

SYNDICATE AFTER ALL STATE LINES

Corporation Controlling T. H., I. & E. Takes First Step in Big Merger.

MORGAN BACKS PROJECT

DEAL FOR THE STREET RAILWAY SYSTEM OF INDIANAPOLIS HAS SHOWN WHAT AIMS OF CORPORATION ARE.

(Palladium Special)

Indianapolis, April 21.—Another long step in the direction of consolidating all of the traction properties of Indiana into one big company was announced here yesterday when it became known that the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction company had bought the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company, the local street railway system of this city. The Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern has traction lines leading from Indianapolis to Richmond, Terre Haute, Lafayette, Martinsville, Danville, Plainfield and Crawfordsville, and from Terre Haute to Sullivan, Clinton and Paris. The system consists of 280 miles of traction lines. The company was formed by the consolidation of all of these lines into one about two years ago, this having been the first step in the direction of a great merger which finally will cover all of Indiana.

Hugh McGowan "Hired Man." The Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern is owned by the Randall-Morgan syndicate of Philadelphia, and Hugh J. McGowan, of this city is the head of the syndicate in this state. This syndicate also owns the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company which owns the local street system and the fine traction terminal station. It owns also the Indiana Union Traction company, the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction Company, and the network of traction lines in Northern Indiana, but none of the latter are included in the new deal which was announced yesterday.

It is understood, however, that it is only a question of time until the entire system of traction lines over the state reaching from Michigan to Kentucky and from Ohio to Illinois will come under the one head. In making the deal announced yesterday eighty shares of preferred and eighty shares of common stock of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern were given in exchange for each one hundred shares of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company. No cash was paid over. It is understood that there will be a new bond issue in a short time, the proceeds of which will be used in improvements and betterments to the system. When the final consolidation is made the Indiana traction system will be the greatest in the world.

Light Lunch and Music.

A country girl in Dublin went into a restaurant for her lunch. She was asked if she would have a meat dinner or "light lunch and music." Being curious, she chose the light lunch and music and was immediately shown into a room where other inquisitive persons were eating soup and listening to a spirited if not satisfying performance upon the Jewsharp by one of the waiters. She felt at the end of the meal that she had paid high for her curiosity, but she could make no complaint.

The "Goddess Of Liberty" At Gennett Next Monday

At Local Theaters

"Goddess of Liberty."

While catchy music, pretty girls and scenery, lots of life and good management are absolute essentials to a comedy with music, to make it successful in this day and generation, talented and accomplished principals must also be provided before a play can command the earnest attention of the theater-going public today.

It was with that important fact in mind that Mr. Mort H. Singer, set about to organize the company which is to present "The Goddess of Liberty" at the Gennett theater next Monday.

And it was because of the solicitation with which the selections were made that the play was so entirely successful when it was first produced in Chicago by Mr. Singer and had to be kept in that city for a run of over 200 consecutive performances. Even after that long time, it was only with the greatest effect that Mr. Singer was able to get "The Goddess of Liberty" on to the road, that other cities might have an opportunity to witness what was called by one of the Chicago critics, "Chicago's best musical comedy."

Among those who will be seen in the production are Miss Sallie Fisher, George Parsons, Miss Alma Youlin, Johnny Fogarty, Augustus Carney, Miss Olive Artell, Miss Frances Young, Miss Florence Guise, Fred C. Hagan and many others. The celebrated Singer Show girls and "ponies" are in a superabundance and lend no small amount of support to the excellent principals who have been a universal hit everywhere. "The Goddess of Liberty" has been presented. The window sale will open tomorrow morning.

"The Third Degree."

Charles Klein made fame and fortune by writing "The Lion and the Mouse." Henry B. Harris, who produced it, also made a fortune. Mr. Klein is the author of "The Third Degree" which Henry B. Harris will present at the Gennett next Tuesday. Where "The Lion and the Mouse" dealt with characters high in politics and speculative commerce in "The Third Degree" the story is laid in New York and deals with men and women of the smart set and the methods of the police in wringing confessions of guilt through the sweating process of the "third degree."

The play, while considerably younger, has already equalled the wonderful record of "The Lion and the Mouse" and abounds in fascinating climaxes, typically "Kleinesque" and of unusual virility.

"St. Elmo."

Carl J. Brickert, the prominent young Indiana actor who will be seen in the character of St. Elmo Murry in St. Elmo at the Gennett next week was formerly leading man with David Belasco's second company in "The Girl of the Golden West" the play made famous by Blanche Bates. Mr. Brickert played the part of Johnson (Ramirez) the road agent, essayed first by Robert Hilliard. This character had never been brought out to the satisfaction of Mr. Belasco and when he began to cast about for a new leading man the Indianapolis actor was brought to his attention by Oscar Eagle, the producer who lately joined the Belasco forces. Mr. Belasco asked for an interview and Mr. Brickert was summoned by wire. The manager thought he looked the part, put him in rehearsals and the contract followed.

The following are a few press comments relative to Mr. Brickert's work in "The Girl of the Golden West." "Carl Brickert made a splendid Dick and his interpretation of the part brought out all of the best points in the best manner. All of his scenes with the 'Girl' were the best things in the play."

"Carl Brickert played the part of Dick the road agent in a very acceptable manner. His every word and manner was timed to suit—the at one time happy, at another despondent—part he had to act, and with Miss Hall met with a reception seldom equalled."

All Head Liners.

Richmond's popular playhouse—the Murray—has two headliners, or more properly speaking, about four this week. Bert Swan wrestles with alligators, one of the most sensational acts on the stage today. The Russian Gypsy Troupe in attractive costumes sings exceptionally well and puts on some dancing that is quite different from the usual run. "Married for Money" is a comedy playlet put on by Fory L. Brott & Co. and is certainly a laugh provoker as it has been cleverly written and is well presented. Three Dreamers present more comedy and the motion picture adds some more to the bill. This is without doubt the biggest bill ever put on at the Murray and the people of this vicinity who desire to see approved vaudeville are taking advantage of the excellent bills presented.

THE JELLY FISH.

The bay of Naples abounds in medusae, or jellyfish, often growing as large as two feet in diameter and weighing fifty and sixty pounds. Some of them shine at night with a greenish light and are known as noctiluca (night lanterns) by the natives. The jellyfish sometimes make migrations in great groups, sometimes so large and so thick as to impede the navigation of vessels, like the floating plants in the Sargasso sea of the tropics. These shoals of medusae, as they are called, may be so dense that a piece of timber plunged in among them will be held upright as if stuck in the mud, and ordinary rowboats cannot force their way through them. Their migrations have never been explained. They are irregular and occur at no particular season of the year and under no particular influences.

The Record of Raindrops.

It is by carefully noting small and apparently insignificant things and facts that men of science are enabled to reach some of their most surprising and interesting conclusions. In many places the surface of rocks, which millions of years ago must have formed sandy or muddy seabeds, is found to be pitted with the impressions of raindrops. In England it has been noticed that in many cases the eastern sides of these depressions are the more deeply pitted, indicating that the raindrops which formed them were driven before a west wind. From this the conclusion is drawn that in the remote epoch when the pits were formed the majority of the storms in England came from the west, just as they do today.—Harper's Weekly.

"DRYS" GIVEN JOLT

Convict's Daughter Asks Her Father Be Paroled to Some "Wet" County.

HE WOULD BE BETTER OFF

Indianapolis, Ind., April 21.—An appeal was made to the state board of pardons by the daughter of William Barnes of Montpelier, not to send him to a "dry" county if he is pardoned or paroled. Barnes was sent up from Blackford county in 1907 on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

He was sent to prison a number of years ago for killing his brother-in-law while both were under the influence of liquor. He was pardoned for his first crime when he enlisted for the Spanish-American war.

The girl lives in a "dry" town in Illinois and the members of the board suggested that they might send the father to her.

"I'd be glad to have my father with me," said the girl to the board, "and will welcome him if you wish to send him to me, but as far as whisky is concerned he would be a great deal better off at Montpelier, where the liquor is sold in regulated saloons, than where I live, where it can be bought at any time by anybody without regulation. I know he ought to go where he can't get it at all, but I don't know where that would be."

The girl said that the saloons had been voted out of her town, but that twice as much liquor is sold there as in the average "wet" city. Her appeal was novel to the board, which took the case under advisement.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Parish Priest's Advice Led to Her Recovery

Thin, weak, or frail people—those who "take cold easily" should be prepared with Eckman's Alternative in the house. Remarkable cures of even Tuberculosis (Consumptive) persons are often accomplished. For Bronchitis, Asthma and Hay Fever no more effective remedy exists.

I was troubled with Asthma and Bronchitis for seventeen years. After trying many remedies, Eckman's Alternative was recommended to me by our Parish Priest. I am now feeling fine. I cannot speak too highly of it. (Signed Affidavit) Anna Mae McEntee, Eckman's Alternative is good for all Throat and Lung troubles, and is on sale in Richmond by A. G. Luken & Co. and other Druggists. It can also be obtained at, or procured by, your local Druggists. Ask for Booklet of Cured Cases or write for Evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Phila., Pa.

Friendship's Effect on a Man's Joys and Griefs.

This communicating of a man's self to his friend works two contrary effects, for it redoubleth joys and cutteth griefs in half, for there is no man that imparteth his joys to his friend but he joyeth the more and no man that imparteth his griefs to his friend but he grieveth the less.—Bacon.
