

ADVANCE WORK IN EDUCATION IS AN EARLHAM PROJECT

Extension Work, Taught by Various Members of College Faculty, for the Citizens of This City.

ORGANIZATION WILL BE EFFECTED SOON

Subjects Offered Are of Interest and It Is Expected That Various Classes Will Be Well Filled.

Earlham college extension courses offered by the different members of the faculty of Earlham college, to citizens of Richmond, which have proven to be of exceptional educational advantage, will be featured more extensively this year than last. Courses in every subject, taught at the college, are offered this year.

This is the seventh year that the college faculty has offered extension work. The teachers of the public schools have been most prominently identified as students in the courses offered heretofore, but this year an effort is being made to interest citizens as well.

The classes in the different courses will meet for the purpose of organization this week and next. The different classes promise to be well attended. Any one is permitted to become a member by announcing his intention to Superintendent T. A. Mott or faculty members of the college.

Two Hours Recitation. Recitations of two hours' length will be held once a week by each class. The course covers a period of twenty weeks and those who are successful are given the same number of college credits as though the work had been taken in a term at the college. The cost of the instruction is the same as though it were taken at the college.

The place of the meeting of the classes and the hours will be determined upon by the students enrolling. The following courses have been offered:

Prof. W. N. Trueblood, professor of English, offers a course in Anglo-Saxon for the study of "Beowulf." This class meets for organization Tuesday, October 10, at Earlham college, Prof. Trueblood's room; Prof. Harlow Lindsey offers a course in the study of history, the class to be organized tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, at Garfield building; Prof. Arthur Charles offers two courses in beginning and advanced French, which classes will organize tomorrow afternoon, Garfield building at 4:15 o'clock; Prof. Elbert Russell will have charge of the Bible Study course, which class will organize Monday evening at 7 o'clock, at the office of Superintendent T. A. Mott; Miss Elsie Marshall will have charge of the domestic science course, which class will organize next Friday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock at the Garfield building; Mrs. Cleveland Chase offers a course in historic art which art lovers of the city will take advantage of. This course is entirely new. This class, which organizes tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, Garfield building, will meet regularly at the assembly room of the Morrison-Reeves library, where stereopticon views will be used largely in demonstrating different points in connection with the work.

Other classes will be organized providing there is sufficient demand for them. The Garfield building has been offered by the Richmond school board, as it realizes the educational value of the courses to the citizens of Richmond.

Compulsory study of the ancient Irish language in the new national university at Dublin is expected to meet some opposition. At Queen's college, in Cork, Irish classes were instituted four years ago. The first year four pupils appeared, only two of whom stayed out the course; the second year there was a class of two and since then there have been no students of Irish at all in the college.

Gumption

means "common sense" when needed most.

Under no circumstances is it needed more than in the selection of right food.

The one reliable food which supplies material for rebuilding the important gray substance of brain and nerve cells, is

Grape-Nuts

This food is made of wheat and barley by a process which changes the starchy part of the grains into predigested food material so that it is quickly absorbed and promptly begins repairing and building up waste tissue throughout the body.

Grape-Nuts is a "common sense" food.

Roosevelt Hears Young Natives Sing

Former President Theodore Roosevelt, with Superintendent Hurlburt of the Inland Mission, listening to the singing of native black children at the Mission, Kijabe, British East Africa. To entertain the distinguished American, the missionaries erected a royal awning, hung with flags of the United States and Great Britain, laid a board floor and served an elaborate luncheon. In a speech, Roosevelt expressed himself as immensely pleased at the extent, beauty and fertility of the country, declaring that the Kapiti plains should accommodate healthy and prosperous settlements of white people. Referring to the English settlers of the territory, he said: "I have a peculiarly good feeling for the settlers. They remind me of the white men in our West, with whom I worked and with whose aspirations I so deeply sympathize."

LECTURER FAILS RENDER "HAMLET"

Big Audience Assembles to Hear Howard, But It Is Disappointed.

PAYS PALLADIUM A VISIT

LATE IN AFTERNOON HE DESCENDS UPON LOCAL ROOM AND HAS CHEERY LITTLE TALK WITH THE "CITY EDITOR."

At the Episcopal church last evening John F. Howard of Boston, Mass. was to have given his famous recital on Hamlet. The proceeds of the entertainment were to have gone to the Margaret Smith home for Aged Women.

There was a large audience, because Monday night Mr. Howard, who has received honors from the late Queen Victoria, King Edward and Lord Tennyson, had made a splendid impression with his rendition of "Julius Caesar."

But Mr. Howard did not act the part of the Moody Dane, last night, and it was necessary to dismiss the disappointed audience.

Perhaps the following interview, which occurred in the Palladium news room late yesterday afternoon, will explain why the entertainment was not given.

Makes His Entrance.

(Enter a distinguished, but somewhat dilapidated gentleman.) "Ish zis city edit'?"

"Yes."

"Well, zis ish Mr. Howard, the Ssh'speare ecture. I'm goin' give 'Hamlet' at 'Piscopal church 'night. Here's little book tells bout me' Read it. Shay, have you got ticket for lecture 'night? Well, jus' tell de keeper who y'are and walk in. Well, go'bye."

"So long," said the C. E.

Mr. Howard then proceeded, determinedly, but somewhat unsteadily to make a dignified exit, as becomes a Shakespearean scholar and a resident of Boston.

GET AN INVITATION

An invitation to do first degree work at the meeting of the Indiana Grand Lodge at Indianapolis, on November 16, has been extended to the degree team of Whitewater Lodge, I. O. O. F., of this city. The invitation will probably be accepted by the local team and a rehearsal will be held Thursday evening with the view of considering the matter. Two candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order Thursday night.

One of the most interesting of English trails for witchcraft was that of the Suffolk witches in 1663. The two prisoners were accused of bewitching young children, a great point for the prosecution being that out of the blankets of an infant suckled by one of them a great toad had fallen and exploded in the fire like gunpowder. Immediately after the witch was found at home scorched and maimed. In spite of unsatisfactory evidence, the two were convicted. Whereupon the children's health at once began to improve.

CORN SCHOOL FOR FUTURE FARMERS

Organization for Boys of Wayne County Will Soon Be Perfected.

COMMITTEE IS SELECTED

NEW CLUB WILL BE FORMALLY LAUNCHED IN DECEMBER—INVITATIONS SENT OUT TODAY TO THE TEACHERS.

Arrangements for the organization of the Boys' Wayne County Corn club, by the selection of a committee including Joseph Helms, Rudolph G. Leeds, Walter D. Commons and Charles W. Jordan, to have general supervision, were made this morning. The club will be formally organized at a meeting to be held in December, the date for which however, has not been set. The meeting will be held in Richmond.

Instructions as to the purpose of the club, and invitations for all boys to join, were mailed out to day by County Superintendent C. W. Jordan to all district school teachers. The teachers will be asked to organize the boys in their respective schools and interest them as much as possible in the work.

Those who signify their intentions of becoming members will be called together in a general meeting in December. At this time the boys will specify the one-quarter acre which they intend to plant in corn. This acre will be subjected to the inspection of either the committee or their representatives whom they may nominate.

To Get Scholarships.

The benefits to accrue to the prize winners are free tuitions to the short course at Purdue university, with the incidental expenses of the trip, etc., paid by the club. Just the number of such premiums to be given has not been decided as yet. While the premiums will be the goals sought by the members of the club, yet the club will have benefits for all, in that the members will be tutored free during the period of the corn's growth.

The members of the club will keep an accurate record of the labor spent in the culture of the quarter acre, the amount of fertilizer used, the success of the crop, the total expense and all like items, incidental to good business management. The committee will be assisted by members of Purdue faculty, especially by Prof. G. I. Christie of the corn department, in the making of the awards next fall.

It is probable at the time for making the awards each township will offer an exhibit and the boy having the best exhibit will be awarded the premium for that township. The township winners will then exhibit in this city in order that the club premiums may be bestowed.

A JOYFUL PASTIME

It's Really a Pleasure to Cure Catarrh by Breathing Hyomei.

It isn't a pleasure to saturate your stomach with vile nostrums or to shock the tender membrane of the nose and throat with disagreeable sprays and douches.

But strange to say there are a few thousand people who do not keep abreast of the times who are hooping against hope that these ancient methods will rid them of catarrh.

If the readers of Richmond who suffer from catarrh want to banish this vile and disgusting disease forever go to L. H. Fiehe today and get a complete Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) outfit for $1.00.

If it doesn't cure it won't cost you a cent because L. H. Fiehe will give you your money back.

Hyomei is so simple and pleasant to use: pour a few drops from the bottle into the inhaler and breathe it in. As it passes over the membrane and into the lungs with the air you breathe it soothes the raw membrane and kills the catarrh germs. Don't experiment longer. Leading druggists everywhere sell Hyomei for catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc. Drop a postal for our free book, Booth's Famous People, Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

MI-ONA Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disease, or money back. Large box of tablets, 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

The Only Correct Food.

The Chesapeake bay oyster is the only perfect food known to man. Every molecule of its frame is utilized. There are no feathers to blow away in picking; there are no bones to be heaved to the house dog under the table; there are no hoofs, horns, fur, down, gristles or soup meat to be wasted. It is more valuable than the hog, for it has no squeal to lose. The only sound it makes in dying is a satisfied kerpump. It seems to enjoy being eaten, and, if not, it is at least polite enough to refrain from spilling the feast with disgusting protests.

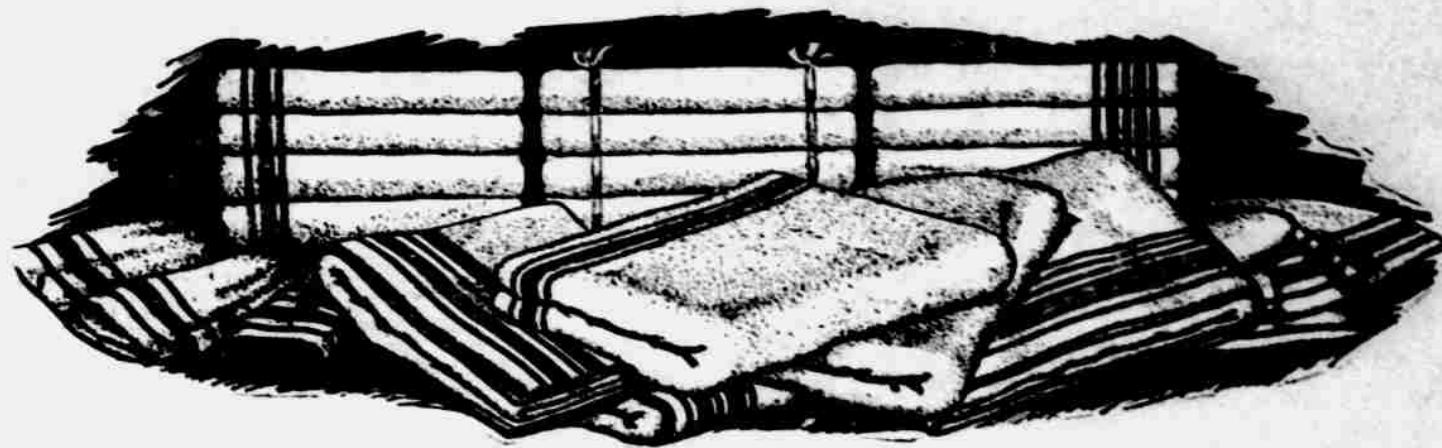

In a word, it has delicacy of feeling as well as delicacy of flavor.—Baltimore Sun.

A Precaution.

Husband (going to his rich uncle's funeral)—Put a couple of large handkerchiefs into my pocket, dear. The old gentleman promised to leave me $10,000, and I shall want to shed some appropriate tears.

Wife—But suppose when the will is read you find he hasn't left you anything?

Husband—In that case you had better put in three—London Fun.

Value of Albumen.

Albumen is by all odds the most important of the ingredients of our food. It is that part of the food upon which nutrition mainly depends. Take away the albumen and the gluten, which is probably the same substance in another form, and starvation must speedily follow, no matter how liberally we may partake of starch, sugar and fat.

Coals of Fire.

The druggist at the corner drug store had rolled back the woman's eyelids and relieved her of untold agony by removing several grains of sand that she had accumulated in the wind-storm. She smiled at him gratefully. "What do I owe you?" she asked. "Nothing at all," said he. "You buy nearly all your postage stamps here, you know."—New York Press.

I wish to announce to my many friends of Richmond and surrounding country that I have severed my connection with the firm of Pilgrim Brothers, and am with Allen & Co., 925-927-929 Main St., "Richmond's New Home Furnishers," as salesman.

Shall continue to appreciate meeting my friends at the above place.

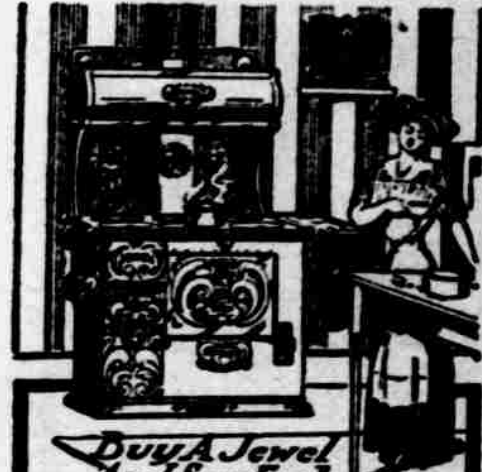

Respectfully yours,

W. M. PENNY.
