

PRESIDENT GAVE STATE RECEPTION

And Members of the House and Senate Turned Out in Great Force.

HEARTY WELCOME FOR ALL

THERE WAS ENOUGH HARMONY
PRESENT TO SUPPLY AN EN-TIRE ORCHESTRA—EVERY ONE HAD A GOOD TIME.

Washington, Feb. 2.—President Taft had a good time greeting congress last night at the third and next to the last state reception of the season.

The only suggestion of "Forestry" was found in the palms in the red corridor. The solemn manifestation of the presence of the "insurgent" movement was in the good-natured jostling which everybody gave everybody else in an effort to get into the Blue Room, where the president and his party received.

Members of both houses of congress, those who are on one or the other side of the fence and a good many more who sit on the top rail, were there in force to say "Howdy" to the president. There were the old-time leaders and those still in embryo.

Party differences were forgotten long before the policemen at the door collected the cards, and by the time the visitors had filed into the Blue Room to shake hands with the president there was harmony enough to supply any number of symphony orchestras in good standing with the community.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon was there to meet his friends and his opponents.

Something of a Crush.

Following two comparatively small receptions, the congressional reception last night was something of a crush after the line had passed through the reception rooms and into the state dining room. Here an augmented corps of waiters was kept busy, serving supper to the congressional visitors, and those who kept their ears close to the ground might have heard bits of little conferences which are getting to be the habit nowadays wherever "one or more" members of congress are gathered.

Over in one corner was a large punch bowl, around which there was always a genial crowd, and, directly opposite, on a table, a large pitcher of ice water stood in solemn neglect throughout the evening.

From a social standpoint, the reception last night was much like those to which society has been accustomed many years, with the exception of the happy changes made in the routine by Mrs. Taft.

Promptly at 9:30 o'clock, which is just a half hour later than the hour heretofore observed, the President and Mrs. Taft, preceded by four White House aides, and followed by members of the Cabinet and their wives, came down the grand staircase and proceeded into the Blue Room.

Mrs. Taft at Husband's Side.

Mrs. Taft remained in her place beside the President the greater part of the evening.

Mrs. Sherman, wife of the Vice President, stood next to Mrs. Taft, wearing a gown of heavy white satin, ornamented with pearls and diamonds and finished with bands of black fur.

Mrs. Dickinson, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, was next.

Suffering Beyond Description—Thought Death was Near.

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching eczema, until I was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, and I am so grateful to you that I want to know for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. I continued with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. This was nine years ago and I have had no return of the trouble since. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Remedies can write to my address. Mrs. Alice Eason, 935 Inn Road, Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 16, 1909."

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among skin-tortured, disfigured infants and children, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents have led to their adoption in countless homes as a priceless treatment for the skin. Information of Priceless Value to Every Richmond Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of Richmond citizens who have been permanently cured?

Martin Bulach, tailor, 433 S. Eleventh street, Richmond, Ind., says: "In the spring of 1902, I suffered from a weak and lame back and other symptoms of kidney trouble. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply at A. G. Luken & Co's Drug Store and their use brought me prompt relief. Since then I have had no further need of a kidney remedy, as my cure has been permanent. I gave a public statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, after I had used them with such good results and I still hold a high opinion of them."

At Local Theaters

The Flints.

They are the fun makers of the age. Nothing can equal for inspiring hearty laughter their amusing tests with their subjects. The ordinary farce comedy has one or two comedians, but the Flints take any number of volunteers on the stage, and to behold, they have them all comedians, executing such fantastic tricks that the entire audience screams with laughter with the funny antics of the sensitives acting to the suggestions of the Flints. Take the laugh cure by enjoying one or more of the entertainments presented by Dr. Flint at the Gennett this week.

High Class Vaudeville.

The big audiences at the Murray theater are showing their appreciation for the excellent bill put on by Mr. Murray by enthusiastic applause, and this each act receives, and this is not surprising when one considers the high-class features put on this week. Every one who has seen Willie Hale and Brother can readily understand why his engagements have met with great favor, both in this country and abroad. They will spend three years across the big pond, having already engaged the time, beginning next October, so that this will probably be the last time audiences in this neighborhood will have a chance to see such wonderful dexterity. Their music is also an interesting feature of their act. Dainty June Roberts and the other little performer in "The Doll Maker's Dream," are making that act a favorite at Richmond's popular playhouse and one must not forget the flute music of the doll maker or the scolding of his wife—a shrew in every sense. Some one has spoken of Dainty June as a good impersonation of Anna Held. The other two acts are also good, the eccentric black face comedians and the singers, Mack and Scheffels. The motion song rounds out the fine program.

TYPICAL ELK STYLE

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 2.—The office of Secretary Connor, of Spokane Lodge No. 228, B. P. O. E., was turned into a marriage bower when Miss Zaydee Smith, of Spokane, and Edmund H. Loughran, of Helena, Mont., were married. Rev. Dr. William J. Hindley officiating. R. W. Butler, county auditor and treasurer of the Elk's lodge was called from the lodge room to the telephone, and after consenting to open the court house to procure a license for the young couple, called Rev. Dr. Hindley, and together they planned the ceremony. Believing the ceremony would not be complete without music, the Elk's quartette was called and the service was held as planned. The wedding was set for a later date, but to escape the congratulations of their many friends, the time was advanced.

WITH LOUD CRASH A BIG FIRM FAILS

Fiske & Robinson Bond Company of New York, Goes To the Wall.

LIABILITIES 7 MILLIONS

BUT FIVE MILLIONS ARE STILL
SECURED BY GOOD COLLATERAL—ONE OF BIGGEST WRECKS
SINCE 1907.

New York, Feb. 2.—Fiske & Robinson, members of the New York Stock Exchange and one of the best known bond houses in New York, were petitioned into insolvency yesterday by three friendly creditors. The liabilities of the firm approximate $7,000,000, with nominal assets slightly in excess of that sum.

Calling of the banks for better collateral than is held as security for some of the firm's loans, inability for the firm to market $2,000,000 of the bonds and preferred stock of the Buffalo and Susquehanna railroad company and general dullness of the bond market are assigned as the causes of the failure, which, according to Joseph Stanley Brown, floor manager of the firm and one of the petitioning creditors, was decided upon when it became clear to the members that to continue would be dangerous and unfair to the creditors.

With Mr. Brown the signers of the petition in bankruptcy were Henry Clark and John H. Thompson. On their petition, which alleged a written admission by the firm of its inability to meet its obligations, Judge Hand in the United States court, appointed Bronson Winthrop, of Winthrop & Stimson, receiver, with a bond of $50,000.

Debts Nearly $7,000,000.

The receiver's attorney last night gave out a statement, in which he said:

"The receiver found a statement taken from the books of the firm by Patterson, Teale & Dennis, public accountants, as of January 28, 1910, which shows assets of $6,847,968.96, and liabilities $6,735,324.37—balance excess of assets $112,644.59."

"It has been impossible as yet to ascertain the exact amount of secured and unsecured obligations of the firm, but it is estimated that the secured obligations will amount to about $5,000,000 and the unsecured debts to over $1,000,000."

"The cause of the failure is attributed by the members of the firm to the shrinkage in market value of the 4½ percent bonds of the Buffalo and Susquehanna Railway company, of which the firm was carrying a large amount."

"These securities were all in loans, and as the market diminished the lenders holding these securities as collateral have from time to time required additional collateral. There are other securities by the firm which have not as yet a general market, and could not be realized on in time to meet the demands for additional margin on the secured loans and the demands for unsecured creditors."

Appeal From Receiver.

"It is hoped that the creditors of the firm whose claims are secured by the Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad bonds and Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad stock will withhold sale of the same until a plan can be devised to conserve the value of these securities. If the Buffalo and Susquehanna securities are thrown on the market both the creditors who hold them as security and the estate will be greatly damaged."

"As soon as the statement of Patterson, Teale & Dennis, of January 28 is brought down to date a detailed statement of the financial condition of the firm can be made."

AN ODD AFFLICTION

Suffering from an affliction to her ear which affects the equilibrium to such an extent that she is constantly afraid of falling when on her feet, Mrs. Jonas Gaar has gone to Cincinnati, to have the member treated by Dr. Sattler. The affliction is a very rare one. It is not known whether it is a growth in her ear or just an irritation that has caused the affliction. Mr. Gaar went with his wife.

GOOD BLOOD.

Given good, clean, healthy blood. Nature will do the rest with any case of catarrh, inflammatory rheumatism, scrofula, eczema, erysipelas, boils, pimples, scrofula, or skin disease of any kind. Good blood invariably means vigorous appetite, good digestion and strength.

Thus it stands to reason that an effective "alterative" or blood purifier, while it will not cure all diseases, will help in fighting any disease and will cure those mentioned above, all of which comes from bad blood.

Forty years ago Dr. A. B. Simpson, of Richmond, was known as one of the most successful physicians in three states. His success was founded almost exclusively on one prescription, the most powerful blood purifier ever known. After his death this prescription was regularly put up as Dr. A. B. Simpson's Vegetable Compound.

It has been used extensively all over the country and in forty years has never failed, even in that most dreadful of all blood diseases, syphilis in its worst stage. And when an alternative will do that, it of course cleans and rebuilds blood affected with other troubles. Simpson's Vegetable Compound is purely vegetable and as harmless as it is effective. It is sold at $1 per bottle at all drug stores.

AN OHIO LOCHINVAR WHERE IS BOYCOTT?

Hero and Youth of Mystery Is Pardoned by Kentucky
Governor.

HIS PAST IS INTERESTING HE NETTED OVER $1,500

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—Liberty for E. L. Lamarre, a supposed Ohio man, who has been serving two years in the penitentiary here, and has been a mystery at the prison, as well as the hero of a romantic story, was of short duration yesterday, when Governor Wilson pardoned him. Last night he was arrested at the request of Sheriff P. J. Parker, of Mt. Vernon, O., where it is claimed, he is wanted on a charge of horse stealing.

At Mt. Vernon he is known as Lenard, alias Stoddard, alias Stockwell. Parker has gone to Columbus for requisition papers, meanwhile Lamarre is held here in the city jail.

He was released from the penitentiary yesterday afternoon, but the Ohio officers asked that he be detained.

His story is that while on his vacation at Winchester in 1908 he met a young woman he knew from Buffalo, N. Y., and they got a rig in Winchester to make a three days' trip through the Blue Grass. At Paris he learned the girl's parents had sent an officer after them, believing they had eloped. They fled to Maysville and crossed the Ohio. He sent the girl home, giving her what money he had. The Winchester liveryman caused his arrest on a charge of horse stealing, and he gave the name of Lamarre, declaring that he would not disgrace his mother and sister by giving his right name.

He said that he was a Yale man, but nobody could identify him as such. Finally he gave the name of Ebree, but this was the name of the editor of a paper at Yale, and Ebree became indignant at such use of his name. Lamarre gave several other names and told various stories, none of which were wholly true, but some of which appeared to be so in spots; but his evident training and manner caused the officers to believe he had good reason to conceal his identity. He said he had a sister at Vassar, but couldn't spell Vassar correctly.

Finally Governor Wilson, after several investigations, which, however, disclosed nothing important, decided to pardon him, and wrote on the pardon that Lamarre had not intended to steal the horse anyhow and had been punished enough, and referred to him as a Lochinvar.

The Ohio officers asked some time ago to have him detained until they could get him.

Lamarre's identity is still a mystery.
