

AT THE THEATRES

The Murray Theater.

Bush and Peyser, the comedy acrobatic artists, whose wonderful work on the horizontal bar creates a furor wherever presented, are regarded as one of the best teams, in their line, in vaudeville.

Miss Kate Watson and Gus Cohan in the pastoral comedy, "The Hoosier Girl," are very clever at their parts. Miss Watson as Roxanna Peabody, a big, clumsy, red faced Indiana country girl is certainly a star.

Reyer and French, whose act is fifty seconds ahead of the minute, are all there when it comes to funny stories and dancing.

Geo. Daum with his electrical devices for playing on musical instruments is a stranger to the word "back-number."

The motion pictures and illustrated song are better than usual this week.

The Transgressor.

The MacLeans, although two days in our midst, have jumped right into popular favor. Their opening bill was a most pleasing production. Sweet Clover, that pastoral drama dear to the hearts of all theatre goers, followed in a magnificent manner. On Tuesday night and tonight one of the greatest gems of their repertoires, that intensely interesting New York society play, "The Transgressor," will be presented with the entire company in the cast. The gowns that will be worn by the ladies of the company are all Paris creations and were made in September especially for this production. Together with this there will be very artistic stage settings and scenic effects so as to make this equal to any New York production. No expense will be spared and no efforts thwarted by this great company to make this play the talk of Richmond.

"Paid in Full."

"Paid in Full" will be at the Gennett Thursday, Nov. 4. This announcement will excite the greatest interest of the theatrical season, for the play is the most popular ever produced in America and everybody will wish to see it. You may have seen it before. If so, you will surely do so again. If you have not you owe it to yourself not to overlook this opportunity. "Whoever sees 'Paid in Full'" wrote Louis V. DeFoe, dramatic critic of the New York World, "cannot escape its grip. It holds closest attention from first to last. It is by all odds the best thing on Broadway."

Added attractiveness is lent to the approaching engagement by the fact that the Wagenhals & Kemper Company is sending here the identical cast that recently left the Astor Theatre in New York where "Paid in Full" celebrated its Broadway triennial.

IS QUITE A PROBLEM

Wholesale Theft of Bicycles Causing the Police a Lot of Trouble.

MANY THEFTS REPORTED

The wholesale theft of bicycles is a problem with which the local police have been wrestling for the past several days. Within the last ten days no less than a dozen bicycles have been reported lost or stolen at headquarters until now almost every time the telephone bell rings, Chief of Police Staubach makes a wry face and mutters "Another bike gone."

Many of the supposedly "thefts" however are nothing more than "strayed" bicycles and are later found by their owners several blocks from the place where they were left standing, having been ridden off and then abandoned by that pest to humanity—the small boy. Five bicycles were gathered off of the streets about midnight Monday and taken to police headquarters where the officers awaited the anxious inquiry of the careless owners. Nevertheless many of the bicycles about the city have been stolen and have never been recovered. The police are of the opinion that a gang of bicycle thieves is operating in the city and they are endeavoring to break up the practice.

In order to throw the police off of the scent, bicycles have been stolen and the wheels of one attached to the frame of another making it very difficult to identify the lost article. It is probable that several arrests will be made soon in the matter.

CUTICURA PROVEN PURE SWEET AND HARMLESS

A New York friend of Cuticura writes the following interesting letter:—"My three year old son and heir, after being put to bed on a trip across the Atlantic, awoke in the morning, room and located a box of Cuticura Ointment and a box of Cuticura Soap."

"When a search was made for the box, it was found empty and the kid admitted that he had eaten the contents of the entire box spread on the crackers. It cured him of a bad cold and I don't know what else."

No more conclusive evidence than the above could be offered that every ingredient of Cuticura Ointment is absolutely pure, sweet and harmless. If it may be safely eaten by a young child, none but the most beneficial results can be expected to attend its application to even the tenderest skin or youngest infant. This feeling is shared by mothers and nurses to such an extent that Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have for many years been unhesitatingly used throughout the civilized world for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands of infants and children from the hour of birth. And greater still, if possible, is the confidence reposed in Cuticura Remedies for the treatment of torturing and disgusting humors of the skin and scalp. The suffering which they have thus alleviated among the young and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless agents in the speedy, permanent, safe and economical treatment of infantile and birth humors, eczemas, rashes, irritations, inflammations and chafings, and other itching, scaly and pimply humors when all other remedies suitable for children fail.

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. London: J. C. Ash & Co., Ltd., 1, Abchurch Lane; New York: J. C. Ash & Co., Ltd., 1, Abchurch Lane; San Francisco: J. C. Ash & Co., Ltd., 1, Abchurch Lane; etc. etc. J. C. Ash & Co., Ltd., 1, Abchurch Lane, London, E.C. 4, England.

TRIBUTE PAID TO 3 WRECK VICTIMS

Postal Clerks Hold Meeting And Express Their Great Sorrow.

BARNARD WAS A SPEAKER

SIXTH DISTRICT CONGRESSMAN SPEAKS OF THE MEN WHO LOST THEIR LIVES IN COLLINSVILLE CATASTROPHE.

Cincinnati, Oct. 27.—There were some 200 postal clerks and invited guests in the Business Men's club last night at the dinner given by the Fifth Division Railway Mail association in honor of the National president, J. T. Canfield, of Syracuse, N. Y. Among the guests were congressmen and other well known public men and prominent business men. The dining hall was prettily decorated with the national colors. The menu was excellent.

W. L. Poe, assistant superintendent of the local division of the railway mail service, acted as toastmaster. The committee of arrangements consisted of E. W. Hudson, H. B. Pruitt, John O'Connor, Will Lamb, W. L. Poe, Charles E. Mains and J. S. Dean.

Chairs Were Draped.

Three chairs were draped in mourning in memory of Charles A. Johnson, Burt W. Hatfield and Oscar O. Raines, the clerks who were killed a few days ago in the wreck at Collinsville, Ohio. Chief Clerk J. E. Diffenderfer delivered the invocation. During the evening the Evanston orchestra entertained with selections. Master Willard Tallentire rendered several violin solos and Mr. Clarence H. Gress sang several numbers.

Toastmaster Poe referred touchingly to the terrible calamity that took away three of the members of their fraternity. He then called on Chief Clerk Arthur L. Behrmer to make a few eulogistic remarks on Burt H. Hatfield, the elder of the three. The speaker was a close friend of the deceased. He reverted to the tragic accident which killed Clerk Deardorff in 1890, when Hatfield was working alongside him.

Auditor William A. Lamb was called upon to make a few remarks in memory of Charles A. Johnson, who was appointed to the service in 1895. He was off his regular run at the time of his death, having made the change to oblige a fellow clerk. Chief Clerk S. A. Bushnell spoke in a feeling manner of Oscar O. Raines, the junior clerk of the three who entered the service only five years ago. He left an invalid widow and four children to mourn his loss. Postal Clerk Bryant read an appropriate poem in memory of the deceased.

Judge Barnard Speaks.

Judge William O. Barnard, member of congress from the Sixth Indiana district was introduced. He started out by paying a tribute to the three CLERKS WHO WERE KILLED A FEW DAYS AGO.

He then went on to say that he thinks that congress does not make proper discrimination between the deserving and what is not deserving. He thinks that the demands made by the clerks are not unjust. He paid a high compliment to the intellectuality of the clerks. He thinks they have been modest in their requests from the government.

Greatest Cavalry Fight

The most tremendous cavalry fight, perhaps, that the world has ever seen took place at Doryleum, Syria, during the first of the crusades between the mailed chivalry of Christian Europe and the Saracens. The cavalry of the crusaders numbered 110,000, while that of the Saracens reached the prodigious figure of 300,000. Completely surprised by the enemy, the Christians recovered themselves and won the day. It is said that 50,000 of the Turkish horse were left dead upon the field.—New York American.

Emily E. Rhoades, formerly of this city, but now superintendent of the woman's prison at Indianapolis has received a high compliment from Mrs. Isabel C. Barrows of New York city, who is known the country over for her sociological work. Mrs. Barrows was in Indianapolis recently and inspected the women's prison in order to secure data for a paper which she will read at the International Prison Congress in Washington next year. Mrs. Barrows said that the women's prison was the best managed that she had ever visited.
