

AT THE THEATRES

Miss Shaw, with the Percival, Shaw and Sherman act at the Murray this week.

At the Murray.
The bill is the best that Richmond people have ever had the opportunity of seeing. The Great Juggling Normans give entertainment sufficient to justify the expenditure of any person's money to the whole show. They are the best of their kind. Their wonderful ability of throwing the clubs and their machine-like accuracy in passing them from one to the other and the constant shift of position during the act, is causing quite a sensation among the amusement lovers of this city. The Percival, Shaw and Sherman act, presenting the comedy "A Family Mix-up," brings applause and laughter from all audiences. They show very plainly the result of the interference of the third party in a love affair. Brooks and Carlisle in their breezy comedy entitled "The Limit," have proven very popular in this city, as well as in every city in which they have played. When you have heard the "Four Nightingales," you will have listened to as good a quartette as ever was on the stage. Their wonderful harmony and their well selected songs places them at the top of the public favor at once.

"Paid in Full."
"Paid in Full." Eugene Walter's graphic play of present day America, will be at the Gennett theater tonight, when the Wagenhals & Kemper company will offer it with the New York cast and production direct from the Astor theater. This announcement cannot fail to stir liveliest interest. "Paid in Full" is the strongest and the most entertaining drama of the time. Its record is a theatrical wonder. It is likely that many persons in this city who attend theaters, here or on their visits to New York or elsewhere, have seen "Paid in Full." They will be the first to testify to its worth, and the most eager to see it again. This play produces so vivid an impression, grips so powerfully and withal provides so keen an entertainment, that it draws people back to see it

time and again. Therefore, the big audience which welcomes it here—and it is certain to be a big audience—will include many who have seen the piece, and who will enjoy it the more in seeing it acted by a brilliant New York cast. The company now coming here is a special feature cast. It was formed ed in recognition of the play's third year on Broadway, a distinction just achieved at the Astor Theater, from whence it comes direct. This noted cast includes Fritz Williams, Katherine Florence, Ben F. Wilson, William Riley Hatch, Florence Robinson, Pauline Darling and George Belden.

"Under Southern Skies."
The return of "Under Southern Skies" to our city is an event that will be looked forward to by large numbers of our theatre-goers. Those who saw this highly entertaining play on its previous visit will be glad of an opportunity of seeing it again, for it is a play that bears seeing over and over again, and those who have for any reason missed attending will no doubt seize the present opportunity of enjoying this great success. "Under Southern Skies" is now in its seventh year and its popularity is constantly increasing. Since last seen here it has been delighting crowded houses in other cities and it is everywhere admitted to be the best play of Southern life now before the public.

The management has made every effort to have the present tour surpass all previous efforts to please the public. An entirely new outfit of scenery has been provided, new costumes will be worn and new songs and dances will enliven the Halloween celebration. A very strong cast will be seen in the play.

"The Matinee Idol."
Those theatre-goers who are fond of musical comedy will be glad to hear of the engagement on Saturday, Nov. 13th, at the Gennett of De Wolf Hopper in his latest comedy "The Matinee Idol."

"Polly of the Circus."
"Polly of the Circus," one of the most worthily successful of recent American plays, and in which comedy and semi-tragedy are closely entwined to provide incessant excitement, and also a happy ending, and which has been pronounced far and wide as the cleanest and purest drama of the decade, will be seen for the first time in this city at the Gennett on Saturday November 6, matinee and night. The production offered to local theatre-goers is exactly identical with that seen for one entire season by hundreds of thousands of delighted playgoers at the Liberty theater in New York city, while the cast is the most competent and uniformly excellent seen in many a long day.

SUFFERING ENDED

L. H. Fihe Sells the Remedy that Cured Stomach Trouble of 14 Years.

And best of all L. H. Fihe guarantees it to cure you or money back. Read this:

"I have been a great sufferer for 14 years, everything I ate gave me heartburns. I have never been able to get anything that would give me any relief until a friend of mine insisted on my taking Mi-na. I took a 50 cent box and I believe I am entirely well." F. M. Bryant, Newman, Ga., June 5th.

Mi-na is not a nostrum; it is the prescription of a celebrated physician who is a specialist in stomach diseases.

One clever woman calls Mi-na the Sunshine Prescription because it changed her from a miserable, nervous dyspeptic into a bright, healthy, happy woman in a few weeks.

These little Mi-na tablets are surely wonder workers. They absolutely cure indigestion whether acute or chronic.

They stop belching, gas in stomach, and heaviness, in a few minutes. Distress after eating vanishes as if by magic when one or two little Mi-na tablets are swallowed.

Only 50 cents a box at leading druggists everywhere, and in Richmond by L. H. Fihe. Test sample free from Booth's Mi-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Flying Idea.
The first man we got the theory of the flying machine right was no less a person than the painter Leonardo da Vinci. He pictured it as heavier than air, provided with wings and uplifted, in spite of its weight, by the rapid revolutions of a propeller. Leonardo had an idea that the propeller might be turned by clockwork or by setting a number of laboring men to turn a handle, but in that respect he was mistaken.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Logical.
"A disease should be attacked at its source."

"Then if a man's disease is hereditary I suppose you'd doctor his father for it, eh?"—Exchange.

As the births of living creatures at first are ill shaped, so are all innovations, which are the births of time.—Bacon.

Suspicious.
"Did you ever stop to think, my dear," said Mr. Micawber, gazing at his plate of lobster salad, "that the things we love most in this life are the very things that never agree with us?"

"Will you be so kind," said Mrs. Micawber, straightening up, "as to tell me whether you are speaking of the salad or of me, sir?"—London Tit-Bits.

IT WANTS LOCATE A FACTORY HERE

Company Manufacturing Women's Night Gowns After a Location.

BONUS IS NOT REQUIRED

ALL THE COMPANY DESIRES IS TO DISPOSE OF ITS STOCK TO LOCAL PARTIES—WRITE TO SECRETARY HAAS.

Richmond has an opportunity to bring a factory here which would undoubtedly be popular with the women. It is an Indiana concern, which manufactures night gowns, exclusively. The following letter has been received by E. M. Haas, secretary of the Commercial club.

We are looking for a location for our factory which manufacture Ladies' Muslin Nightgowns. Now, the proposition we are after is not the bonus proposition, as we do not want something for nothing, but our proposition is to sell 100 shares at one hundred dollars ($100.00) each of six per cent preferred stock.

If you think the people of your city would be interested in this proposition, we will be pleased to hear from you at your earliest convenience, as we have several locations in view. Awaiting your reply, we remain, yours respectfully,

A SLANDER ON UTAH

Are the Stories Published Regarding the President's Trip There.

A STATEMENT BY SMOOT

Washington, Nov. 4.—Echoes of the trip of President Taft through Utah were heard in Washington, when Senator Smoot, who has just returned from the Presidential trip down the Mississippi river, declared that sensational publications in regard to the trip had been sent out for political effect. According to the senator, the Mormons did not try to monopolize the president and the accounts to that effect were a gross slander on the state.

Governor Spry, Senator Sutherland and myself called together 50 or more of the leading citizens of Utah to appoint a committee on arrangements for the president's visit," explained the senator.

A committee of 25 was chosen, of which 17 were non-Mormons and 8 were Mormons.

"A committee of eight, to go in a private car to meet the president at Helper, near the Colorado line, was appointed, and of these five were non-Mormons and three Mormons.

"The change in arrangements by which I introduced the president at the tabernacle instead of Mayor Bransford, was made with the full agreement of all concerned and because the Mayor stated he was not feeling well and would have to cancel part of the program. The statement that Governor Spry and myself refused to enter the Unitarian church with the president is a wicked falsehood. Both of us were present, the governor sitting on the president's right. The chief justice of the supreme court sat on the left, with Mayor Bransford and myself in line.

"In short, the sensational reports sent broadcast over the country of embarrassing situations and charging an attempt by the Mormons to monopolize the president had not the slightest foundation in fact. A glance at the president's engagements while in Utah and an analysis of the membership of the committees which had charge of him completely disproved these statements. Utah has been grossly slandered in this connection."

Turkish Marriages.
In Turkey any youth and maiden who can walk properly and can understand the necessary religious service are allowed to marry.

What Spinster Signifies.
It was a maxim among our frugal forbears that a young woman should never be married until she had spun herself a set of body, table and bed linen. From this custom all unmarried women were termed spinsters, an appellation they still retain in law proceedings.

Uncut Diamonds.
An uncut diamond looks very much like a bit of the best gum arabic.

The Bug Bible.
The "bug Bible" is so called because of its rendering of Psalm xci, 5, "Afrail of bugs by night." Our present version (A. D. 1551) reads, "Terrors by night."

Balloons.
Few balloons are serviceable for more than eighty flights.

A BEAUTIFUL BOOK

Veritable Encyclopedia of Piano Information, Handsomely Illustrated, Bound in Boards, and Well Worth a Dollar.

GIVEN COMPLIMENTARY TO ALL MUSIC-LOVERS

Send To-day for This Interesting Work Which Tells How to Tell a Good Piano; How to Preserve Its Tone and Prolong Its Life.

A complimentary copy of a book valuable to all lovers of music, and especially to prospective piano purchasers, may be obtained by writing to the publishers, Wing & Son, 371-389 West 13th St., New York.

This book contains over 150 pages, measuring 12x12 inches, and is an encyclopedia of piano information, giving the history of these instruments, as well as a minute and interesting description of piano building. It shows how to tell a good piano from a bad one; what causes a piano to get out of order; how to care for it to preserve its tone and prolong its life—altogether a most welcome book for those interested.

The book, which is sent free to anyone who desires musical information, is well illustrated, handsomely printed, and bound in boards, and cannot have cost the publishers less than seventy-five cents to manufacture. The expense of mailing is twenty-one cents, making the cost nearly one dollar, and as they send out several thousands of them each year, one can easily understand how tremendous the undertaking and the expense of business getting, and what faith one must have in the honesty of the American people to do business in this way. This expensive literature, so generously bestowed, is, however, but the first step in illustrating the lengths that manufacturers go in proving their confidence.

ARE AMERICANS HONEST?

That manufacturers will deliver by prepaid freight merchandise to the value of several hundred dollars to individuals in any part of the United States, without the deposit or prepayment of a single dollar, is a startling fact that is something of a puzzle to the conservative business man.

It is true, however, and the experiences of several mail-order houses in sending pianos on 30-day trial to anyone anywhere have proved that the American people are honest. These experiences have demonstrated that this method is pursued with practically no losses and an enormous increase in the business of those houses which endeavor to place really high-grade pianos in American homes.

UNIQUE RELIC HERE

A mail bag, received at the railway mail station, Pennsylvania depot, yesterday, which is known as the mail carriers' directory, because of the thousands of railway mail clerks' names and addresses on it, bears a history for travel that is very interesting to the postal employees. This bag has been in service for a number of years and has visited every part of the United States with the exception of the Southern states, east of the Mississippi.

Fair Sized.

"No," said the retired showman, "I won't say that we had the biggest giant that ever happened, but it is a solemn fact what I am going to tell you. This giant had a penance, or whatever you call it, for trying new styles of whiskers."

"M-hm!"
"Well, when he wanted a new style laid out he had to send for a landscape gardener."

Anty Drudge's Fountain of Youth.

Mrs. Weary—"Oh, dear! I wish I could find what d'ye call 'im's Fountain of Eternal Youth. Hard work's making me old."

Anty Drudge—"Bless you, there's a fountain of youth you can find—and that's Fels-Naptha soap. It's a great lightener of work and would not only do your washing in cool water quickly without hard-rubbing, but it would make easy all your household cleaning. I use it—and I don't feel more than sixteen."

Does dirt mean drudgery to you?

Yes—if the only way you know to get rid of dirt is by the hot water, ordinary soap and elbow grease method.

No—if you let Fels-Naptha dissolve the dirt in cool or lukewarm water—without boiling, without hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha has done away with hard work and boiling in washing clothes just as other modern inventions have done away with home spinning, tallow candles and hand sewing.

Why don't you let Fels-Naptha do the hard part of your washing?

The easy directions are printed on the back of the red and green wrapper.
