CHILD'S ROMPERS.
This is a very popular garment for the children to play in, as it is suitable for either indoors or outdoors and stands the wear better than dresses. The waist, sleeves and front of the bloomers are cut in two pieces and sewed together at the center front, and the back of the bloomers are seamed to the front as shown in the back view. The binding across the back is extended to form a belt, which is buttoned in front. This pattern can be made up in chambray, gingham, or any of the heavier wash materials.
This pattern is cut in three sizes, 1, 2 and 4 years. Size 2 requires 3 yards of 37-inch material. Price of Pattern 471 is 10 cents.

No. 471.

HER BURNS SEVERE

While ironing at the home of Frank Newcomer, 30 Richmond avenue, this morning about 11 o'clock, the gasoline iron which Mary Epping was using exploded, severely burning her about the hands, arms and face. Her hair was also badly singed. Medical assistance was called and the girl was given relief from her sufferings. The blaze spread and owing to the fact that the fire was confined between the roof and the ceiling it was with difficulty that it could be reached by the firemen. An alarm was sent in and the departments quickly responded, the blaze being extinguished before any serious damage was done.

MINISTER TO CHINA.

(American News Service)
Washington, Nov. 5.—Oscar T. Crosby, of Virginia, is slated to be minister to China. Taft has his name under consideration.

There is no medicine so safe and at the same time so pleasant to take as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the positive cure for all diseases arising from stomach trouble. The price is very reasonable—50c and $1.

ASTOR CASE REPORT

Referee in Divorce Petition Is Said to Recommend Such Action.

WILL DIVIDE MILLIONS

(American News Service)
New York, Nov. 5.—Report of Referee Young who was appointed by Justice Mills to take the testimony in the suit of Mrs. John Jacob Astor against her husband, was completed today and delivered to the lawyers representing each side. It is reported that the referee recommends absolute divorce. The mother is to have the custody of her seven year old daughter. The father gets the seventeen year old son. A division of the millions has been arranged.

RIDERS MAKE RAID

(American News Service)
Lexington, Ky., Nov. 5.—Night riders burned Thomas Stafford's tobacco barn with all his crop, worth ten thousand dollars, this morning in Jessamine county. He has asked for bloodhounds from here to trace the marauders.
Stafford had been warned to join the pool, but had refused. He has typhoid fever and was unable to leave the house to try to save anything, though he heard the night-riders and knew that the property was burning.

CITY HEALTH GOOD

The health report for October shows nothing unusual. There were twenty-one deaths and thirty-six births, twenty of which were boys, and sixteen girls. There were four cases of typhoid and four of scarlet fever. In October, 1908 there were twenty-three cases of contagious diseases reported with smallpox ranking first in number. Smallpox has not made its appearance in Richmond since last June.

MRS. HOBART DEAD

(American News Service)
Patterson, N. J., Nov. 5.—It was reported here that Mrs. Garrett A. Hobart, widow of former Vice President, was killed in an automobile accident this morning. The butler at the Hobart residence says Mrs. Hobart started for New York early this morning. He also had heard the rumor but had no definite news.

Wall Street Becomes Excited Over Report That He Was Killed.

REPORT IS NOT TRACED

INQUIRIES WERE RECEIVED IN NEW YORK TODAY FROM ALL SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY—IS NOT BELIEVED.

(American News Service)
New York, Nov. 5.—A wild rumor, emanating from nowhere, apparently to the effect that Roosevelt had been killed, electrified Wall Street this morning. Inquiries came almost simultaneously from all parts of the country as to the correctness of the rumor. Its source could not be traced through the cable offices at Washington, London, Paris or Berlin could not confirm it.

A NIGHT OF TERROR

Followed Today by Removing Negro Assaultants of White Woman.

MOBS SURROUNDED JAIL

(American News Service)
Cassaway, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Following a night of terror in which mobs surrounded the jail shouting threats of lynching, Scott Lewis and Andy Johnson negroes, were removed today to Sutton. The prisoners are accused of being accomplices of Charles Lewis, who attacked Mrs. Albert Rockhold after binding and gagging her husband. The removal was accomplished through a clever ruse of Governor Glasscock who assumed control of the situation and assured the mob that the prisoners would be given a hearing in Cassaway at ten o'clock, this morning. When that hour came the prisoners had been secreted away to Sutton, where a strong jail and soldiers will prevent the lynching.
