

PEEVED PIRATES SMASH THE BALL AND WIN SERIES

Bill Donovan Was an Easy Prey and Pittsburghers Mangled Mullin's Curves With Savage Abandon.

PATCHED UP OUTFIT
PROVED BE A WINNER

Young Adams Pitched His Third Victory of the Series And Administered White-wash to Hated Enemy.

(American News Service)

Detroit, Oct. 16.—Thousands of howling, shrieking, sympathizing friends of both the Tigers and the Pirates today, jammed Bennett Park as it never has been jammed before. The spectacle was one which may not occur again in a generation, when the importance and interest is considered. The temperature is fifty-six degrees and a cold wind is blowing across the diamond.

First Baseman Billy Abstein has probably played his last game of baseball in a Pittsburgh uniform, after the series. This was the startling statement made this morning by a high official of the Pittsburgh club. Bill is in disgrace as a result of his mistakes in the game here Thursday. As soon as the team gets back to Pittsburgh Abstein will draw his salary check from the club and return to his home in St. Louis. Abstein attempted to steal home during the ninth inning of Thursday's game with Detroit in the lead, and no one out, and was an easy victim. This capped the climax of his string of stupid plays, although it was conceded that they were largely due to over-anxiety and his intense desire to win.

Many people were turned away from the game this afternoon as the rush for tickets surpassed anything during the present series. Betting was mostly at even money, but many big bets were placed at a hundred to eighty, on Detroit. The batting order of the two teams today at the start of the game was as follows:

Detroit.—D. Jones, cf; Bush, ss; Cobb, rf; Crawford, cf; Delehanty, 2b; Moriarity, 3b; T. Jones, 1b; Schmidt, c; Donovan, p.

Pittsburgh.—Byrne, 3b; Leach, cf; Clarke, lf; Wagner, ss; Miller, 2b; Abstein, 1b; Wilson, rf; Gibson, c; Adams, p.

Umpires—Johnstone and O'Loughlin.

FIRST INNING.

Pittsburgh—Byrne was hit by a pitched ball. Leach sacrificed, Donovan to Tom Jones. Byrne was thrown out. Schmidt to Moriarity. Both Byrne and Moriarity were thrown prostrate on the ground after the play had been made. O'Leary warmed up to take Moriarity's place in the field while Byrne was carried off the field, but Moriarity stuck in the game. Leach went to third and Abstein to center field. Abstein was sent to first base. Clarke walked. Clarke stole second. Wagner walked. Miller forced Wagner. Bush to Delehanty. Three out, no runs, no hits, no errors, two left on bases.

Detroit—When Pittsburgh took field Abstein again took first base while Hyatt was in center in place of Abstein. D. Jones was retired on a strike. Bush was hit by a pitched ball. Cobb raised a long fly to Clarke. Bush was out stealing, Gibson to Miller. Three out, no runs, no hits, no errors, none left on bases.

Pittsburgh 0; Detroit 0.

SECOND INNING.

Pittsburgh—Abstein walked, then stole second. Wilson bunted safely and when Schmidt tried to get Abstein at third, his throw was too late. Gibson raised a pop fly to Bush. Adams walked, filling the bases. On Hyatt's long fly to Crawford, Abstein scored. Leach walked and Clarke walked, forcing Wilson over the plate. Wagner lined to Cobb. Two runs, one hit, no errors, three left on bases.

Detroit—Crawford hit to Abstein, who beat him to the bag. Delehanty stepped in front of a pitched ball and was not allowed to take first base. Delehanty then worked Adams for a pass. Moriarity doubled over first. O'Leary went into run for Moriarity. Tom Jones raised a high fly to Wagner. Schmidt bunted and was thrown out. Adams to Abstein. Three out, no runs, one hit, no errors, two left on bases.

Pittsburgh 2; Detroit 0.

THIRD INNING.

Pittsburgh—O'Leary goes to third in place of Moriarity for Detroit. Miller singled to center. Abstein doubled over third base. Wilson hit to Bush, who threw Miller out to Schmidt. Abstein was run down on the line and was doubled, Schmidt to Delehanty. Gibson forced Wilson, Bush to Delehanty. Three out, no runs, two hits, no errors, two left on bases.

Detroit—Mullin went in for Donovan. He lined to Miller. Davy Jones bunted and beat Adams's throw. Bush out, Adams to Abstein. Adams threw out Cobb. Three out, no runs, one hit, no errors, one left on base.

Pittsburgh 2; Detroit 0.

FOURTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Mullin now pitching for Detroit. Davy Jones ran back and caught Adams's fly. Hyatt walked. Leach singled to left, over Bush, Hyatt going to second. Clarke sacrificed. Mullin to Tom Jones, on a very close decision. Wagner was purposely passed. Miller singled past Tom Jones, Hyatt and Leach scoring. Wagner went to third on the throw in. Miller stole second. Abstein struck out. Two runs, two hits, no errors, none left on bases.

Detroit—Crawford was easy for Leach and Abstein. Delehanty put a roller between Abstein and Miller for a single. O'Leary sent a fly to Wagner. Tom Jones singled. Wilson's throw held Delehanty at second. Schmidt hit to Leach, who touched third before Delehanty arrived. Three out, no runs, two hits, no errors, two left on bases.

Pittsburgh 4; Detroit 0.

FIFTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Crawford got Wilson's fly. Bush and Tom Jones got Gibson. Adams was easy, Delehanty to Tom Jones. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left on bases.

Detroit—Leach made a wonderful one-handed stop and throw of Mullin's bouncer. Davy Jones struck out. A slight dry snow is now falling. Wagner and Abstein got Bush. Three outs, no runs, no hits, no errors, none left on bases.

Pittsburgh 4; Detroit 0.

SIXTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Delehanty threw Hyatt out to Tom Jones. Leach doubled. Clarke walked. Wagner doubled scoring Leach and Clarke. Wagner took third. The ball took a false bound on the throw in, and Wagner scored. Miller flied to Crawford. Abstein flied to Bush. Three runs, two hits, one error, none left on bases.

Detroit—Cobb drove straight right at Adams who threw him out at first. Clarke hardly needed to stir out of his tracks to field Crawford's high fly. Leach made a pretty stop of Delehanty's liner. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left on bases.

Pittsburgh 7; Detroit 0.

SEVENTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Davy Jones captured Wilson's fly. It is announced that Byrne is not badly hurt but has a sprained ankle. Gibson doubled to center, the ball falling between Davy Jones and Crawford, both of whom waited for the other to get it. O'Leary batted Adams's drive to Bush, with his gloved hand and Owine threw his man out at first. Gibson went to third. Delehanty fumbled but threw out Hyatt. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left on base.

Detroit—O'Leary's high foul was easy for Gibson. Wagner made a fine stop and threw out Tom Jones. Schmidt doubled to left field. Clarke made a fine running catch of Mullin's line drive. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left on base.

Pittsburgh 7; Detroit 0.

EIGHTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Leach bunted to Mullin, who threw him out at first. The crowd was beginning to leave the field. For the fourth time Clarke drew a base on balls and stole second. Wagner flied out to Crawford but Crawford dropped Miller's fly after a long run and it went for two bases. Clarke scoring. Abstein flied to Davy Jones. One run, one hit, no errors, one left on bases.

Detroit—Davy Jones flied to Miller.

Pittsburgh 9; Detroit 0.

NINTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Mullin now pitching for Detroit. Davy Jones ran back and caught Adams's fly. Hyatt walked. Leach singled to left, over Bush, Hyatt going to second. Clarke sacrificed. Mullin to Tom Jones, on a very close decision. Wagner was purposely passed. Miller singled past Tom Jones, Hyatt and Leach scoring. Wagner went to third on the throw in. Miller stole second. Abstein struck out. Two Bush fouled out to Wagner, after a long run. Clarke came in back of Wagner and took Cobb's fly. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left on bases.

Pittsburgh 8; Detroit 0.

NINTH INNING.

Pittsburgh—Wilson flied to O'Leary. Gibson's drive bounced off Bush's shin into center field. Adams sacrificed to Tom Jones, who tagged him on the line. Schmidt got Hyatt's bunt. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left on base.

Detroit—Wagner made a fine stop and threw Crawford out. Delehanty doubled to the left field crowd. O'Leary fouled to Leach. Clarke pulled down Tom Jones's fly. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left on bases.

Pittsburgh 8; Detroit 0.

NUMBER THIRTEEN PROVED BE JOHAN

Dairyman Blames It for Withdrawal of His License To Operate Dairy.

CITY INSPECTOR ACTED

JAMES L. HORNING, THE MILK DEALER, GOT LICENSE NUMBER THIRTEEN TAKEN AWAY ON OCTOBER 13TH.

The number 13 proved to be unlucky for James L. Horning, a farmer residing four miles northeast of the city, who keeps a dairy and sells milk to residents of Richmond. It was on the thirteenth day of the month that Horning's license, which was number 13, was taken away from him in view of the fact that he failed to comply with the repeated demands of Dairy Inspector M. A. Stewart to improve the unsanitary conditions that exist around his premises.

Failed to Heed Warning.

Inspector Stewart asserts that he has, on several occasions, warned Horning to improve his place and better the conditions there or his license would be revoked. However, no attempt has been made by the farmer, it is said, to comply with the law in this respect and no attention has been paid to the matter. Written notice has been served on Horning to the effect that he must discontinue the practice of selling milk in this city. Inspector Stewart declares that the case of Horning is the only one where such strenuous measures have had to be adopted. Several slight changes have been ordered by Mr. Stewart in the numerous

Mother Sells Child For $148 In Order Take European Trip

New York, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Johanna Barwick of 88 Prince street, Brooklyn was forced today to decide between her love for her 3-year-old daughter, Johanna and a trip to Europe with her parents. She chose the latter and sold the child for a consideration of $148.

The purchaser of the full rights to the child was John Barwick, the husband and father. He and his wife, the latter carrying the child, appeared in the Adams street court for the settlement of a family dispute.

It appeared that Mrs. Barwick's father and mother came to this country on dairies in Wayne county, but they have been readily complied with and no trouble has arisen from this source except in the one instance. With the revoking of Horning's license, all of the dairies are now in good condition, it is said.

WALTER S. MILLER GRANTED DIVORCE

Defendant in the Action Was Represented by Congressman Barnard.

UNIQUE COMPLAINT MADE

IN DIVORCE PETITION IT WAS ALLEGED BRIDE WOULD WEEP OVER OBITUARY NOTICE OF HER MUNCIE LOVER.

Walter S. Miller of Hagerstown, who in his action for divorce from Mrs. Bertha L. Miller filed a complaint with most peculiar and somewhat sensational charges, successfully prosecuted his action this morning in the circuit court. Besides the evidence introduced, the case was interesting from the fact that both parties presented an array of legal talent which is unusual in a divorce action. Congressman W. O. Barnard of New Castle represented the defendant, while T. J. Study and Judge Forkner of New Castle represented the plaintiff.

There were a number of witnesses introduced by both sides. The plaintiff and his father, who is a prominent farmer near Hagerstown, were the principal ones. Both father and son testified to the defendant's restlessness, uneasiness, peevishness and other peculiar characteristics, following the honeymoon, taken on the farm of the plaintiff's father, and which finally resulted in the defendant deserting her husband.

She Abandoned Him.

The defendant induced her husband to move to New Lisbon, where she was born and raised, and where her parents lived. There they lived together for two years, when she finally packed up her belongings and went to her father's home. She refused to live with her husband longer and was supported by her parents in this action.

All evidence of cruel and inhuman treatment was not introduced as Judge Fox was satisfied with the abandonment charge. However, it was alleged in the complaint that at the time the defendant married the plaintiff, she was in love with Frank H. Stradling of Muncie. After the marriage the defendant continued to correspond with Stradling, according to charges in the complaint. It is also set forth in the complaint that at the time of Stradling's death, the defendant pasted a newspaper account of his death over the mantle and would cause the plaintiff much distress by reading the notice whenever his friends called up on them. After reading the clipping the defendant avowed that she would have fits of weeping.

UP TO THE BREWERY

The directors of the Minck Brewing company have not announced what they will do in regard to the proposition submitted to them by the Central Labor Council of this city for unionizing the brewery. Their decision will probably be announced to the Council next Tuesday or Wednesday night, it is said. Several weeks ago the proposition to enter the union was turned down by the directors, there being a squabble at the time over the pay for extra hours the employees worked. The matter was then revised and all of the objectionable features left out of the proposition of the Labor Council. In event they do not now enter the organization the company will be placed on the unfair list of the union, it is declared.

COLONIALS LEADERS

The Diamond Edges proved unequal to the occasion of pulling the Colonials out of first place last evening in the series in the City Bowling league. The team scores were as follows: Colonials—775, 817, and 800. Diamond Edges—829, 786 and 754.

BUFFKIN NOW SUE

Following the return of John A. Buffkin, who has been absent from the city for several years, a suit was filed in the circuit court today by William J. Hatt on account, for $225. The account dates back to March 23, 1908. Buffkin was formerly a well known butcher.

GREAT HOST WILL SEE BIG BATTLE

Early Today Crowds Assembled to Witness Johnson-Ketchel Mill.

GIANT NEGRO FAVORITE

FAITHFUL TRAINING OF THE PRINCIPALS AND THEIR FINE APPEARANCE PROVED TO BE A BIG ATTRACTION.

(American News Service)

Colma, Cal., Oct. 16.—(Ringside)—Crowds began to gather early this morning at Jim Coffroth's immense fight arena, to witness the twenty round battle between Jack Johnson and Stanley Ketchel for the heavy-weight championship of the world.

Both principals are trained to the minute, with the giant negro ruling a favorite over his smaller, but stocky opponent at odds of 10 to 4.

The early arrival of the crowds made it certain that when Johnson and Ketchel step into the ring an immense audience will be massed around the squared circle. The faithful training of the men and their fine appearance did much to bring this about, as the spectators feel certain the contest will live to be one of the most thrilling in pugilistic history.

LAND FOUR HOBOES

Police Gather in the Weary Ones Who Proved to Be Nuisances.

ONE QUITE FASTIDIOUS

An unsuccessful effort was made yesterday afternoon on the part of four huns to break into the county jail where they might be fed at the expense of the tax payers for the next several weeks. Three of the quartet were pinched for drunk while the fourth was arrested for begging. The four men all belong to the same gang although they were arrested at different times and in different parts of the city. One of the hoboos who gave his name as Jerry Alton was a very fastidious gentleman. When arrested at the corner of Eighth and 1st streets last evening by Patrolman Vogelsson and the wagon was called he requested that the steps of the patrol be wiped off before he would grace the vehicle with his presence. Charles B. Thompson and Clayton Snooks were also slated for drunk. Al Berringer was arrested for begging and making himself generally objectionable in the south end last evening by insulting people. In the city court this afternoon they were shown the quickest way out of town and told to "vamoose." The men were greatly peeved because they were not permitted to go to jail, and their disappointment on being released was apparent. Berringer even threatened to shoot himself if he was not admitted to jail.

FUGITIVE IS FOUND

Mrs. Mary Wakeman of Anderson, who is now an inmate of the Eastern Indiana hospital and who escaped yesterday, was found last evening at the Pennsylvania depot by officers Hebble and Edwards, waiting for a train, but just which one she did not know, nor do the police. She gave the police no trouble in returning her to the institution. Isaac Marker, the Muncie patient who escaped Thursday, has not been heard from but it is presumed that he is on his way to his home.
