WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Opening of Winter Season by Presbyterian Men's Club Was Enjoyable.

MANY ATTENDED BANQUET

The Men's club of the First Presbyterian church opened its winter series of meetings last evening by a banquet in the basement of the church.

The banquet was served by the Ladies Aid society. C. W. Knouff, president of the organization, acted as toastmaster and a number of interesting toasts were responded to by Howard Dill, John F. Thompson, C. E. Shively, Dr. C. S. Bond, Rev. T. J. Graham and Dr. J. M. Wampler. There were almost a hundred present.

The affair was a great success and it is believed that more interest will be taken in the brotherhood this year than in former years. An outline for the work of the coming year was reviewed and an effort will be made to secure several prominent speakers to address the club during the winter. The organization will meet on the first Tuesday of each month.

GOVERNOR ROASTS STATE OFFICIALS IN AN INTERVIEW

Deem, secretary of the board, and was opposed by the young man's father.

In the office of the state superintendent of public instruction, Max Aley, son of Robert J. Aley, state superintendent, was employed until the beginning of the school year at Indiana University, when he continued his work at that place. Plans have been considered to have him return to the office at the close of the university year. Will E. Roby, son of Judge Frank S. Roby, of the appellate court, is a messenger for the court at a salary of $1,000 a year.

A Common Practice.

The practice of employing members of the immediate family of officers in the state benevolent institutions has been common and continues to a wide extent. The movement started by the governor when he told the board of trustees of the state soldiers' home at Lafayette to be careful about appointing the son of the commandant, W. S. Haggard, to a place at the institution a day or two ago, is said to be the start of an effort to break up the practice.

Recently a purchasing agent was appointed for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown, and along with it was one making the appointee's wife a matron of one of the departments at the institution. The wife of the superintendent of Easthaven insane hospital at Richmond, draws a salary as matron, and so did the wife of the superintendent of the Central insane hospital in this city, until recently.

The stand taken by the governor has made something of a sensation.
