GIVEN A SURPRISE.

A surprise dinner party was given Sunday, November twenty-first, for Mrs. Otto B. Meek and daughter, Miss Hazel Meek at their pretty new home west of the city. At midday an elaborate dinner was served. Flowers were used in attractively appointing the table. The guests were: Mrs. Katherine E. Meek, Mrs. Margaret Rulley, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mines Simcock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simcock, Mrs. N. S. Reynolds and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and family, Mrs. John Stahr and baby, Mrs. Hubble and baby, Dr. M. L. Meek and family, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Meek, Mr. Carson Meek, Mrs. John C. King, Mr. Jesse King and Mr. Charles A. Meek and family.

MISS LYONS HOSTESS.

Miss Margaret Lyons gave a dinner party Saturday evening at her home on South Thirteenth street. Among the guests were: Miss Lina Gehr, Miss Mildred Lamb, Miss Marion Stevenson, Miss Katherine Ensminger and Miss Iva Harmeson.

RUNGE-COMER.

Mr. Walter H. Runge and Miss Iva Comer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Comer were quietly married last evening in the First Methodist parsonage at six-thirty o'clock by the Rev. R. J. Wade. The bride wore a pretty traveling gown, Mr. and Mrs. Runge will reside at 164 North Nineteenth street. The bride is a prominent member of the First Methodist church and has been actively associated with the Epworth League of that organization. Their many friends extend congratulations.

SURPRISE MASQUERADE.

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. George Pille Saturday evening by a number of her friends who came masquerade. The function was also in celebration of her birthday anniversary. The guests included members of a card club. A beautiful present was presented to the hostess by the guests. Later in the evening point euchre was played at three tables. Mrs. Edward Turner and Miss Alma Turner were given the pretty favors. At the close of the game a luncheon was served. Those composing the party were: Mrs. Henry Wickmeyer, Mrs. George Snyder, Mrs. Edward Turner, Mrs. Carl Meyer, Miss Alma Turner, Mrs. Walter Morgan of Seattle, Wash., who is the house guest of Mrs. Henry P. Miller, Mrs. Fred Schneider, Mrs. Henry Kamp, Mrs. Henry P. Miller, Mrs. Jacob Lichtenfels, Mrs. John B. Maag, Mrs. Chris Lichtenfels and Miss Vice Thomas.

DANCE, A NOTABLE EVENT.

The annual Thanksgiving dance to be given Thursday evening in the Pythian temple by Mrs. Charles Kolp for members of her present dancing class and also for former classes will be one of the most notable society events of the Thanksgiving week. All members of the class now receiving instructions from Mrs. Kolp are requested to come masquerade. A program will be presented during the early part of the evening, after which dancing will be enjoyed until a late hour. A number of visiting guests will probably be in attendance.

VISITING AT BLOOMINGTON.

Miss Jessie Beeler and Miss Ethel King are in Bloomington, Ind., the guests of friends at Indiana university.

WEEK-END PARTY.

Borrowed originally from our transatlantic cousins, the idea of the week-end house party has proved well.

A FOOD DRINK

Which Brings Daily Enjoyment.

A lady doctor writes: "Though busy hourly with my own affairs, I will not deny myself the pleasure of taking a few minutes to tell of my enjoyment daily obtained from my morning cup of Postum. It is a food beverage, not a drug like coffee."

"I began to use Postum 8 years ago, not because I wanted to, but because coffee which I dearly loved, made my nights long weary periods to be dreaded and unfitting me for business during the day."

"On advice of a friend, I first tried Postum, making it carefully as suggested on the package. As I had always used 'cream and no sugar,' I mixed my Postum so. It looked good, was clear and fragrant, and it was a pleasure to see the cream color it was my Kentucky friend always wanted her coffee to look like a new saddle. Then I tasted it critically, for I had tried many 'substitutes' for coffee. I was pleased, yes, satisfied with my Postum in taste and effect, and am yet, being a constant user of all these years."

I continually assure my friends and acquaintances that they will like Postum in place of coffee, and receive benefit from its use. I have gained weight, can sleep and am not nervous."

Ninth district, went over to the Taggart side and elected Jackson.

A Vacancy in Ninth.

Foley has now located in Indianapolis, where he has taken a place as counsel for the street railway company, and this will leave a vacancy in the committee from the Ninth district. The Ninth is a district in which the anti-Taggart people have been expecting to elect one of their number as district chairman this time, and this may be the reason why Taggart would be afraid of the committee. If a strong anti-Taggart man should happen to be elected in the Ninth, Taggart might lose control of the committee. He may feel that he can do better with an entire new committee.

There is another angle that is being discussed, also, and that is that probably Governor Marshall wishes to have the rule changed so as to elect the state committee at the state convention, on account of the effect it may have on his chances for the nomination for President in 1912, but it is difficult to see how this could amount to anything. If Governor Marshall becomes an active candidate for the nomination for president the democracy of Indiana will be for him, regardless of whether the state ever has a committee at all.

The Paddy Bird.

One of the best known of feathered creatures in India is the paddy bird. A traveler says of him: "The paddy bird is not afflicted with shyness. He is far too lazy to be disturbed by the approach of human beings. So confiding is he that the natives of India call him the blind heron. I once saw one of these birds standing motionless at the water's edge within ten feet of a grunting, perspiring washerman, who was dashing some clothes to pieces against a stone in a dirty duck pond. That is the way washing is done in India. Neither individual took the least notice of the other."

Trusted Versus Rings.

"What?" queried the fair maid, "is the difference between a trust and a ring?"

"I'm afraid I cannot explain the difference in so many words," replied the young man in the case, "but if you'll put your trust in me I'll blow myself for the ring tomorrow."

And she put her trust in him.—Chicago News.

Prayerful Revenge.

A Puritan preacher named Boyd was in the habit of inveighing against Cromwell. Secretary Thurlow informed the latter, advising him to have the man shot. "He's a fool, and you're another," said the protector. "I'll pay him out in his own coin." He asked Boyd to dinner and before giving him any prayed for three hours.

SUNDAY GALA DAY AT LOCAL CHURCH

Golden Anniversary of Christian Congregation Was Celebrated.

HAD A SPLENDID PROGRAM

CROWNING EVENT OF THE DAY WAS THE FACT THAT FIVE PEOPLE JOINED THE CHURCH—TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.

Yesterday was a gala day for the First Christian church, now engaged in celebrating its fiftieth anniversary of its organization. Large audiences greeted the speakers at every session and the speakers measured up well to all that was expected of them.

Hiram College had its "inning" in the city yesterday. Rev. S. W. Traum, pastor of the First Christian church, is a graduate of that institution. The organist, Mrs. R. C. Wilson, is an alumna of the same institution. Rev. Garry L. Cook, the speaker in the bible school session is also a graduate, while Prof. Adrian M. Newens, who read the "Sky Pilot," at the Y. M. C. A. in the afternoon, was at one time a member of the faculty of Hiram.

The First Speaker.

The first speaker of the day was the Rev. Garry L. Cook, who spoke on the subject of "The Dignity of the Bible School." Mr. Cook is a new man to Indiana audiences, and this was his first appearance in this part of the state, but he made a splendid impression in his message. His plea consisted of an array of facts, showing the important place that the bible school fills, in supplying the teaching of the book. The bible is crowded out of the schools by law, is neglected in the homes, only partially taught in the pulpits and restricted largely to the bible school hour, he said.

The Rev. S. S. Lappin, office editor of the Christian Standard, Cincinnati, Ohio, plead for a restoration of the teaching function of the church. The threefold ministry of Christ, he said, was to heal, to teach and to save. Body, mind and spirit, or the entire part of man, was comprehended in the ministry of Christ. This, he averred, should be the ministry of the church. But fundamental is the teaching service. Without this, the other ministries are lacking. His evening address was on the subject of "A Centennial Retrospect," and dealt with facts peculiarly applicable to the local congregation in its history of fifty years.

The crowning part of the morning

YOUR KIDNEYS WILL ACT FINE AND ALL BLADDER DISTRESS VANISHES.

A few doses regulate out-of-order Kidneys and end Backache.

If you take several doses of Pape's Diuretic, all backache and distress from out-of-order kidneys or bladder trouble will vanish, and you will feel fine.

Lame back, painful stitches, rheumatism, nervous headache, dizziness, irritability, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, worn-out, sick feeling and other symptoms of sluggish, inactive kidneys disappear.

Uncontrollable, smarting, frequent urination (especially at night) and all bladder misery ends.

Feeling miserable and worried is needless, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the disordered kidneys, bladder and urinary system and no backache.

es," he calling to his assistance those of the membership, who, in point of years, have been longest connected with the congregation. The Rev. J. J. Morgan will speak on Tuesday evening.

Not the least interesting and valuable in this series of meetings is the work that the choir is doing under the efficient leadership of Robert C. Wilson, the director of the choir.

His Style of Boat.
"And your husband is a yachtsman?"

"Yes, indeed, and awfully enthusiastic about it. He has a nice boat of his own."

"Is it a centerboard boat?"

"No. From what I hear it must be a sideboard boat."—Cleveland Leader.
