T. P. A. Notes

BY T. C. H.

Remember the dates of the Fort Wayne convention are May 6 and 7.

The T. P. A. hats are arriving daily in large numbers and every fellow who has ordered one should call at the club rooms or at Houghton's store and get his new spring hat.

With the election over the boys have settled down to normal conditions and are peacefully and quietly repairing for the next stunt to be pulled off of interest to the T. P. A.—the Ft. Wayne convention. A large number of the boys of Post C are arranging to go to the convention and represent the post in a creditable manner. No doubt Post C will have one of the largest delegations at Ft. Wayne of any post in the state.

The newly elected officers will take their new positions the last Saturday in April. The only changes to be made are in the vice presidency and the board of directors. The three retiring directors are Leroy Brown, Chas. Pierson and Al Mendenhall. The holdover directors are Marion Shreeves, J. M. Lewis and T. C. Harrington. President Quigg will succeed himself. Hasty will do likewise and so will Morgan as librarian. Newt North will fill the chair vacated by Vice President Shreeves.

The Indiana division of the T. P. A. has been working with unusual zeal and vim during the past month of March and have added to the membership roll the largest number of new members ever written in one month. Two hundred and forty-eight members were accepted in Indiana during March. Of this number Post Q of New Albany carried off all the honors with one hundred and five members to their credit. Post C followed along the trail with seventeen. A new post was organized in the Indiana division being Post Y of Huntington, Ind. The new post starts off with a membership of thirty-nine. Throughout Indiana a great interest is being displayed in the T. P. A. in fact, the growth in the entire national organization has been very gratifying. Despite the knocks of other organizations of similar character the T. P. A. continues to be the leader of them all.

J. B. Hegger diving down into the lower corners of long forgotten accumulations of papers, magazines, etc., has stumbled onto a paper of interest to early T. P. A. boys. This article appeared in the early stages of the organization of the local post and was written for the T. P. A. column, appearing then in the Palladium. Any of the old boys will be pleased to read this bit of early history and the same can be seen in the club rooms where the article is now safely framed and hanging in the club parlors.

J. B. Young of Evansville, after seven years service as press chairman of his post has refused to serve longer and has retired from the group of Hoosier T. P. A. pressmen. We are extremely sorry to lose Bro. Young from among our ranks as no more capable or more highly esteemed gentleman ever took up the pen to further the cause of the T. P. A. His articles always carefully written and possessing a world of good thought were always read with great interest by the Indiana T. P. A.'s. That he will be missed by the members of his local post goes without saying. To his successor we welcome him most heartily and only ask of him that he maintain the high standard established by our retiring Bro. Young.

The following clipped from Kleeer's T. P. A. column of Marion seems to indicate that we are missed. Nothing has caused us to become sour, neither are we pouting. That he has been missed is no fault of ours. We trust that he will be on the list regularly from now on.

"We have not had a word from that white silk hat bunch down at Richmond for four weeks. Harrington cut us from his list, at least we have not had the Palladium for several weeks. Don't sit around and pout. If you are sore at us tell why. I had nothing to do with the boys gold-bricking Brother Hiley of your post. We told him not to go against the game, but he thought he could pick the shell with the little marble under it, as many of us have done who have gone that way before him."
