liver the sermons in their new pastorates, Sunday.

The matters of supplying pastors for the Fifth Street and the Third M. E. churches is left for final determination in the hands of the Rev. T. M. Guild, the presiding elder. It is said that he will follow the advice of several of the more influential members of both churches and assign one minister to the position. This has been considered seriously for some time, inasmuch as the congregation of each of the two churches is not large nor wealthy enough to support a minister.

NO MORE LOITERING

Oscar Skillins, colored, was arrested last evening on South Sixth street and slated for loitering. In the city court this morning, however, Mayor Zimmerman did not believe that the evidence was sufficient to justify Skillins' conviction and the negro was released. Chief of Police Gorman stated that the practice of negroes standing on the sidewalks on South Sixth street and blocking the way of pedestrian, would not be tolerated. The fact that Skillins was released, does not mean that the practice may be indulged in, he said.

Welling had been in the employ of the local company for about three months, coming to this city from New Castle. He will be bound over to the circuit court. The young man is completely broken up over his arrest and attributes his downfall to strong drink.
