

OREGON TEAM TO GIVE DRILL HERE

Famous K. of P. Organization of Dayton to Appear at Coliseum Tomorrow.

GREAT CROWD EXPECTED

AND INTERESTING PROGRAM HAS BEEN ARRANGED AND AFTER SPEECHES AND DRILLS A DANCE IS SCHEDULED.

Judging from the advance sale of seats to the exhibition drill, to be given tomorrow evening, at the coliseum by the drill team of the Oregon lodge, Knights of Pythias, and the dance which is to be given afterwards, under the auspices of the rank team of the Triumph lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this city, the affair will be one of unusual success.

The reputation held by the visiting drill team is one which is not surpassed in the United States, this team having won first prize in many a competitive drill of the national organization. The team appeared in this city several years ago, and at that time gave such a splendid account of itself that it has been invited each year to repeat the entertainment.

Entertaining Program.
An interesting program has been prepared. Speeches will be made by Past Supreme officials and also several musical selections rendered by the orchestra of the visiting lodge. The feature of the program is expected to be the drills by the different divisions of the degree team and finally the drill by the entire team. At the conclusion of the exhibition, the floor will be cleared for dancing. Renk's orchestra having been secured to furnish the music.

The seat sale has been unusually large. A large portion of the reserved seat section of the Coliseum has been sold. The dance tickets are 50 cents. Seats entitling women and children to the privilege of watching the exhibition are 25 cents, while men will pay twice as much. Seats can be reserved at a very small cost.

AN OWL STORY.

Showing the Tyrannous Effect of Habit Upon a Wild Animal.

An English publication tells this interesting story of an owl:

A vague figure appeared out of the clouds, traveling against the wind toward the spire and looking more like a ragged piece of newspaper whirled about the heavens than any living thing. It was a white owl, and after watching him for some time I came to the conclusion that he was trying to get to the vane of the spire. A very idle ambition it seemed, for, although he succeeded again and again in getting to within a few yards of the point aimed at, he was on each occasion struck by a fresh violent gust and driven back to a great distance, often quite out of sight in the gloom. But presently he would reappear, still struggling to reach the vane. A crazy bird!

But I could not help admiring his pluck and greatly wondered what his secret motive in aiming at that windy perch could be. And at last, after so many defeats, he succeeded and grasped the metal crossbar with his crooked talons. The wind with all its fury could not tear him from it, and after a little flapping he was able to pull himself up, and then, bending down, he deliberately wiped his beak on the bar and flew away.

This, then, had been his powerful, mysterious motive—just to wipe his beak, which he could very well have wiped on any branch or barn roof or fence and saved himself that tremendous labor. This was an extreme instance of that tyrannous effect of habit on a wild animal. Doubtless this bird had been accustomed after devouring his first mouse to fly to the vane, where he could rest for a few minutes, taking a general view of the place, and wipe his beak at the same time, and the habit had become so strong that he could not forego his visit even on so tempestuous an evening.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

At Local Theaters

Richmond Stock Co.
Miss Jane Babcock has been engaged for the leading parts with the Richmond Stock Company which is to open an indefinite run at the Gennett theater next Monday evening. Miss Babcock was the leading lady with the People's Stock Company in Chicago last season and is a versatile actress of the first rank. The leading man will be Mr. Carl Brickett who played the principal part in "The Girl of the Golden West" last year.

"Monte Carlo Girls."
For many years the management of the Phillips theater has made it a point to engage whenever possible the best attractions in the burlesque line and this season has engaged for the lovers of that class of entertainment the "Monte Carlo Girls," one of the best that money can produce, numbering twenty-five people or more, with a bunch of the prettiest girls that there are in the show business. This company has always made good here and from reports received it is the best ever. Two new burlettas have been written especially to fit that star Hebrew comedian, Lew Golden, who will again be a member of the company, and with the comedy in such excellent hands there is sure to be lots of fun. All the latest and best New York song hits, and dainty musical numbers will be rendered by a bevy of dainty maidens. They will play here on Tuesday, April 19th.

"The Goddess of Liberty."
"The Goddess of Liberty," Mort H. Slinger's latest musical comedy success, is the largest and most expensive musical production that has ever been put on tour from the Western metropolis. To stage this piece, in which he is starring Sallie Fisher and George Parsons, Mr. Slinger expended $60,000, lavishing money on four heavy sets of gorgeous scenery as well as on a brilliant array of costumes and on expensive properties.

One of the settings in "The Goddess of Liberty" ranks among the most elaborate ever produced in America. It shows a forest scene in the Berkshire Hills during a terrific electrical storm. The two lovers in the story that is unfolded in the piece are caught at night in the black woods and a storm comes on. As they confess their love for one another the lightning flashes and the thunder roars in the most realistic fashion. The center of the storm approaches and all of a sudden a lightning bolt descends and strikes a tree. A most spectacular climax shows the tree crashing to the ground, as though hit by the withering hand of death, and then follows a downpour of rain, which forces the lovers to take refuge in another tree. They are safe, however, for during the lightning storm they have been able to see in the distance the house of the girl's uncle from which they wandered and became lost.

The original production and all star cast comes to the Gennett on Monday, April 25th, almost direct from its record breaking run of 300 consecutive performances at the Princess Theater, Chicago.

At the Murray.
Patrons of the Murray who enjoy good comedy will be well pleased with the bill this week as the headliner as well as other numbers have plenty of clean comedy in them. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher in the playlet, "The Half Way House," which was written especially for them by the late Ezra Kendall, is the medium by which their talents are nicely displayed and the vehicle for some good humor and clean comedy. The Chamberlains, with their lasso throwing, an original vaudeville stunt, is full of interest as well as sensational. The Gay Sisters have already won the audiences by their singing and dancing. Morris Golden, the Yiddie with the Fiddle, is also a popular number of this week's bill because his imitations really imitate and he can pay the violin when he tries. The motion pictures add to the comedy of the bill this week.

Beets were first found growing wild in sandy soils near the sea in Europe, and Western Asia. The wild beet still found there is regarded by authority as the original type. This wild beet is slender rooted and has a taste so different from the beet we know today, that one must consider the first man who tasted thought it possible to develop, had gifts of hope and imagination far beyond ordinary. The beet has been cultivated since 200-300 B. C.

ADVISES ITS SALE

Special Master of the C., C. & L. Railroad So Reports to the Court.

SEVERAL ROADS WANT IT

Indianapolis, April 12.—In a report made to the clerk of the federal court yesterday Noble C. Butler, special master in the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville railroad litigation, recommended the property be sold in its entirety and proceeds of the sale, after the costs are paid, be applied to mortgages executed to the Old Colony Trust company of Boston; the Union Trust company of Indianapolis, as trustees, and the American Trust company of Boston.

There are three divisional mortgages and one general mortgage. The divisional mortgages are executed to the Old Colony Trust company and the Union Trust company as trustees and aggregate $3,154,000. The general mortgage was executed to the American Trust company and the Union Trust company to secure the bonds of the company as now organized, and is for $5,016,000.

The road extends from Chicago to Cincinnati through Indiana. It is now in the hands of a receiver. Several railroads, two of which have no entry into Chicago are after the railroad and when the property is placed under the hammer by the United States court on the steps of the federal building the bidding will no doubt be spirited.

Seek Entrance to Chicago.
Two southern railroads, the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Southern Railway, will be among the bidders. Neither of these roads reaches Chicago and they are anxious for an entry into the city by the lake. President George W. Stevens of the C. & O. has made several inspection trips over the road and officials of the Southern recently looked over the property. Officials of the Baltimore & Ohio and of the Pennsylvania also have inspected the line.

According to the C., C. & L. officials there is some misapprehension in connection with the disposal of the road. It has been reported several times that the C. & O. had practically

Sergt. Matthew Doyle

Released from the Bonds of Rheumatism, Now Ready for Active Service.

Read what he says about Rheuma, the prescription Leo H. Fife, guarantees:

"Report Porter, Buffalo, June 26, '09.
Just about to depart for the Philippines, but want to thank you before I go for the benefits received from the use of Rheuma. Have been in the U. S. Army service for nearly 30 years, and during that time have seen much field service in Indian uprisings and in Cuba and the Philippines. The result was an attack of Rheumatism which I found it impossible to destroy until I tried Rheuma. Was in such serious condition that I had been relieved from all field duty, drills, etc. Took less than three bottles, and am now performing the regular routine of duty once more." 1st Sergt. Matthew Doyle, Co. B, 12th Inf.

Can the statement of such a man be doubted? Is there a Rheumatic sufferer in Richmond, Ind. who is going to continue to live in dread and agony in the face of such a letter, especially when Leo H. Fife says: "If Rheuma doesn't do just as much for you as it did for Sergt. Doyle, you can have your money back. Only 50c a bottle. Mail orders filled by Rheuma Co., 1009 West Ave., Buffalo, N. Y."

Local Baker Makes an Address at State Meeting at Indianapolis.

RESPONDS TO THE MAYOR

John Zwissler, of this city, vice president of the Indiana Association of Master Bakers, responded to the address of welcome by a representative of Mayor Shank before the sixth annual convention of the bakers at Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. Mr. Zwissler discussed the early history of the organization and explained how the association came to be organized. He commented on the benefit derived by the bakers from the annual meetings and showed the advantage of becoming a member of the association.

The establishment of a trade school for the training of apprentices in baking, and the pure food law as it applied to the bakers trade were the two principal subjects for discussion at the convention.
