Seems rather unnecessary for the Corporation of London to offer Colonel Roosevelt the freedom of the city. If he needs any he can be relied upon to take it himself.

TWINKLES

(By Philander Johnson.)

"Some of the lower animals are greatly favored," said the student.

"Yes," replied young Mr. Torkins. "Just think of being presented by nature, free of charge, with a moth-proof fur coat!"

THE FIRST BATTLE

Americans are glad today!
They have won a fight against Unseen Government!
They have defeated Cannon.
They have taken away much of his power.
They have done much to restore representative government.

But the fight has just begun.
The first breach has been made in the citadel of autocratic government by a few. But the fight must go within the walls. It must keep on until the American people are their own masters.

This is not a party issue. It is a national issue of right and wrong and fundamental principles of government. The very essence of the spirit of the republic is in the balance, and with all the power of the people behind it, has broken the restraining walls of those who try to keep it back.

This is no rebellion—it is a revolution! It is a revolution because it has succeeded. It will be successful because the best blood of millions of true Americans is behind it.

Let no one deceive you.

This is not a party question.

Special privilege; organized selfishness; predatory wealth; dishonor and greed know no party. The Republican party should not be visited with the indiscriminate defeat at the polls.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR THE PEOPLE TO REMEMBER THAT THEY MUST WIN ANOTHER VICTORY NEXT FALL BY RETURNING BEVERIDGE TO THE SENATE.

For now all the forces that have just been routed will do everything in their power to defeat him. They will redouble their efforts. THE PEOPLE MUST NOT GO TO SLEEP THINKING THE FIGHT OVER.

THE FIGHT HAS JUST BEGUN.

THE PEOPLE MUST BLAME AND PRAISE—AS THE MEN WHOM THEY HAVE SENT TO CONGRESS REPRESENT THEIR WISHES.

THE INSURGENTS HAVE PROVED THEIR STRENGTH.

NO ONE CAN READ THEM OUT OF THE PARTY NOW.

THEY ARE THE PARTY.

THEY ARE THE PEOPLE.

EVERY MAN WHO SHOWS HIS DISPOSITION TO REPRESENT HIS CONSTITUENTS SHOULD BE RETURNED TO CONGRESS.

THE PEOPLE HAVE WON THIS VICTORY BECAUSE THEY DEMANDED THAT THEY HAVE A VOICE IN THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT.

THAT IS WHAT THEY MUST ALWAYS DO.

Whether it be in nation or state or city there are men always striving to rule the citizens for their own benefit.

Under the cloak of party these men ply their nefarious trade. Either they do it themselves, like Guggenheim in the Senate, or they do it by an agent like Aldrich or Cannon. The cloak of the party? Yes—that is this talk of party regularity.

NO ONE FINDS FAULT WITH PARTY REGULARITY WHEN THE PARTY REPRESENTS THE PEOPLE.

It is when these men of selfish purpose put their own and not the people's wishes to the front and TRY TO STRANGLE THE PARTY THAT WE MUST HAVE SUCH A REVOLUTION AS WE ARE NOW HAVING.

The fight that Theodore Roosevelt waged is bearing fruit. The people are asserting their rights.

ONLY THE MEN WHO SINCERELY REPRESENT THE PEOPLE HAVE ANY CLAIM TO THE VOTES OF THE PEOPLE.

EVERY MAN IN CONGRESS WHO VOTES FROM THIS TIME ON WILL BE WATCHED. AND IN NO OTHER WAY CAN THE PEOPLE DEFEND THEMSELVES.

THE MEN WHO REPRESENT THE PEOPLE WILL HAVE NO TROUBLE WITH THEIR PARTY.

FOR THE PARTY IS THE PEOPLE.

AND A MILITANT, PURPOSEFUL, RED CORPUSCLED, LIBERTY-LOVING PEOPLE WILL NOT SOON AGAIN FORGET THAT THEY HAVE JUST WON THE FIRST BATTLE OF LONGED FOR VICTORY.

she goes,
She walks much like a duck.

An Object Defeated.
"Why do women wear such extravagant headgear?" asked the Chicago man.

"To be frank with you," replied his wife, "it is to attract the admiring gaze of the men."

"Then why do you proceed to put out the men's eyes with hat pins?"

"I don't min' de high cost of livin'," said Uncle Eben, "as long as I'v got de price. What riles me is de way I'v got so interested in arguyin' bout de expensiveness dat I'v missed two good jobs of whitewashin'."

Pangs of Pride.
"Your speech has brought you many congratulations."

"Yes," replied the young statesman, "only I wish would congratulate me more on the speech itself and less on my luck in getting a chance to deliver it."

The Era of Economy.
No funds for the maintenance of congressional automobiles!—News Item.

From the halls of legislation comes a melancholy sigh:

"How the generous ostentation once so fine is passing by!

First the railway passes failed us,

And once more with nerve seren-

Fate has cruelly assailed us—

They deny us gasoline!"

How the perquisites have faded As the years went drifting on,

Men refuse to do as they did

In the sessions past and gone.

If remarks sedate or witty

Grow too long, be cold and keen;

Cut debate off, but in pity

Don't cut off the gasoline!

the office of somebody else more fit, but he should not try to sneak into office on the strength of the popular theory that "everybody is for Beveridge" and then, even by implication, injure the man whose personal popularity alone will lead the Republican party to victory, next November, if it is led at all, which is doubtful. If he opposes Beveridge, he should say so and make his fight along that line.—Muncie Press.

country. There is an opportunity for some one to build a line north. The towns are close and the district well populated with prosperous people. With a town anxious for interurban facilities and a good territory, something ought to come out of it.—Logansport Journal.

Which?

The people look to the republican party for good government. They do not expect it of the democratic party, because in every trial it has failed. The party as now controlled in Indiana does not appeal to the confidence of the honest voter. What precedent of good government has Tom Taggart, democracy's boss, ever set? Yet the question to be determined in the coming election is whether Taggart, the associate of gamblers and the ally of the brewing interests, or Beveridge, the statesman and orator, shall represent Indiana in the Senate of the United States?—New Castle Courier.

"Well Enough."

If the Democrats succeed in carrying the next legislature they of course, would elect a United States senator. Protection would lose one vote thereby, and the opposition to protection gain one. From a republican consideration of such a situation which do you want? A Republican could not make tariff terms with a Democrat, because there would be "no basis for negotiations." The people prefer protection because they know absolutely what it is doing for them now, and they are interested in the "now" of things industrial. Viewing the situation from the manufacturer's district it seems that this is a mighty good year to "let well enough alone."—Shelbyville Republican.
