With Comparative Ease Richmond High School Took The Visitors.

WAS SPEED AGAINST BEEF

CAPTAIN ALLISON, HAAS, MAGAW AND P. HIATT MADE BRILLIANT GAINS AND PLAYED GOOD DEFENSIVE GAME.

Richmond, 15; Rushville, 6.
The Richmond high school football team won its second game of the season yesterday afternoon from the Rushville high school team. The success of the locals was largely due to Captain Allison, Haas, Magaw and P. Hiatt, who made gains when ever called upon and also played a good defensive game. The locals were out-weighted by Rushville, which team tried to win by beef.

The first score was made by Captain Allison, who caught a punt and ran 60 yards through the entire Rushville team for a touchdown. P. Hiatt scored the second after a succession of line plunges, on a similar play. Richmond's final score was made by Ferling on a play through right tackle. Heeb, for the visitors scored Rushville's only touchdown by capturing a Rushville punt on a first bound which Hiatt failed to gather in.

The local lads are receiving congratulations of the school body, who are willing to back them against any high school team in the state. The lineup of the teams were as follows:

Richmond.	Wallace Graves	Center.
Miller	Right Guard.	Hume
Ferling	Right Tackle.	Moffit
Magaw, Hume	Right End.	Norris
Cummins, Nicodemus	Downey	Left Guard.
Hale	Left Tackle.	Wilcoxon
"Toe" Hiatt	Left End.	Heeb
Haas	Full Back.	O'Neal
"P." Hiatt	Right Half.	Huner
White	Left Half.	McRoberts
Allison	Quarter Back.	Gunning

Touchdowns—Richmond, P. Hiatt, Ferling and Allison. Rushville, Heeb. Goal kick—Rushville, Moffit. Time out—Richmond 1; Rushville, 2. Referee—Hill. Umpire, Moffit. Linemen—Marlatt and Cox. Halves—25 and 20 minutes.

LIQUOR QUESTION CAUSES MUCH HEATED DISPUTES

avored and against the measures which were opposed by the league.
With Governor Marshall trying to prevent the democratic party from declaring in favor of the repeal of the county option law and the substitution of the ward and township unit, and with Tom Taggart and the brewery crowd trying to get the party to make such a declaration, it looks like the anti-saloon league will have to wait until after the democratic state convention next year to find out whether it can get any support from that party during the next session of the legislature.

Have Joined Governor.
A good many leading democrats throughout the country have joined Governor Marshall in his opposition to the plan for holding a conference of party leaders during the next few months to arrange for the campaign next year. Governor Marshall's position is that the party itself should decide on its own policy, and that the so-called leaders of the party have no right to get together and undertake to dictate to the rank and file what it shall do or not do. He is opposed to the idea of boss rule or machine control of the party, and this is why he is fighting the Taggart machine in Indiana.

There seems to be an impression among a good many of the democratic

Big Negro Fighter, Johnson, Retains Heavyweight Hanors

JOHNSON PROVED TITLE TO CROWN

Big Negro Sends Ketchel to Slumberland in Twelfth Round.

NEVER EXERTED HIMSELF

WHEN THE KNOCKOUT CAME, THE BLACK WAS NERVOUS FOR HE THOUGHT HIS OPPONENT WAS BADLY INJURED.

(By W. W. Naughton.)
San Francisco, Oct. 16.—The Ketchel-Johnson fight ended as everyone of judgment in these matters supposed it would end. Ketchel, who is a wonder when equally matched, had about as much chance with the giant negro as a rabbit would have with a greyhound. Johnson toyed with his man for eleven rounds and then put Ketchel to sleep with a volley of punches, so fierce that the skin of Johnson's gloves was torn, through contact with the middle-weight champion's teeth.
When Ketchel fell he went down heavily and spread eagle on the floor on his back, his arms thrown out to the fullest extent. He was as lifeless as a log and a look of concern spread over Johnson's face. He eyed Ketchel closely while the count was in progress and when it was all over and they gathered up the battered Michigander and bore him to his corner, Johnson tiptoed after and heaved a big sigh of relief when he saw that his victim was slowly coming back from slumberland.

The Closing Round.

The closing round was a sensational one and at the same time a peculiar one. Here is the way it went:

Johnson for several rounds stood statue like in the beginning and then suddenly snapped at Ketchel's face with lefts that shot in as straight as a die. In this particular round Ketchel went at Johnson on the oment the gong rang. Johnson met him with one of his left prods and some one in Ketchel's corner yelled "Now, then, Stanley." Ketchel started a giant swing with the right and his glove curved around under Johnson's neck. Johnson fell clumsily to the floor close to where the writer sat and I noticed a grin on his face as he went down. He did not remain down an instant, but jumped up quickly and turned to meet Ketchel's rush. Ketchel fairly impaled himself on Johnson's fast flying fists and fell like a log.

It was a lamentably one-sided fight. Ketchel swore he would force the champion to lead. He did so on occasions, for that matter, but the pity of it was that when Johnson led he reached something. For about six rounds Johnson relied mainly on a straight left, and bleeding lips and bloodsmeared face soon bore testimony to the accuracy of his aim. Ketchel pinned his fate on a left underswing for the short ribs. He got there, too, a few times, but the scoring was light compared to the volume of misses.

REDS TO PLAY HERE

Griffith's Fast National League Bunch Will Play Local Team.

OFFER REGULAR LINEUP

Interest in the game between the local baseball team and the Cincinnati Reds, which is to be played at the Athletic park in this city on Wednesday, October 20, is becoming more pronounced as the time for the contest approaches. Local baseball fans who have read every available word of dope ever written on the subject of baseball, and who have been kept in a perfect fever heat of excitement during the world's championship series between the Pirates and Tigers, are looking forward to the game with a great deal of enthusiasm.

The fact that a bunch of real league players will grace Richmond with their presence and actually don suits and play a game with the modest Richmond team, who will probably experience an acute attack of stage fright at the presence of the big leaguers,

TAFT'S ECONOMY IS DISPLEASING

Naval Officers Do Not Take Kindly to the President's Program.

TO STOP BUILDING NAVY?

WHEN CONGRESS MEETS IN DECEMBER IT IS PROBABLE THAT NO BATTLESHIPS WILL BE PROVIDED FOR.

(American News Service)
Washington, Oct. 16.—Naval officers, especially those who advocate a large navy, do not take kindly to the policy of economy that President Taft has outlined. In their opinion, if congress approves of the suggestions of the president to keep down the appropriations, the work of building up the navy will be started.

That there is room for economy in the navy cannot be questioned. The leaders in the house, it is said, will gladly follow the president's recommendations.

It will be recalled that the naval officers who are urging congress to build a navy equal to Great Britain's did their utmost last session to secure authority for the construction of four Dreadnoughts, but after a stiff fight, in which President Roosevelt took a hand, congress split the difference and ordered two.

Will be Stingy.
This time, when congress meets, the probabilities are that no battleships will be authorized, although the navy department, it is understood, will recommend the construction of two.

There are now in the navy twenty-nine battleships of the first class and four battleships under construction, contracts for two having been recently awarded. When they are completed Uncle Sam will have a battleship fleet thirty-three strong. They are pronounced by naval experts to be of the highest order, equal to the Dreadnoughts possessed by Great Britain or any other world power.

By not authorizing any battleships next winter and by consolidating the work of the navy yards, officials of the navy department say congress can effect a saving of more than $10,000,000 in this branch of the government.

Efficiency the Same.

If this principle of economy is put into effect, it will in no sense affect the efficiency of the navy. The forthcoming report of the secretary of the navy will show that at present there are nine battleships in reserve and out of commission. This would not be the case if there was work to do.

There will probably be a very pretty fight over the question of more battleships when the naval bill is reported to the house next winter, and such advocates of a great navy as Representative Hobson, of Alabama, doubtless will be heard preaching the "yellow peril."

But the "yellow peril" issue so successfully used last session, will not, it is believed, do the trick twice, for the information at the state department is that Japan and the United States are on better terms than ever, and understand each other thoroughly.

is a delight to the fans and a joy that is unconfined. The lineup for both teams will be as follows:
Richmond—Durham, cf.; Goehner, rf.; Klutter, lf.; Burns, 1b.; Warfel, 2b.; Bauman, ss.; Carlin, 3b.; Harry Wallace, p.; Wise and Clark, c.
Cincinnati Reds—Roth, c.; Ewing, p.; Fromme, p.; Rowan, p.; Faskert, lf.; Bescher, cf.; Mitchell, rf.; Hobbitt, 1b.; Egan, 2b.; Downey, ss.; Loebert, 3b.

JIM WAS PARALYZED

James Allen was found by Patrolman Westenberg yesterday afternoon on North Sixth street unable to navigate. "Jim" was so paralyzed from the effects of too much booze that it was with considerable difficulty he was taken to headquarters and placed behind the bars. Allen will be arraigned in the city court Monday afternoon.
