BRIDGE IS ALWAYS IN.

Perhaps no other game in the history of card playing has taken such hold on society in such a short time as has bridge whist. Twenty years ago it had not been introduced either in England or in America. It existed only in Constantinople and in parts of Russia. Today one can hardly go anywhere in the civilized world without encountering the game. In fifteen years it has risen to a prominence enjoyed by no other game. When the craze began, everybody thought it would be like other fads, last a year or two and then be forgotten. But there is yet no indication of a decline in the interest in bridge. On the contrary, the game is gaining new devotees every day. Even automobiles are now fitted with tables so that their occupants may indulge in a game while bowling along the highway. Trips from New York to Palm Beach have been made for the sole purpose of finishing a series of bridge games.

The many friends of Mr. Leo Gard will be surprised to learn of his marriage. The correspondent at Cambridge City writes as follows:

C. Schaeffer, at the Evangelical parsonage of Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Gard have returned to Cambridge City, where they will reside for the time, at least.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

The Indiana Ceramic association held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, with Miss Flora Greenstreet. The lecturer was Miss Ethelyn Miller, an instructor in design and assistant to Arthur Dow in the Horace Mann Art school in New York, who is spending her vacation with relatives in Franklin. Miss Miller impressed the members with her pleasing personality and her evident joy in her work. She has a keen perception of the artistic and the capacity to adapt her subject to her hearers. She is skilful in designing and she illustrated her subject on a blackboard as she talked. Her definition of design was: "A design is a deliberate creation of a harmony, by means of lines, mass and color. A harmony must embody the art principles of proportion, rhythm, symmetry and subordination." After the talk there was a social hour and luncheon. Miss Miller will return to New York for the new term in the fall. Since the last meeting of the Ceramic association, one member, Mrs. N. A. Morris, of Lebanon, has died. A memorial tribute to her will be given at the next meeting.—Indianapolis News.

Decorate The City For Jubilee

Citizens Are Urged to Assist in the Welcome to Visiting Catholic Societies, Who Arrive Here Sunday.

It is the desire of the St. Joseph society of St. Andrews church which celebrates its Golden Jubilee in this city next Sunday, that the merchants and citizens decorate in honor of the occasion. With this end in view the following appeal has been issued: To the Merchants of Richmond:

Our celebration of Sunday next having attracted state-wide attention, and the hundreds of visitors having signified their intention of attending, we, the committee on decoration, appointed by the St. Joseph's society, have thought fit to appeal to the merchants of the city kindly to decorate their places of business for May 15-17.

Thanking you in advance for any assistance you may thus lend towards making the Golden Jubilee of St. Joseph's society a success we are,

Yours very truly,
The Decoration Com.
Per Gus Cook, Chairman.
Business Club Appeal.

The Young Men's Business club has been asked to assist in getting the merchants to decorate and the committee in charge has issued this appeal:

To the Merchants and Citizens of Richmond:
On May 15, 16 and 17 the St. Joseph's society will celebrate its Golden Jubilee and as thousands of visitors have signified their intention of visiting our city, we, a committee being appointed by the Young Men's Business club wish to appeal to the citizens and merchants of our city to decorate their homes and places of business for the occasion, particularly along the line of march, as follows:

From Fifth and South E streets at 2:30 o'clock, then north on Fifth to South B, west on B to Fourth, North on Fourth to Main, east on Main to Fifteenth, north on Fifteenth to North A, west on A to North Tenth, north on Tenth to E, west on E to Ft. Wayne avenue, south of the Avenue to Seventh, south on Seventh to South E, west on E to Fifth, north on Fifth to South C, where the parade will disband.

In order to make the decorations harmonious throughout it is suggested that the National colors be used, and the colors of the society which are yellow and white, the same as the Fall Festival colors, and of which the business houses have an abundance. It is also desired that the merchants arrange appropriate window displays.

Kern Is Asked To Expose Bribery.

Washington Star Says Democratic Nominee Faces Awkward Situation and Should Follow Illinois Example.

Washington, May 11.—The Washington (D. C.) Star calls on John W. Kern to put partisanship behind him and take a lead in a grand jury investigation of the charges of bribery in connection with the election of E. F. Shively in the senate. The Star says: "The interviews that men give live after them; their secret thoughts are of course interred with their bones. It happened a little more than a year ago. A democratic legislator had been elected in Indiana, and among the candidates for the United States senatorship at the disposal of that body was John W. Kern, who had just been defeated for the vice presidency. He seemed to be in the lead for the place and the country expected him to win. But Mr. Shively was chosen on a secret ballot.

Work for Attorney General.
"Mr. Kern was not only disappointed but indignant. He declared in an interview that he had been betrayed by men who had promised to support him but who had yielded to pressure from brewing interests. He named no names but said that his betrayers numbered eight, and that he had proof of their perfidy.

"The delirious caused a sensation and it was thought that Mr. Kern would follow it up with particulars and have the election investigated. But he did not. He let it go with the one denunciation and Mr. Shively, personally much respected at home and elsewhere qualified as senator.

"Today the republican and the independent newspapers of Indiana are clamoring for an investigation of Mr. Kern's charges. Reminded of them by the scandal in Illinois respecting the election of Mr. Lorimer they are insisting that if Mr. Kern spoke advisedly on the subject of his defeat for the senate there is work for the district attorney at Indianapolis to do. The charges are not outlawed by age, nor is the crime, if crime was committed. The election of Mr. Lorimer and that of Mr. Shively were not far apart and the authorities are moving under the charges in the case of Mr. Lorimer.

What Will Brewers Do?

Bribery is bribery wherever committed and no guilty man or party should be shielded. A republican newspaper initiated the movement against Lorimer's senatorial title, and Mr. Kern, having disputed the integrity of Mr. Shively's title should as boldly put partisanship behind him in his further proceedings in the case.

"The brewery interests which Mr. Kern has charged with improperly influencing the senatorial election against him, are still in politics, and still on the side of the democracy. This year Mr. Kern is the democratic candidate for senator by indorsement of the state convention, but could not possibly win should the brewing interests toward his candidacy should be connected with the members of the legislature who he has declared sold out in his race against Mr. Shively."

Union Labor's stand on the child labor law will be set forth in the address of Mr. Abe Gordon at Council Chamber Friday night. Don't fail to hear him.

One True Medicinal Whiskey

Beware of So-called Ones—Imitations

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of their profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low grade mixtures which they tell you are "as good as" Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Some go so far as to try to make you believe it is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. These cheap concoctions are foisted on the people with the intent to deceive.

When a remedy has been before the public for more than half a century, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. They may imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. Its palatability and its freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. It has been used with remarkable results in the treatment of consumption, pneumonia, grip, coughs, colds, malaria, fevers, stomach troubles and all wasting and diseased conditions.

It is sold in sealed bottles only. The Old Chemist's Head is on the label, and over the cork is an engraved seal. Be certain the seal is unbroken. Sold by druggists, grocers, dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle.
