. Here the president was taken on an automobile tour of the city, the people being out en masse to greet the chief executive.

Line of Motor Cars. A line of motor cars returned through Los Angeles and slowly moved out Pasadena avenue to Pasadena, which city was reached at 11 a. m. After an auto ride through the exclusive orange grove and the millionaire residence section, President Taft and his party were piloted under a half-mile long arch of flowers and flags to the Hotel Maryland, where luncheon was had with the president and Gov. Gillett, as guests of honor and the Pasadena board of trade as hosts.

From the Maryland the president was driven through streets lined with throngs of cheering people to the Santa Fe station where he boarded the Mayflower and left at 12:45 p. m. One minute stops were made at Monrovia, Azusa, Claremont and Upland. At San Bernardino which was reached at 2:15 o'clock another automobile parade was held. Taft and his party will leave the train for a trip over the city, which is planning to give him a great reception. Again boarding the train he will travel over the famous "kite-shaped track" to Redlands and Colton. Forty-five minutes will be spent at Redlands and the party will reach Colton at 4 p. m. and Riverside at 4:35 o'clock. Here the president will be taken on an hour and a half motor trip, which includes a ride to the summit of Rubidoux mountain where a tablet will be unveiled in honor of the occasion. In the evening President Taft will be banqueted at the Glenwood hotel, after which he will leave at 9:30 o'clock for Arizona.

Curate (to old Mrs. Budge, who has advanced crockery for a local tea)—I trust, Mrs. Budge, everything was returned safely? Mrs. Budge—Puff-bly, sir, everything—barring one spoon as come back short, sir.—London Punch.

One Short. Curate (to old Mrs. Budge, who has advanced crockery for a local tea)—I trust, Mrs. Budge, everything was returned safely? Mrs. Budge—Puff-bly, sir, everything—barring one spoon as come back short, sir.—London Punch.

BOTH BOYS SAVED. Louis Roon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. A. G. Luken & Co.

Mary Duggan's Long Lost Bill Returns—Gets Cold Reception

Chicago, Oct. 12.—A chilly wind which he was facing without an overcoat and the savory odor of home cooking which reached him through the open kitchen window, conquered for a short time the roving disposition of William Duggan last Sunday evening and for the first time in two years he mounted the stairs leading to his wife's doorway, 618 West Forty-first street, and sought a reconciliation. "Who is there," asked Mrs. Duggan, after she had pushed the coffee pot far-

OPENING SESSION HELD LAST NIGHT

First English Lutheran Church Begins Its Week of Celebration.

HAROLD O. KAPP SPOKE

MEETING LAST EVENING WAS IN CHARGE OF THE MEN'S UNION AND THE MUTUAL AID SOCIETY—PAPERS READ.

The opening service of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the First English Lutheran church, South Eleventh and A streets, was held last evening and was in charge of the Men's Union and Mutual Aid society. The program of the evening was featured by the address of Harold O. Kapp, a young attorney of Cincinnati and a son of Rev. J. W. Kapp, of Cincinnati, former minister of the local church. The attendance was large, especially so when the weather conditions last evening is taken in consideration.

The opening numbers were musical selections, both vocal and instrumental. The musical selections of the program were as follows: Organ voluntary, "Reverie," Nicolle-Eddy; song, "Onward Christian Soldiers," by the congregation; male chorus; song by congregation, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War"; selection by male chorus and song by congregation, "O Man of God, Arise." All of the musical numbers were rendered in a very pleasing manner.

Layman Movement.

Mr. Kapp in his address discussed the layman movement and said that the general business of the church should be as much in the hands of the laymen as others. He referred to the fact that Martin Luther inaugurated this movement.

The history of the Men's Union and the history of the Mutual Aid society was considered in papers read by E. B. Knollenberg and Robert Morrey.

The celebration at the church this evening will be in charge of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society and the Ladies Aid society. The program is as follows:

Music, Selected—Sunday School, Orchestra.

Prayer—Rev. E. G. Howard, pastor. Song, Selected—Children's Choir. History of Sunday School—Dr. F. W. Krueger, Historian.

Song, "Stand up, Stand up for Jesus"—School.

Intermission—Ten minutes.

Song, Selected—Children's Choir.

Address—Prof. Elbert Russell.

Song, "Jesus, King of Glory"—Congregation.

Music, Selected—Sunday School Orchestra.

Benediction—Rev. E. G. Howard.

Reception Committee—Dr. A. L. Bramkamp, Henry Kluter, Fred Bartel, Emma Engelbrecht, Mrs. Chas. Backmeyer, Mary Peltz.

AT LAST.

It will surprise many to know that at last a message has been sent to Mars. And an intelligent answer received. The message was "Howdy, do you use rub-a-lac?" Back came the answer, "Sure, we know a good thing when we see it. Note the fleecy whiteness of our clouds. You cannot mistake if you ask your grocer for rub-a-lac."

Musk-rat as a Delicacy.

The majority of persons are disgusted by the mere thought of eating muskrat, but undoubtedly this is due to the prejudice against the name of rat. However, they are greatly mistaken in thinking this rodent for it is one of the cleanest of living animals and is delicious when properly cooked.

The muskrat's home is built of marsh grass heaped into a mound and situated above the level of high water. This house is dry and warm, and the interior is always spotlessly clean. Feeding entirely upon tender roots and herbs, this peculiar little animal invariably scrubs thoroughly in the water every bit of food before it is eaten. He is cleaner than many a human being.—Harper's Weekly.

One Short. Curate (to old Mrs. Budge, who has advanced crockery for a local tea)—I trust, Mrs. Budge, everything was returned safely? Mrs. Budge—Puff-bly, sir, everything—barring one spoon as come back short, sir.—London Punch.

BOTH BOYS SAVED. Louis Roon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. A. G. Luken & Co.

This Will Make You Think

along with the first cold blasts of winter, of that new suit or overcoat. We make them to your measure so that they fit, and they must fit, too, or you can't have them.

All the season's new fabrics are shown in great variety. The newest patterns are here, so don't delay—get a suit made to order.

Greater values for same money you get in ready-made—

$13.50 to $42

Saturday Special

Men's 15c Hose to go on sale Saturday, and Saturday only, for 8 1/2 a Pair

F. C. FRIEDGEN & CO., 918 MAIN

"The Place It Pays to Go and Buy"

RUSSELL IN LOVE WITH OL'IRELAND

Confesses to Earlham Students That Emerald Isle Haunts Him.

TELLS OF RECENT TRIP.

WAS SURPRISED TO FIND THE IRISH PEASANTRY DID NOT LIVE IN HUTS, BUT IN GOOD STONE BUILDINGS.

"I must confess that Ireland haunts me," stated Elbert Russell in the Earlham college chapel this morning. While in England and Ireland the past summer I was impressed with England. England is a garden, her highways are swept scrupulously clean. The slums are all in order. The streets are not the same in Ireland. I don't think that I will ever forget the smell in Ireland. That intangible, depressing smell," continued the professor.

Professor Russell was in the British Isles this summer during which time he addressed the Woodbrook Seminary in London and Dublin. While there he was entertained by many friends and made some close studies and observations of the cities and the people.

Tells of Homes. Among the things Professor Russell discussed, was the home rule of the Irish people. "Many of the inhabitants are descendants of the soldiers of Cromwell and they are not at home. Most of these people do not believe in home rule."

"Among the Irish peasantry I was surprised that they did not live in huts but substantial looking stone buildings. They are small however and the children, chickens and pigs occupy the same rooms. The people are individualistic and they seem dissatisfied with existing conditions. On the boat coming home it was crowded with Irish emigrants."

After describing the church and Catholic modes, he said that he looked into one of the cathedrals and the carvings and pictures seemed grotesque and hideous. The outlook for Ireland is gloomy. The population that is left behind is the survival of the unfit, and there are many lunatics in that country. In proportion to the number of inhabitants there is more insanity in Ireland than any other country in the world. And they are not confined to hospitals, but they are met by one in the street."

Goes to Penn College.

Professor Edwin Morrison of the department of physics and chemistry, of Earlham, will leave tomorrow for Penn College, Iowa, where he will attend the annual Penn day exercises and deliver the main address. Penn college was founded in 1873 and Professor Morrison was professor of physics and chemistry from 1901-1906.

Allen Jay left this morning for Kokomo, where he will attend the funeral of Nathan Pickett of this city. Mr. Pickett was at one time a member of the board of trustees of Earlham and a prominent friend.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. A. G. Luken & Co.

A Special Luncheon.

The head of the house had telephoned that he would bring home a guest to luncheon—and a guest whom his wife realized that he would delight to honor. Preparations were made accordingly, with results satisfactory to her hospitable and housewifely heart.

Unfortunately six-year-old Dorothy came in a trifle late. Sweeping the table with one all embracing glance. "Hum!" she queried audibly as she climbed into her chair. "Is this lunch?"

"Why, of course it's luncheon, Dorothy," her mother hastily intervened, with a repressive gesture.

But Dorothy was not to be stayed. "Well," she returned incredulously, "maybe it is, but it looks exactly like Sunday dinner!"

Railways in Holland. Of the railways in Holland E. V. Lucas writes: "The trains come in to the minute and go out to the minute. The officials are intelligent and polite. The carriages are good. Every station has its waiting room, where you may sit and read and drink a cup of coffee that is not only hot and fresh, but is recognizably the product of the berry. It is impossible to travel in the wrong train."—Exchange.

Virtue in Onions.

Onions are well known to be valuable as aperients, but much of their medicinal quality passes into the water in which they are boiled, and so they are best, says an authority, when incorporated in a vegetable stew. Spanish onions are best when an aperient action is desired, but if they are eaten to promote sleep the tiny ones that are pulled from the garden in spring are as powerful as those of larger growth.

C. R. Kluger, the Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." A. G.

AN AUTO ACCIDENT RECEIVER IS NAMED

Kewanee, Ill., Oct. 12.—Mrs. J. H. Hungate, aged sixty years was instantly killed and three other occupants badly injured when the large touring car owned and driven by O. W. Hungate of Lanarpe, Ill., son of the dead woman collided with a street car here today.

There is no medicine so safe and at the same time so pleasant to take as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the positive cure for all diseases arising from stomach trouble. The price is very reasonable—25c and $1.

(American News Service) Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.—A receiver has been appointed for the First National Bank of Mineral Point, Wisconsin. Liabilities are more than six hundred thousand dollars. A shortage of two hundred thousand dollars caused by forgeries, is reported.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

Why Does the Cook Like

Mather's Jackson Coal

- Because it gives the kind of heat she wants.
- Because it is the cleanest coal for cooking.
- Because it will not soot up the whole house.
- Because it leaves the bottom of skillets clean.
- Because other grades of Jackson won't do this.
- Because that is reason for the cook to demand

Mather's Jackson Coal

BACK HOME AGAIN—

took a vacation to enjoy the fall festival. I noticed this, that those people who took away a pair of Haisley's Pingree-made Shoes had a great deal better understanding than they had before. Everybody can have a more comfortable and satisfactory understanding if they wear Haisley's Pingree-made. COST NO MORE, BUT ARE BETTER.

FREEMAN F. HAISLEY, 820 Main

A Revelation

to many

the richness of the flavour of

Post

Toasties

Care, experience and skill in manufacture, bring out of White Corn the delightful new flavour. A dish with cream is comforting.

"The Memory Lingers"

Page. 10c and 18c

Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.