EARLHAM TO PLAY
LUTHERAN OUTFIT

Wittenberg, the Quaker Opponent, Is One of Fastest Ohio Teams.

CONTEST ON REID FIELD

QUAKERS HAVE BEEN PRACTICING THE PLAYS OF THEIR RIVALS AND FIND THEY ARE EXCEPTIONALLY GOOD ONES.

The game between Wittenberg and Earlham on Reid Field Saturday, is to be a battle to the finish and the result of the game will show comparatively how strong the Quakers will be against DePauw. November 20. Wittenberg has held strong teams to low scores, while Earlham has been defeated by Butler and DePauw defeated Butler.

This evening the Quaker squad was run through the last scrimmage practice before the Wittenberg game and the varsity showed but ordinary strength. The second team, which has been using the Lutheran formations, was able, last evening, to penetrate the Quaker line several times, and it seemed impossible for the varsity to hold them. Wittenberg has some strong formations and although the second team does not fully understand them, it can put up a strong game against the first team. Last evening the scrubs made big gains by bucking the varsity line.

Wittenberg is Fast. Wittenberg, it is understood, is not laying down in practice this week. That college is determined that it shall be victorious in Saturday's game and all the trick plays of the Lutherans will be put into practice. DeTray is always ready to spring his special plays and formations and if the Quakers are not careful his squad will take them off their feet in the first few minutes of play. This information is certainly valuable to the Quakers and Coach Thistle's visit is working with his men to avoid this fast playing at first, and to put up some strong defense.

It is probable that all members of the squad will play in the game Saturday. Jones, who was considered as quarter back, has a sore foot and he cannot run. Connolly has been showing up strong at quarter in scrimmage this week, and he will probably play a part of the game. Hughbanks, who has suffered a broken toe, was in practice last evening, and showed his old form. The other members of the squad were also in the scrimmage last evening.

SHOT PUT FAVORED

Earlham Athletic Association Instructs Delegate to Vote for Event.

"E" COMMITTEE ELECTED

The Earlham College Athletic association is in favor of the shot put in intercollegiate athletics, and the association, by a small majority, voted yesterday afternoon, to instruct the delegates to the I. C. A. L., which meets at Indianapolis Saturday, to vote against the proposition to eliminate it from the Inter-Collegiate Athletic League meet, which will be held at Crawfordsville next spring.

The Athletic association of Earlham met yesterday afternoon in Perry hall, and the matter of the shot put was presented. A spirited debate followed, some members contending that since there were a number of students killed each year from this event, it should be left out of inter-collegiate athletics. Coach Thistlethwaite, however, was opposed to this proposition, since it left but few events in which a weight man could take part. This suggestion by the coach met with approval among a majority of the members and when the question was stated by the president, the association went on record as favoring the shot put. Walter P. Bland, the state delegate to the I. C. A. L. convention, which meets at Indianapolis Friday, was accordingly instructed to vote against the movement by several other Indiana colleges.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 4.—The governor has honored requisition of Indiana's governor for the return to Richmond of William Allen Wagner, charged with kidnapping his own son.

The name of William Allen Wagner does not appear in the city directory and the police have no knowledge of such a person. Prosecuting Attorney Charles Ladd declared that if requisition papers had been filed he knew nothing about it and thinks there must be some mistake. The police assert that they know nothing whatever about the case and never heard of the name before or were aware of the fact that a man by the name of William Allen Wagner ever resided in this city. Sheriff Linus Meredith also states that it is news to him and he did not know any such person was wanted in Wayne county on such a charge.
