

A DOUBLE DEATH IS NOW RECALLED

Count Louis Von Vetsera Dies
In Denver, Accused of A Murder.

AUSTRIA WATCHES CASE

THE MYSTERIOUS END OF THE CROWN PRINCE RUDOLPH AND HIS MISTRESS WAS NEVER DEF-INITELY SOLVED.

Denver, Nov. 5.—Count Louis Vetsera, known in this country as Johan Salva-tor, man of mystery, in the blotting of Austria's escutcheon when Crown Prince Rudolph twenty years ago took the life of his mistress, Marie Vetsera and killed himself, died in this city last Saturday.

Count Louis von Vetsera was in exile from Austria since the time of the Melerling tragedy. He was the brother of the beautiful victim in the romance of royalty and was accused of the double murder in the circulation of many crime-smudged tales of mystery. Where and under what name he lived in Denver, is unknown, but the Austrian government, it is ascertained, had him in reach. His death became known when Austrian Consul George Von Griviele called on Mayor Spear and asked his assistance in finding the body of Count Louis.

Prince Once Popular.
Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria was one of the most popular of the European royalty. From infancy he had been a public figure. He early fell in love with an actress—the blonde Brouska—and after that affair he continued life with the fast set.

In 1886 he seemed at the boiling point of his hot blood. He quarreled with his brother Wilhelm and practically discarded his beautiful wife, the Princess Stephanie, for a seeming endless career of women.

Baroness Vetsera, tall and dark and beautiful, came into his life at this time. Her mother favored the crown prince. The baroness soon loved him. Their friendship furnished gossip for the Viennese set for two years. Tales of secret journeys shocked the royal circle.

Then in the Burgam Strasse, the black house tenanted by the skeletons of the Austrian court, the crown prince consulted with the emperor. He told of his love for the baroness and asked a divorce from his wife. The emperor threatened banishment, absolutely refused, and in despair Rudolph went back to Marie Vetsera.

Lovers Found Dead.
It must have been then that he and she decided to die. After reaching this conclusion Crown Prince Rudolph seemed to grow younger and the melancholy of his heart lessened. Two days before he died he left the German embassy ball with his mistress. They went to the Melerling priory of the crown prince. Early that morning two revolver shots were heard by the servants. The door was smashed in. On the bed lay the countess. Through her back was a tiny bullet hole. The body of the crown prince was near. He had been shot in the face.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA.

They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid
Can Reach the Inner Skin.

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and can not penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.

We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. D. Prescription at $1.00 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription, we arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special large trial bottle at 25 cents on a special offer now. This trial bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once.

Woman's Preparation For the Street.
Nearly every man knows that it takes the average woman two hours to dress for the street, and they seem hurried at that, but few men know just why such preparations take so long. For the enlightenment of the latter is the explanation in balled down form as given by an authoritative person.

Fitting on dress, forty minutes; buttoning same, ten minutes; arranging hair, twenty-five minutes; touching up face, fifteen minutes; setting hat, twenty minutes; mirror contemplation, ten minutes.—Judge.

At Local Theaters

Hugo says that "three sorts of spectators compose what we are accustomed to call the play-going public. Firstly, women; secondly, thinkers, and thirdly, the general crowd. He then says that the third class requires "dramatic work in action," passion attracts women and "the thoughtful seek the portrayal of human nature."

This kind of an audience was present at the Gennett last evening and this play satisfied all. How ever poorly written the first two acts may be, "Paid in Full" will satisfy the average American audience, but it can never be the American drama. "The Great Divide," and others have a better claim to this title. But who knows but that the American dramatist may yet arrive? Who knows but that the long awaited for, but seldom expected dramatist may still come and give us a cosmopolitan drama—for the American drama will be such—and that his name may yet be linked with Shakespeare, Hugo Ibsen, Maeterling and Schiller?

A One Feature Bill.

The vaudeville bill at the Murray this week is much below the standard established by Mr. Murray the opening week, which bill pleased all classes of patrons, even the most fastidious. The first two acts on the bill this week, low comedy stunts, fail to appeal to one with the average sense of humor. The musical act, a quartette, is a fair act and would pass muster with a good act supporting it. However the Murray offers one act that is the best of its kind now in vaudeville. This is "The Juggling Marmans." They have a swinging specialty that is truly marvelous and those who fail to see these wizards in action will miss a treat. The picture film at the Murray this week is exceptionally good.

McLeans Close.

The McLeans on Wednesday closed a ten days' engagement in this city and the local public will be pleased to see this organization return to the Gennett. It was by far the best stock company that ever showed in this city.

"Under Southern Skies."

One of the features of Lottie Blair Parker's "Under Southern Skies" will be the rendition, by a sextette of trained voices, of the old plantation melodies that were famous a generation ago and which today are as popular as ever, judging from the heartiness of the applause which they evoke. Under Southern Skies will be played at the Gennett Monday evening.

"Polly of the Circus."

"Polly of the Circus" gives a matinee at the Gennett tomorrow. It is not often that we are tempted to find fault with a producer of plays for being too generous, but that is the kind of a play producer Frederic Thompson happens to be. He wants to give too much for the money. As a result of his extravagance, he has made "Polly of the Circus" a case of "Polly" and the circus. There are not too many who will object to this, however. There may be some who will agree with us that Polly is so much more interesting and so much more important to the little drama of which she is a part, than a hundred circuses could ever be that the show scene should be eliminated. But probably there will be as many more who will enjoy the sight of a real lady bare-back rider turning somersaults off the back of a real horse ambling patiently around the inside of a real ring and keeping time to the oom-pah horn of a real circus tune. It is not often playgoers object to being offered too much entertainment, even though the extra measure proves a clear case of assault and battery with the poor old drama as victim.

"Polly of the Circus" is a pretty, appealing story of hearts of the tried and found true type, until the circus happens into it. Then in its last fifteen minutes it tapers off into a commonplace little show piece in which Polly is sacrificed to the scenery and the drama to the twinkling lights.

"The Matinee Idol."

Richmond theatergoers have always been fond of music and the announcement of a good comic opera has ever been received with much pleasure. In this case the pleasure will be doubled for besides having one of the new operas of this season (which later on is to make a run in New York) "The Matinee Idol," we are also to have one of the best known comedians of the day, De Wolf Hopper. The engagement is scheduled for the Gennett theater on Saturday, November 13.

At the Murray This Week.

The efforts on the part of the Murray to give its patrons a high class bill are being appreciated as is shown by the large crowds which are present at every performance.

The bill certainly meets the patronage which it is receiving. The Juggling Marmans never fail to bring round after round of applause from the audience with their seemingly impossible maneuvers with the clubs and their wonderful ability of throwing the clubs from one to the other is causing much talk among the shinglers of this city. The Four Nightingales are invariably called back time after time with their popular, harmonious songs. The catchy little comedy put on by Brooks and Carlisle is becoming more popular as the week grows older. It is simply bubbling over with wit and humor. From the very opening of the week the Percival, Shaw and Sherman act has been a topnotcher, judging from the reception given them from the audience. It is a fact that this week's bill at the Murray is the best that has been here this season and if you have not seen it as yet you should go before it is gone.

PREDICTS BAD MILK

State Food Commissioner
Says State Dairies Poor
In October.

IS OPPOSED TO LENIENCY

(Palladium Special)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 5.—According to H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, the people of many cities in Indiana may expect to buy bad milk for the next six months. In his report for October Mr. Barnard says that the state inspectors found the dairy business in the state worse in October than in any other month for a long time. He says:

"The finding of such unsatisfactory conditions during the month of October, when the cattle have been on good pasture following the fall rains, leaves little room for hope that the dairies will be at all improved for the next six months, when the cows are kept in the stable the greater part of the time as is necessary during the winter months. In the opinion of the department there is no reason for showing the dirty and slovenly dairymen further leniency. The milk man, the grocer and the butcher and the restaurant keeper are all operating under one law, and must be equally diligent in conducting their business in full compliance with its provisions."

"For a long time my hair had been falling out and my scalp gave forth great quantities of dandruff. I used several so-called hair tonics, but never received any benefit until I used Parisian Sage. This wonderful tonic cleansed the scalp and hair, removed the dandruff and stopped my hair falling out. There is nothing too good for me to say for Parisian Sage, and I strongly endorse its use." ### Enlightenment.

Mrs. Boggs—Henry, did you hear about Mr. Jones? Mrs. Smith was telling me this afternoon how—

Mr. Boggs—That's just like you women, gossiping about things that don't concern you, and I suppose you have the story all mixed up, anyway. Now, I got the whole thing straight at the cigar store and the barber shop, and the facts in the case were like this: It seems that, etc.—Puck.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Richmond.

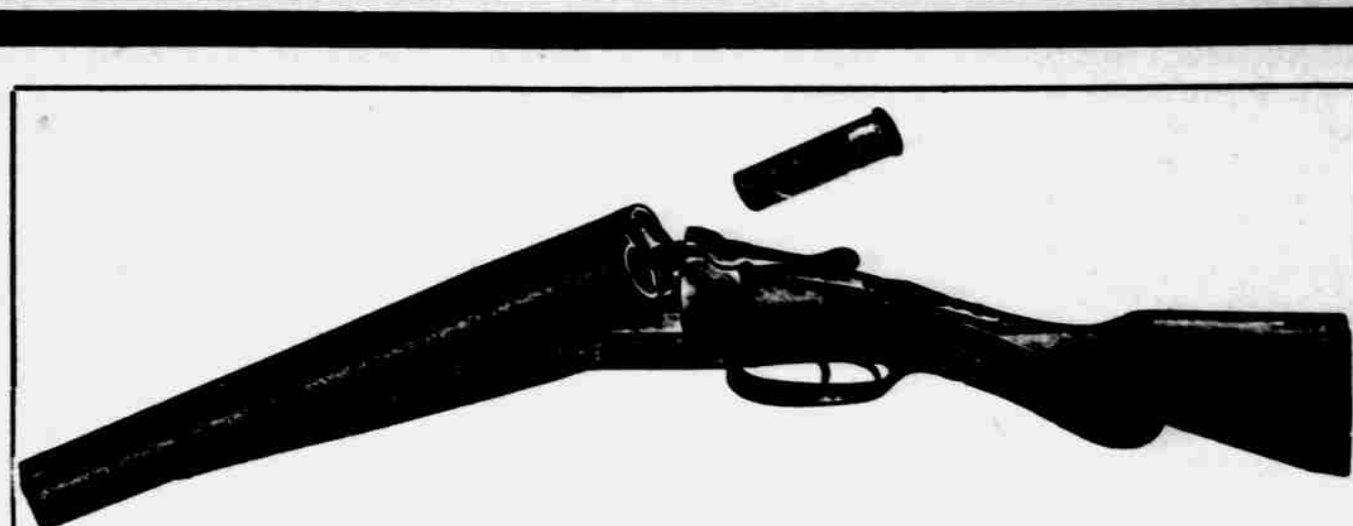

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen and worse troubles quickly follow. This is often the true cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, sideache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Richmond woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Augusta A. Smith, Earlham College, Richmond, Ind., says: "I had kidney complaint and was in a general run down condition. The kidney secretions were distressing and scanty in passage and often a brick-dust sediment was noticeable in them. Several years ago I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they benefited me so greatly that I have no hesitation in recommending them to persons similarly afflicted."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE DARK OF THE MOON.

A Result That is Produced by the Light From the Earth.

Many people have wondered why the part of the moon that receives no sunlight is often visible to us, the term being the "old moon in the young moon's arms." The dark part is easily seen as a copper colored globe repelling in the bright crescent. This that we see is nothing more or less than the earth shine on the moon. We appear the same way to the moon when we are in that phase, and our dark part is where the moonshine appears and the bright part of the sunshine.

The reason the copper color appears is because light has to traverse the atmosphere of the earth three times—once on coming from the sun to the earth, once when reflected to the moon and again on being reflected back to us. Our atmosphere possesses the peculiar property of absorbing the blue rays of this white light and allowing only the red and orange to go through, thus causing the appearance of copper color by the triple absorption.

An odd thing connected with this phenomenon, though having nothing to do with it, is this: That part of the moon which appears dark to us is the same part of the earth that appears light to the moon at any specified time, and that part of the moon which appears bright to us corresponds to the portion of the earth appearing dark to the moon.

Of course it is well known that the moon gives out no light whatever itself, the moonshine being merely the light of the sun on the moon reflected to us. The same applies with the earth in its shine on the moon, save that we do give out glows, no doubt, around great cities at night, on account of the enormous number of lights. One thing, however, in which moonshine excels the earth shine is its constant character. Where the earth possesses varying clouds the old moon never has any at all.—St. Louis Republic.

KILLS HER FOE OF 20 YEARS.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at A. G.
