

CINCINNATI AND EARLHAM IN TIE

Two Baseball Teams Fight to the Thirteenth Inning on Reid Field.

CONTEST WAS EXCITING

QUAKERS GOT AWAY WITH GOOD LEAD BUT UNIVERSITY LADS TIED UP THE SCORE IN EIGHTH WITH BATS.

Earlham and Cincinnati fought it out to a draw yesterday afternoon in an exciting and interesting thirteen inning game. The game was finally called on account of darkness, with the final score standing 7 to 7.

Hays pitched an excellent game for the Quakers and held throughout the fray. Earlham secured the lead and seemed to have the game nicely tucked away until the eighth inning when the university men sent three across the plate and tied the score. Neither side was able to score in the ninth, and the Ohio lads sent three more across in the tenth, two men scoring on a wild throw from center field. The Quakers bunched hits in the last half and again tied the score. Neither side was able to get a man across in the last three innings, although several men were on bases. Cincinnati saved the game in the eleventh when they sent Kennedy in the box.

Brubaker and Furnas played a good game for the Quakers. Furnas pulled off a double play unassisted in the twelfth and pulled the team out of a bad hole. Renter, short stop and Williams, second base, played a strong game for Cincinnati. Several times during the game extremely fast plays were pulled off and prevented scoring. Summary:

R. H. E.
C. 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 0 0 3 0 0 0—7 7 5
E. 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 3 0 3 0 0 0—7 9 3

WHITEWATER MASONS

Perhaps the most enjoyable meeting held by any Masonic lodge of the county this year, was that at Whitewater last evening. A large delegation from this city and other lodges in the county attended, swelling the attendance to approximately 200. Alexander Martin and Charles Glunt were made Master Masons. An exceptionally fine banquet was served in Laurel hall. The lodge rooms were too small to accommodate the banqueters.

PULLED OFF QUEER PLAY.

Ty Cobb Figured In Funny Stunt Against Doves Recently.
Playing with the Augusta (Ga.) team against the Boston Nationals recently, Ty Cobb figured in one of the most remarkable plays recorded in the annals of baseball.

Moran of Boston drove a long, low fly between center and left field. Cobb, of Augusta started for it, and Ty Cobb started also. The ball hit on Cobb's outstretched finger tips and bounded into the air.
Cobb stumbled and nearly fell, but Cobb drove forward and knocked the ball into the air with his gloved hand as it fell again, and Cobb, making another reach for the ball, failed to clutch it securely. Cobb again came to the rescue with a dive toward the ground, and he, too, failed to hold the ball a second time.

Cobb threw himself at full length as the ball dropped toward the earth again, and this time caught and held it with his bare hand three inches from the ground. The entire performance occupied nearly a full minute.

Egg frappes, as Price makes them are pleasant and nutritious.

MACK SAYS BASEBALL HAS NOT CHANGED.

Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, knows as much about baseball as any man living and has a speaking acquaintance with every player of note, and he thinks the game has not revolutionized in recent years in any manner except in point of attendance.

"The evolution of the game in the last twenty years is more remarkable in point of patronage than in the way it is played," says Mack.

"There were marvelous players in the old days, and there are marvelous players now. It was a guessing contest between the pitcher and batter in the days of Radbourne and Anson. It is no less a guessing contest in these days of Mullin and Lajoie. It was a battle between the catcher and base runner in the days of Ewing and of Hamilton. It is still a battle in the days of Sullivan and Ty Cobb. The fan who believes there are no Clarksons or Kellys or Stoveys or Fergusons or Fogartys today is just as firmly set in his belief as is the fan who considers Lajoie, Mathewson, Joss, Kling, Cobb and Crawford greater players than were in the game back in the eighties."

HE SCARED WOMEN

William Halsted was arrested last night on North Eighth street on a charge of intoxication. The man frightened several women along that street and caused extreme annoyance to pedestrians by his actions. In the city court this morning he was assessed a fine of $5 and costs and in lieu of payment he went to jail.

The Happy Family Circle.

Father and mother, sisters and brothers, soon get to know one another's intimate affairs, and the little bowel and liver disturbances soon become household comment. It is well to remember that in constipation and indigestion, and other troubles of the stomach, liver and bowels a quick cure can be had by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take it tonight and you will feel perfectly well in the morning. Price only 50 cents and $1 at druggists.

LAWYERS WRANGLE OVER DAMAGE SUIT

A. C. Lindemuth and H. U. Johnson Have a Rather Heated Debate Today.

ACTION ON CAYLOR CASE

JUDGE FOX DENIES PETITION FOR A NEW TRIAL—ATTORNEY GENERAL WRITES HE WILL BE HERE IN JUNE.

A rather heated argument was indulged in the circuit court this morning between Attorney A. C. Lindemuth and Henry U. Johnson, over an issue in the case of Anthony Cuff versus the Drake and Strattan construction company for $1,000 damages for personal injuries. The former attorney and Frank Conner represent the plaintiff while Johnson appears for the defendant.

The court ruled favorably on Johnson's motion that the plaintiff file a bond for the court costs on or before May 23. Unless this is done Johnson threatens to move that the case be dismissed. Lindemuth wanted a longer time. Cuff was injured while working for the defendant company, which is employed on the double tracking of the Pennsylvania system between here and Cambridge City.

Judge Fox overruled a motion of attorneys for John Caylor, who wished a new trial in his case against the Ridgeville state bank, which came to this county from Randolph circuit court on a change of venue. The plaintiff claims that $14,000 is due him on account which he had with the bank. He lost his case in a recent trial in this county. As Caylor's attorney sent his motion in a letter and asked to be advised as to the ruling, it is not known what steps he will take now, but it is intimated that an appeal will be taken to the appellate court.

James Bingham, attorney general of the state, is so pressed for time in his suit to break up the alleged insurance trust in this state, that he cannot attend to any outside business before the middle of June, according to a letter received by Judge Fox today. Mr. Bingham is an attorney for the Cosmopolitan Fire Insurance company and E. M. Campfield of this city has a claim of $3,000 against the company. Campfield and his attorney want the case to be tried. It was filed soon after the adjustment of the loss on the Colonial building experienced by the disastrous fire of 1908.

TWO DIE IN WRECK

(American News Service)
Springfield, Ill., May 20.—Two trainmen are dead and three passengers are believed dying from burns received in a wreck on the McKinley interurban system near Carlinville, Ill., early this morning.

The sleeper, in which the dead and injured were burned, was overturned and caught fire from a crossed electric wire.

AT THE MURRAY.

The appearance of the Asahi troupe shows that the troupe is more than was advertised. The Great Asahi's work was most artistic and mystifying. His human fountain, if not the greatest novelty ever seen in this country, is most humorously mysterious. His wonderful thumb and pole trick is a bit of mysterious art that has seldom been equalled. Perhaps the most wonderful exhibition of equilibristic feats ever seen in vaudeville is that of the Kitamura brothers, their work at the finish being seemingly impossible. In addition to this big act Goforth and Doyle appear in a comedy minstrel, Elythe Stanley is the "piano girl" and Jack Lewis is the German comedian. With this bill is also presented a film of excellent motion pictures.

The Sunrise of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartic pills, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the one great remedy for you to have in the home to give children when they need it.
