The Searchlight Utility Return Flue Floor Heater
The Searchlight Utility has a capacity of 1,133 cubic inches in hot air circulating flue or 243 cubic inches more than the so-called base burner.

The Searchlight Utility Return Flue Floor Heater fire pot is completely exposed, presenting a solid radiating surface. Not a particle of heat is lost or thrown where it would be of no benefit, as in the case of "housed in fire pots" and base burners.

ASKS SETTLEMENT FOR SUSPENDERS

Prominent Vaudeville Manager Is Being Sued for the Costly Pair.

PRESENT FROM ACTRESS

SHE BOUGHT THE SUSPENDERS, STUDED WITH DIAMONDS, ON INSTALLMENT PLAN BUT IS NOT PAYING FOR THEM.

(American News Service)
Chicago, Nov. 6.—The man with the suspenders, or, should suspenders be mortgaged? is the subject of a very stirring little drama in real life in which Jacob Stenard, manager of the western vaudeville association, is made defendant in a suit filed against him for balance of payment on a $125 pair of suspenders, having diamond buckles.

"I'm not the man with the suspenders," said Stenard when the writ was served on him.

"You are the man with the suspenders," declared Attorney Bernard J. Brown, representing Herbert L. Joseph and company, the complainants.

She is a Young Thing.
Stenard sniffed, buttoned up his coat and went into his private office, where he called on Miss Ruby Jackson, 21 years old, an actress.

What the telephone conversation was has not become public, but the court papers indicate that Miss Jackson, on August 8, 1909, executed a mortgage, made a payment of $3 and secured a pair of diamond buckled suspenders with pretty pink silk designs worked through the strap. She ran breathlessly to Mr. Stenard's office and made him a present of the suspenders the documents show. Since then, it is alleged, she has not been able to keep up the payments for the suspenders she was buying on the installment plan.

Stenard, it is declared, has in the meantime, used the suspenders for the practical purposes they were intended.

"The Distance Lends Enchantment.
An exact definition of a gentleman has been tried many times, never perhaps with entirely satisfactory results. Little Sadie had never heard of any of the various definitions, but she managed to throw a gleam of light on the subject, albeit one touched with unconscious cynicism. The word was in the spelling lesson, and I said:
"Sadie, what is a gentleman?"
"Please, ma'am," she answered, "a gentleman's a man you don't know very well."—Woman's Home Companion.

Before making a loan there are two things to be considered. Have your dealings confidential and be sure you do not jeopardize your securities or peace of mind. All companies guarantee these things in their advertisements but a shrewd borrower will go deeper than an advertisement that is only meant to draw attention to their line of business, and investigate for himself the methods of the firm with whom he intends to deal.
Our methods are open to any investigation.
