

TEN PASSENGERS REPORTED TO BE LIVING IN SNOW

This Rumor, Which Cannot Be Confirmed, Caused Greatest Excitement in Spokane When Heard Today.

WERE ALMOST CRAZED
BY THEIR HARDSHIPS

Everything Now Points to the Fact That the Death List from Avalanche Will Reach the 150 Mark.

Spokane, Wash., March 4.—A report that ten persons have been rescued alive from the trains buried by the Wellington avalanche, after having been entombed eighty hours, caused great excitement here today. The report stated that passengers were nearly crazed from their sufferings beneath the hard packed snow. Because of the wires being down confirmation of the report is lacking. It is estimated the Great Northern railroad has suffered a loss of more than a million dollars because of the avalanche.

Death List Grows.
Everything today indicates that the death list in the vicinity of Wellington may reach a total of 150. Already thirty-seven bodies have been recovered and desperate efforts are being made to reach those which are believed to be piled up in the gorge sepulchre. With the masses of snow and ice rising mountain high and interwoven with tons of debris there is a probability that many of the bodies may remain in the ice until almost mid-summer.

Great fears are entertained for the safety of the one hundred rescuers who are tunnelling through the ice. Warmer weather the past three days has started the snow melting and there is fear of another avalanche.

Thirty Are Missing.
Thirty laborers in the employ of the Great Northern Railway at Wellington are missing and every member is believed dead. The Great Northern management neither confirms nor denies this report, but says many men are employed of whom no record is kept, a number of check systems being used.

Since the blockade occurred the force of workmen has been daily augmented until now not including those killed, there are from 250 to 300 men engaged in the stockade removal and the rebuilding of the wrecked road. The lives of these are menaced all the time by threatened slides.

Seven miles of the Great Northern tracks north of Helena were reported washed out today.

For the past two weeks, new records in this line are looked forward to. Eames sprung the greatest surprise the billiard world has had in years when he captured the three cushion billiard title from Alfred De Oro in New York recently. Eames, who hails from Denver, was little known outside of his own city, and few dreamed that he would take it away from the heretofore invincible Cuban.

TO QUESTION BANKS

Many Questions Will Be Asked Institutions by the Assessors.

LIST IS A COMPLETE ONE

Township assessors have turned over assessment sheets to officials of every bank and trust company, of their respective townships, to be filled out and returned to the county auditor by March 25. The assessors will exercise unusual diligence this year in an effort to ascertain all taxables held by banking institutions.

The date which the officials of the institution are required to give is voluminous. The name of every stockholder, his residence, the number and par value of the stocks and also the true cash value of each share, forms a part of the information which the officials must give. The assessors are also instructed to secure information relative to the paid up capital stock on the first day of March; the amount of surplus funds on hand; the undivided profits; amount of all other accounts, funds, claims and credits belonging to the bank on March 1. The percent paid in dividends must also be learned, as well as a number of other important points, relative to the listing of such institutions for taxation.

The little daughter of the hostess looked long and inquiringly at the guest who she had been told was a very learned man and a professor. During a lull in the conversation she spoke up. "What do you do in college, please, sir?"

"I am a professor, my dear," was the reply. "I impart my knowledge to the students."

"Then if you keep on that way," she said soberly, "pretty soon you won't know anything yourself, will you?"—Ladies' Home Journal.

AN ORDINANCE TO IMPROVE STREET

North Fifth Street May Be Considered at the Next Council Session.

DESIRED BY RESIDENTS

BUT THE BOARD THINKS THE COST IS TOO GREAT FOR THE CITY TO UNDERTAKE IT AT THE PRESENT TIME.

It is probable that an ordinance will be introduced at the meeting of the city council next Monday night for the improvement of North Fifth street from Main to D streets. For some time the bad condition of this street has been the occasion of numerous complaints from the resident property owners. Last fall a petition was presented to the board of works, signed by the majority of property owners, requesting that cement sidewalks, curbs and gutters be laid along that thoroughfare. The matter was considered by the board but in view of the remonstrance which was entered and the fact that winter was approaching, no action was taken.

The streets and alleys committee of council at a recent meeting of the city fathers, made a report concerning the bad condition of North Fifth street, and pointed out the need of improvement, suggesting that the board of works order the work done in respect to the laying of cement sidewalks curbs and gutters. After studying the proposition, however, the board feels that the improvement, which would cost in the neighborhood of $2,500, is too great an expense just at this time. In refusing to order the improvement the board has aroused the ire of several of the property owners, who favor it, and they declare that they will now instruct the councilman from that ward to introduce an ordinance in council in regard to the matter.

HE SUES CLENDENIN

Another damage and injunction suit has been filed in the circuit court against William S. Clendenin, petitioning the court for a permanent restraining order, prohibiting the defendant from operating his fertilizing plant north of the city.

Charles H. Deitemeyer, whose residence is within 75 or 80 rods of the fertilizing plant, is the plaintiff. In addition to the restraining order he wishes $1,500 damages. The suit is similar to that filed by William H. Pickett in the first instance and in which he obtained $180 damages and a restraining order.

HIS 42D MILESTONE

LOOKS LIKE STRIKE

(American News Service)
Philadelphia, March 4.—George H. Earle, the city's representative on the street railway directors' and opponent of arbitration, declared today that the settlement of the strike by arbitration, under the act of 1783, was impossible, as that act is unconstitutional and obsolete. A general strike now seems almost certain.

Peary's Claims on Discovery of Pole Not Deemed as Conclusive.

HIS FRIENDS IN A HUFF

(American News Service)

Washington, March 4.—Commander Peary's friends failed today to convince the House Naval Affairs Committee that Peary had discovered the North Pole. Henry Gannett, chairman of the National Geographic board, and A. H. Tittman, Superintendent of the Geodetic survey, Peary's warmest supporters, appeared before the committee and later left in a huff. The committee refused to make public anything except that the evidence they produced was not sufficient. The hearing was secret.

FOR INTERNATIONAL SHOOT.

Tryouts to Pick American Team to Meet England and Australia.

Within a short time the tryouts for places on the American team which will represent this country in the three cornered international small bore rifle match with England and Australia will be in progress.

Each country is to be represented by a team of fifty men, who will shoot fifty shots each, five shots to the target. The distance will be seventy-five feet, and any position may be assumed. Any rifle may be used not over 230 caliber, and any sights may be used, including telescopes.

The targets will be furnished by the secretary of the Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs of Great Britain through the National Rifle Association of America. They will be circular, with an inner ring one-half inch in diameter, in which the competitor may blacken as much as he pleases for a sighting bull. This is surrounded by concentric circles one-quarter of an inch apart, counting from nine down to one.

The tryouts will take place during the week ending March 12, and the targets will be sent at once to the National Rifle Association headquarters in Washington and the team picked and announced. The match will be shot in the week ending April 2 and the results telegraphed to Washington and then cabled to London. The targets will also be sent to London after being verified here.

This match carries with it the handsome Dewar trophy presented by Sir Thomas Dewar, lately sheriff of London. It was won last year by Great Britain, with America second and Australia third.

HAGGIN BACK TO TURF.

Once Famous Horse Owner to Race String on New York Tracks.

James B. Haggin, for a long time the most extensive breeder of thoroughbreds in this country, will race a considerable string of horses over the tracks of the Eastern Jockey club this season.

Several years ago the orange and blue silk of the Haggin establishment was famous, but in recent years Mr. Haggin has turned his attention more to the breeding and marketing of horses than racing.

He will come back to the sport with a string of a dozen horses of his own breeding that are at present in the care of the veteran trainer Charles Littlefield, at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y.

HANLY SLEUTHS ON STAND

THEY DETAILED WHAT INFORMATION THEY HAD GLEANED AS TO THE ALLEGED GAMBLING—A BANKER TALKS.

Paoli, Ind., March 4.—Harry Miller of Seymour, and Robert Machan of Indianapolis, said to have been employed as secret service agents by Governor Hanly, testified at the French Lick Hotel company trial today, detailing the information they had gleaned about the alleged gambling at the Taggart resort. W. W. Cave, a banker from French Lick testified that the land on which the gambling casino was located was worth probably seven thousand dollars and rented for fifteen thousand per annum. Cave contended that one thousand would have been a legitimate rental for a legal business to be conducted thereon. Taggart will take the stand to convince the jury that the hotel company had no power to stop the gambling, even if gambling actually had been carried on.
