

WHITES GREATLY EXCEED NEGROES IN THIS COUNTY

Out of an Estimated Population of 43,000 It is Figured That There are only 3,000 Colored.

ENUMERATORS FINISH MAKING THEIR COUNT

According to the Figures There Are 9,887 People of School Age of Whom 457 Are Colored People.

The result of the school enumeration taken in every township and school corporation of the county, this spring reveals some rather surprising data relative to the small proportion of the colored population to the white population.

The total population of the county is estimated at 43,500. The number of colored residents is estimated at about one-fourteenth of the entire population. Richmond has a little less than half of the entire population, and almost two-thirds of the colored population.

According to the school enumeration the records of which have been filed with the county superintendent, there are 9,887 persons of school age and unmarried in the county. Of this number there are 457 colored persons. In aggregating the population from the school enumeration the entire number is multiplied by a fraction less than four and a half. Relative to the compilation of the colored population, this fraction is raised to within a fraction of six and one-half.

ON POSTAL SAVINGS

House Committee This Morning Talked, But No Decision Reached.

TAFT DEMANDS PASSAGE

(Palladium Special)

Washington, May 11.—At an informal conference of the house post office committee this morning, the postal savings bank bill was discussed and suggestions made by President Taft were gone over. The session was broken up by a call of the house, which necessitated members going in for a vote.

Main points causing the discussion are those with respect to the deposit of postal savings. The disposition now is to favor leaving fifty percent of the deposits in the banks of the communities where first deposited; the other fifty percent to be invested in bonds. The question as to whether state banks shall be allowed any of the funds, and the security which will be required before such deposits can be made, are being thoughtfully considered by the committee.

President Taft is urging the passage of the bill in compliance with the republican platform demand.

FEAR CONTAGION

AT COUNTY FARM

Frank Snow Contracts Black Erysipelas from Preston Huell, Deceased.

OTHER INMATES WATCHED

HUELL, WHILE IN A DELIRIUM, TRIED TO GET IN BED WITH SNOW—SUPT. MEEK ROASTS TRUSTEE.

Inmates of the county infirmary are threatened with an epidemic of black erysipelas, as a result of one of the inmates becoming inoculated with the disease, from Preston Huell, an old colored resident of Richmond, who was brought to the home on Monday, April 25 and died the following Thursday.

Frank "Brick" Snow, who has been an inmate for more than a year, during most of which time he has been in the hospital, has the disease, in a malignant form and his condition is very serious, considering the fact that he has a number of other serious disorders.

Infirmary Superintendent Harry C. Meek is very much alarmed at the likelihood of a further spread of the disease and is taking every precaution to prevent further contamination. Snow has been removed from the building, being placed in quarters in an out house.

He Criticizes Howard. Meek criticizes James Howarth, township trustee of Wayne township, for bringing Huell to this place, when it was apparent to all that the colored man could not live but a few days. Mr. Meek says that inasmuch as the man was suffering from a contagious disease that he should have been taken to the pest house near Richmond. At the time of his death, Mr. Meek made a complaint about Wayne township bringing its poor to the county farm to die.

Dr. Fouts, the county physician for the institution is working every day and taking every precaution to prevent an epidemic. He said that he believed the danger was passing being hopeful because, so far, the disease is confined to one inmate.

When Huell was brought to the institution, Superintendent Meek was absent. Huell was placed in the hospital which at that time was occupied by Alvin Henry, suffering from gangrene poisoning, Robert Davidson and Snow. During the night, Huell in a delirium arose from his bed and walked around in the hospital. He made an effort to get in bed with Snow and it is believed that in this way the disease was transmitted to him. Mr. Meek said that he is not sure but that Huell also tried to get in bed with the other two aged inmates, but as yet the signs of the disease on these two have not been noticed.

As soon as Snow became affected, he was removed to the out house. A tent will be delivered to Mr. Meek in a few days and as soon as the weather will permit, Snow will be placed in this.

How He Won Her.

A man who married his stenographer won her through sheer persistency. Although it was evident to the wooer that the young woman did not regard him entirely without favor, he found it extremely difficult to get her to listen to his plea. The stenographer refused to lunch, sup or go to the theater with her admirer. Finding every avenue of approach blocked, the determined wooer, who possessed some literary facility, wrote a short love story, in which the girl and he were the leading figures. This story he sent to the stenographer every morning for a month and ordered her to typewrite it for him. She dared not refuse to do as her employer commanded, and, realizing through the story that he would never give up until she married him, she finally acquiesced.—Chicago Record-Herald.

They Paid the Price.

The corporation of the city of Glasgow wanted to purchase the Whistler portrait of Carlyle and in due course waited on the master of the gentle art of making enemies about the price (1,000 guineas). They admitted it was a magnificent picture, but "Do you not think, Mr. Whistler, the sum a wee, wee bit excessive?"

"Didn't you know the price before you came to me?" asked the master, with suspicious blandness.

"Oh, ay, we knew that!" replied the corporation.

"Very well, then," said Mr. Whistler in his suavest tones, "let's talk of something else." And as there was nothing else of interest to detain the "corporation" they paid the price and made an excellent bargain.

Airy.

"I'm looking for a breezy march," said the bandmaster in a Chestnut street music store the other day.

"How about this one dedicated to the Aero club?" the facetious clerk asked.

"I suppose it is written for wind instruments," the bandmaster countered.

"Well, the air is easy," the clerk shot back, and the interchange stopped.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Well Satisfied.

"Old Grabber ought to be satisfied with the money he has."

"He is satisfied—so much so that he wants a lot more of exactly the same kind."—London Tit-Bits.

JOB FOR FAIRBANKS

Reported Today He Will Be Offered Ambassadorship to England.

REID TO LEAVE IN FALL

(Palladium Special)

Washington, May 11.—There is renewed talk in Washington that President Taft and Secretary Knox will offer the nomination as Ambassador to Great Britain to former Vice President Fairbanks. When President Taft was inaugurated, it was announced that Whitlaw Reid would not be continued in the post. Later the post was offered to Dr. Charles W. Eliot, who declined. It has been stated lately that Mr. Reid would probably continue in office until fall.

Mr. Fairbanks has again come into prominence through the accession to the throne of King George who is a personal friend of the former vice president.

The only question that has been raised in connection with the possible offer is the doubt in the minds of Fairbanks' friends as to whether he would accept the place. The opinion prevails in administration circles that the former vice president can have the ambassadorship or almost any other honor at the hand of President Taft.

THE MAGIC RING

Is the Title of a Booklet Describing a Finger Ring in which Mrs. Admiral Dewey, a Number of Prominent Practising Physicians and other Notables are Interested.

RHEUMATISM CURED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

What this Ring Has Done for Others It Will Do for You.

In this booklet is described a ring that has won the name of "Magic Ring," simply because the effects it produces seem so marvelous as to border on the realms of magic.

Otherwise it lays no claim to magic powers. On the contrary it is made in accordance with demonstrated scientific rules, and the results that seem so magical are the direct and natural outcome of the laws of science on which its construction is based.

The seemingly magic power of this ring is at once brought to bear upon any excess of uric acid in the blood, ridding the system of this excess and thus effecting speedy and permanent cure of any of the diseases caused by uric acid, most prominent of which is rheumatism.

The "Magic Ring" has cured nine out of every ten victims of rheumatism who have tried it. If it did not do this it would not pay us to publish this advertisement day after day in this newspaper. If, after a fair trial of the "Magic
