

DEAL IN PLAYERS IS NOW REPORTED

New York Giants Are Making
A Great Effort to Secure
John Kling.

WILL TRADE MIKE DONLIN

McGraw Wants to Exchange
The Slugger to Philadelphia for Magee—La Joie to the Highlanders?

New York, Oct. 29.—It leaked out during the Eastern league meeting that a gigantic deal was under way whereby the New York Giants will acquire the services of Johnny Kling, Sherwood Magee and Konetchy for next season.

The story goes that Mike Donlin is to be traded for Sherwood Magee. This deal is to all intents and purposes already closed. Herzog and Merkle are to be traded to St. Louis for Konetchy, one of the greatest first basemen in the National league. Wiltse and a big bundle of coin will go for Johnny Kling.

The Kling end of the deal looks the shakiest of the trio of swaps. Kling is anxious to get back into the game and would be willing to come to New York. Charlie Murphy is anxious to dispose of the player, whom he now knows will never again appear in a Cub uniform, at the best terms he can procure.

But Johnny Kling will have to be reinstated by the National commission before he can ever play again. He is not only a contract jumper, but an outlaw. He played with a semi-professional team in Chicago against a semi-pro organization of the Windy city, despite warning by the National commission. It is a grave breach of discipline, but the matter may be fixed up in time to permit his active service next season.

From the fact that Manager McGraw is able to drive such apparently lucrative bargains it looks like a policy of retrenchment in this city on the part of the National league. The policy was perhaps induced by the poor showing of the Giants financially during the season just closed.

Charles W. Murphy, owner of the Cubs would not have consented to any deal of this sort unless he had felt certain that the pool sharp was sincere in his determination not to play ball again for the Cubs. Murphy hates to strengthen the Giants, but Frank Chance is sweet on Wiltse and has sanctioned the trade. Kling will not block this deal, as he blocked the one tentatively arranged with Cincinnati, whereby the Chicagoans were to get Bob Spade and Mike Mitchell.

It is said that the cash bonus tossed in with Wiltse for the release of Kling will be $7,500. As Wiltse's release probably could be sold for the same sum, Kling will be a $15,000 beauty.

In the other two deals there will be no cash consideration. The St. Louis club figures that two promising youngsters like Charlie Herzog and Fred Merkle are worth more than one recognized star such as Ed Konetchy. McGraw is well satisfied with Bresnahan's views on the subject and gains for high grade substitutes a man who can jump in and play regularly.

In the same breath it may be whispered that the American league will not be caught napping. At least not the Yankees. It comes straight that LaJoie will don a Yankee uniform the coming season and that Catchers Crier of the Browns and Nig Clarke of Cleveland will also be on the hill. Just what Highlanders will figure in this deal is problematical. Elberfeld and Laporte are two that will be put on the counter in all probability and some of the surplus pitching and outfield talent will be thrown in to make the bargain.

BRASS IS LOCATED

The brass stolen from the Wayne Works, Tuesday evening has been located, is the belief of the police. Although they will not give out any information, relative to the thieves and the location of the brass, it is apparent that they have the necessary information. The robbers secured about 600 pounds of brass, in "pigs" which were branded and numbered, making it easy to identify. It was removed in a steel tired spring wagon. Earl Breese is believed by the police to be implicated in the theft.

(American News Service)
Athens, Oct. 29.—A revolt has broken out in the Greek navy and three hundred men, led by Lieut. Typaldo today seized the arsenal on Salamis island ten miles east of here. Typaldo had threatened to blow up the entire navy if he was not appointed navy minister with power to reorganize the same. Typaldo was formerly in charge of the government torpedo station. His demands were refused and he organized a mutiny which captured the arsenal without resistance. Great excitement prevails here as it is feared the soldiers may also join the revolutionary movement. The movement is believed to be a part of the plan to compel King George to abdicate the throne. The Duke of Abruzzi has been suggested as his successor.

FARMERS ARE STUNG

A number of farmers, living in this county, who were lured to sell produce to the J. R. Adams company, produce merchants of Indianapolis, were stung badly. J. R. Adams is now badly wanted by the postal authorities for using the mails to defraud. Adams opened up an office in Indianapolis and by high sounding letters and offers of prices better than the market quotations did a thriving business with Indiana farmers. He stayed in business about three weeks and then skipped with about $2,500 of ill gotten gains. He has operated in a number of other large cities and the post office department is making every effort to effect his arrest.

CEREMONIES TO BE QUITE IMPRESSIVE

Program for the St. Mary's Corner Stone Laying Is Now Prepared.

SOCIETIES WILL PARADE

REV. FATHER CHARTRAND, SEC-RETARY TO THE BISHOP, WILL BE THE SPEAKER AND MASTER OF THE CEREMONIES.

The program for the exercises Sunday afternoon for the corner stone laying of the new church of St. Mary's congregation, North Eighth and A streets, which when finished will be one of the most beautiful and finest in the city, was announced today by Rev. Father Mattingly, pastor of the church.

The service will be in charge of Rev. Father Joseph Chartrand, secretary to Bishop Chatard, and pastor of one of the largest Catholic churches of Indianapolis. He will be assisted by the local and visiting clergy, none of whom will, however, make addresses. Following the blessing of the corner stone by Father Chartrand, he will then deliver the principal address of the afternoon. The program also includes musical selections by the Richmond City band and the congregation. The regular ritualistic service will be carried out in other respects.

Will Have a Parade.

Prior to the ceremony at the church a procession will be formed in the church yard, Seventh and North A streets, and will be in charge of Marshall John O'Connor. In the parade will be the Richmond City Band, the school children of St. Mary's school, members of St. Joseph's Benevolent Society, Y. M. C. A. St. Alois society and Knights of Columbus. The procession will march up Seventh street to Main and thence east to Eighth and back to the church. The parade will move promptly at 1:45 o'clock, in order that the services at the church may commence at 2 o'clock.

The corner stone has already been prepared and has been inspected by a large number of the congregation. In this will be placed a copper box containing the parish monthly for October, the Saturday papers, the names of the church officials, including Pope Pius X, Cardinal Gibbons, the bishops having jurisdiction over the local church, and the names of government officials, including President Taft, Governor Thomas R. Marshall and Richard Schillinger, mayor; names of the workmen engaged in the construction of the church, and other miscellaneous articles.

The visiting clergy who will be here are: Rev. William Hickay of Dayton, Rev. D. Mulcahey of Anderson; Rev. Thomas A. Hoffman of Indianapolis; Rev. J. F. Stanton of Bramble, Ind.; Rev. John Ryves of Terre Haute; Rev. James A. Coulter, of Cambridge City; Rev. Thomas Thienes of Liberty and Rev. D. Halpin of Eaton. Besides these, it is probable that a number of others will also be here. Rev. Stanton is here visiting relatives.

She Could Cook.
He had wedded a popular actress, much to the dismay of his friends, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. He was fond of the practical things of life. His friends were sure the professional lady would prove anything but a helpmeet to him. It was their first breakfast in the pretty suite in the little flat. The coffee was delicious, the steak of the exact rareness he preferred, and he had never eaten such rolls. He held one of the latter aloft. "Why, where did you buy them, my love?" he asked. She flung him a bewitching smile. "I created those rolls," she dramatically answered. "You?" he cried. "Yes," she replied. "I was cooking in a downtown restaurant when I went on the stage."

Women Are in Race For Job of Keeping Streets of City Clean

Chicago, Oct. 29.—A woman possibly may succeed the late Michael J. Doherty as superintendent of the municipal street cleaning department. The civil service commissioners, through President Elton Lower, in announcing an examination for the position, Nov. 15, yesterday declared that women would be eligible for competition.

If a female contestant should win she would hold a position unique in the great municipalities of the world and would take her place alongside Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools, as an instance of what women may attain to in Chicago.

Mr. Lower said there will be no distinctions drawn between men and women who wish to strive for the place.

"But," he said, "it is in the discretion of the commission whether a woman will be certified if she reaches the head of the list."

Search for possible woman candidates was made and two were found. The first is Mrs. A. E. Paul, ward superintendent of the Twenty-second ward, and the other is Miss Anna Murphy, who is at the head of the list of eligibles for ward superintendencies. She formerly worked as assistant to James Ryan, whom Mrs. Paul succeeded as ward superintendent of the Twenty-second ward. She has for a long time done work for the bureau of streets and has had considerable experience.

Mrs. Paul has been ward superintendent in half of the thirty-five city wards in her fourteen years' service with the municipality. She is a woman of exceptional ability and has been able to keep the wards in which she has worked cleaner than most of those supervised by men.
