On to Richmond

Reader, are you aware that Richmond is fast becoming a Mecca for the homeseeker. Why? There are various reasons, chief of which are that in no city can be found the advantages and conveniences common to her homes, and another reason is that seekers of employment find they can get work to do here. Will such conditions depreciate property values?

Do you wish to buy or Rent? I have many bargains for sale; few properties idle to rent. Consider the following:

2 acres close to city on fine pike, well improved, price $3,500.

3 acres ½ mile of city, good buildings, handy to shops, R. R. yards, etc. Price $1,800.

5 acres on trolley line, price $3,000.

10 acres ½ mile out, O. K., price $2,000.

Good truckers, poultry premises, dairy sites, and anything profitable near Richmond. Apply in person to
