

EATON FANS VERY GREATLY AROUSED

Threat to Stop Sunday Baseball Makes Team's Supporters "Wrathy"

POINT TO "BOOTLEGGING"

INFORM REFORMERS THAT THEY HAD BETTER CLEAN UP REAL EVILS AND LET HARMLESS AMUSEMENTS ALONE.

(Palladium Special)

Eaton, O., June 13.—Notwithstanding the plans said to have been made for the arrest of members of the Eaton ball team Sunday afternoon, for violation of the Sunday baseball law, a game was played with the Easy Task team of Dayton, and was devoid of interference by a committee appointed by the Preble county Sunday school association. The reason for the privilege is said to have been because the management of the local team had not been sufficiently warned and because arrangements had all been made and expenses of the game already incurred. Next Sunday, however, arrest of the violators is promised.

Local fans have considered the proposed action in a serious light. To single out Sunday baseball and class it among the more serious law violations seems a fanatical step to the fans. If a "clean-up" in town is to be made local ball enthusiasts believe the initial step of the reformers should be taken in cases where there exists evil of more serious and detrimental nature. As a more serious law violation baseball promoters point out the general practice of "bootlegging" in this "dry" town of Eaton, where the citizens two years ago decided against saloons very emphatically, giving the temperance forces about 1,700 majority.

The game Sunday afternoon was won by the locals by a score of 4 to 3. The contest was the most interesting of the season. Pugh twirled the game for the Eaton team and showed up in a creditable manner for a recruit. The only disappointing feature of the game was theumping of Robert Myers of West Alexandria, who was inconsistent in a degree in his decisions.

DIAMOND CHIPS

It was Walsh who stopped the Highlanders' nine game winning streak. Mullin, who held the Athletics to thirteen straight, Johnson who floored the Detroit at eleven straight and Gaspar who checked the Giants at nine straight.

The Boston Red Sox will have to brace up if they hope to figure in the race. Patsy Donovan's club does not look nearly as strong as a year ago. Boston needs pitchers very badly.

It was announced in Cincinnati that Infelder Thomas McMillan has been purchased from the Brooklyn club by the Cincinnati Nationals for $1,500.

Fred Clarke has shaken up the batting order of the world's champions. Hains Wagner now hits third and Byrne fourth. Clarke himself following Leach or Campbell. The combination worked well in yesterday's game at Boston. This quartet got eight of the Buccaneers' dozen hits.

Capt. Kelley, second baseman of the Notre Dame university team, arranged yesterday to join the Chicago Americans at the close of the school year. He will get $2,700 for playing the balance of the season.

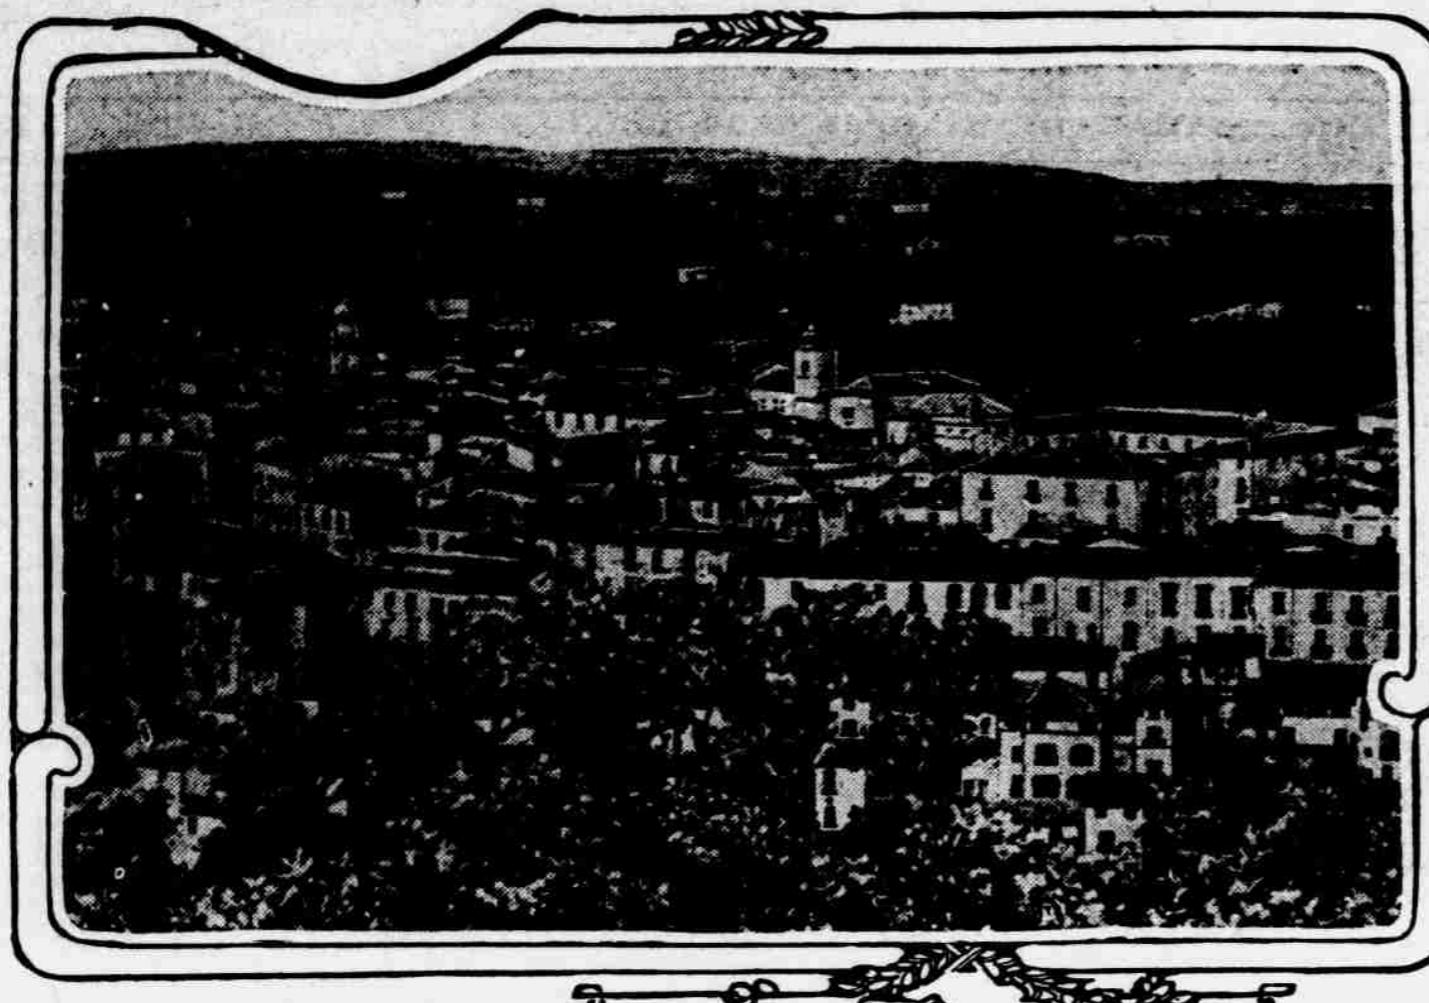

Harry Lumley, the outfielder who managed the Brooklyn team during the season of 1909, has been purchased by the Phillies and will be asked to report at once. Lumley was given his release by Brooklyn when his wife died recently, and he said he desired to take a rest for awhile. With Titus on the injured list, Lumley will come in handy, and when in condition he ought to strengthen the Phillies. Pitcher Pat Flaherty will probably be released to a minor league club today. —Philadelphia Record.

The union labor boycott on American league baseball parks, where Cleveland plays was lifted Tuesday night by an agreement entered into between Ban Johnson, president of the American Baseball league and officials representing the American Federation of Labor and the local unions of Cleveland. The terms of the agreement are that in all American league parks no cigars shall be sold without the union label, and that all printing ordered by the league clubs shall be given to union shops. It is also provided that any stands erected or other structural work taken in hand by the clubs shall be intrusted solely to union labor.

Johnny Evers' reform has taken wings. When the season opened Johnny announced that he would be the real, original human clam. Never he open his mouth to dispute a decision with an umpire; never would be cast a mean glance at the tenth or eleventh man on the field; never would he step on an umpire's toes or think a cross think. Evers' friends said the news was too good to be true. It lasted a few weeks, and last Wednesday Johnny received a message from President Tom Lynch that he would not be allowed to play for three days for having an argument with Umpire Rigler.

STAR'S WIN LONG GAME.

Twelve innings were required yesterday to settle the baseball dispute between the Stars of this city and the fast Dan Smokehouse team of New Castle, the final score being 8 to 7. The visitors were ahead until the ninth, when the Stars tied the score. Again in the eleventh frame, each time scored a run. It remained for Martin, the second baseman, to win the game with a long hit in the twelfth.

GIANTS DEFEAT OHIOANS.

The Richmond Giants had little trouble with the New Madison, Ohio, team yesterday afternoon at Athletic Park and sacked the visitors in a nine-inning contest by a score of 9 to 4. The Giants were strong in the first three innings, making four tallies in the first alone. Again in the eighth two men crossed the plate, further clinching the victory. The batters—Giants: Mitchell, Saines and Benson; New Madison: Kelley and Harter.

SCARED BY AN AUTO

Frightened by the breaking of a "hold-back" strap and the sudden appearance of an automobile, the horse driven by Earl and Jay Stanley, of Liberty, Lester Cope, of Danville, and Karl Mosbaugh of Cambridge City, ran away yesterday afternoon while the young men were on the Liberty pike about eight miles south of here. The animal plunged into a fence, throwing the occupants to the ground and completely demolishing the conveyance. Although painfully bruised, none of the young men experienced serious injury.

TRUANT OFFICER MAKES A REPORT

During Past School Year He Compelled 67 Children to Go to School.

WORK COST COUNTY $397

THERE WERE 346 PAUPER CASES WHERE BOOKS, CLOTHING, ETC. HAD TO BE PURCHASED BY THE TOWNSHIPS.

Much time and money were spent during the past school year in compelling and assisting children to attend schools in this county according to the yearly report of Truant Officer George Bishop which has been forwarded to the secretary of the state board of truancy. The total number who have been compelled to attend school was 67, while the total amount spent in the fifteen townships and in the city for books, clothing, etc., for poor children was $397.84.

During the year, the report shows that sixty-seven children were brought into the schools, sixty-five of whom were compelled to attend the public schools and the other two parochial schools. In securing information about these children and in investigating other rumors of children under sixteen years not attending school, the truant officer made 1,200 visits to homes, stores and shops.

Poverty Prevented.
Often it was found that the children could not attend school owing to the poverty of their parents or guardians. In these cases such assistance as the purchase of books, clothing, shoes and other necessities was given by the township trustee of the township in which the children resided. There were 346 pauper cases.

Officer Bishop spent 174 days in investigating cases and was allowed $348 for his services. He made two presentations, but unsuccessfully, against parents for violations of the compulsory education laws.

The following shows the amount spent by the township trustees and the city of Richmond for books, clothing and the like for the benefit of impoverished pupils: Abington township, nothing; Boston township, 1 pupil, $58; Center township, 3 pupils, $11.00; Clay township, 2 pupils, $17.75; Dalton township, 1 pupil, $1.15; Franklin township, 2 pupils, $2.55; Greene township, 3 pupils, $8; Harrison township, nothing; Jackson township, 3 pupils, $11.81; Jefferson township, 6 pupils, $22.50; New Garden township, 3 pupils, $3.27; Perry township, 1 pupil, $1; Washington township, 2 pupils, $5; Wayne township, 14 pupils, $34.16; Webster township, 2 pupils, $1.15; City of Richmond, 302 pupils, $240.41.

CURED OF LOCKJAW

Magnesium Sulphate Injections Into Spine Stopped the Disease.

TREATMENT WAS NEW ONE

Philadelphia, June 12.—Cured of lockjaw by a new treatment used for the first time in this city, twelve-year-old John Smith, of 433 North Felton street, was discharged from the West Philadelphia Homeopathic hospital yesterday. He was in the hospital eight weeks, and when first admitted it was thought he could not live more than a few hours.

The treatment used in effecting the cure was first advocated by a German physician several months ago. It has been successfully used in cases in New York and Baltimore. It consists of injections of magnesium sulphate in conjunction with the anti-toxin treatment.

These injections are made into the spinal column, where the fluid reaches the nerve center, relieving the violent spasms which usually cause death. In the case of the Smith boy, forty drops of magnesium sulphate were injected at a time.

Case Attracts Attention.
Doctors all over the state have watched the progress of the case with interest. It is probable that the treatment will now be adopted in lockjaw cases by all the hospitals in city and state.

Poverty Prevented.
Often it was found that the children could not attend school owing to the poverty of their parents or guardians. In these cases such assistance as the purchase of books, clothing, shoes and other necessities was given by the township trustee of the township in which the children resided. There were 346 pauper cases.

Officer Bishop spent 174 days in investigating cases and was allowed $348 for his services. He made two presentations, but unsuccessfully, against parents for violations of the compulsory education laws.

"Mr. Duke's money had no weight in my decision to marry him," said the bride, "and particularly with my dressmaking course." The Duke newly wed spent Sunday quietly receiving the congratulations of their friends at the Abbott house.

It was the earnest desire of the bride to entertain his wife at a wedding feed at the New Willard, but a battery of snap shooters camped outside the Abbott house all day and Duke absolutely refused to put his wife in the line of fire.

Once he was lured outside the hotel just long enough to enable the battery to snap him. He laughingly fled when he discovered the deception that had been played on him.

The future movements of the Dukes are very uncertain. Apparently they fear yet some action may be taken on the part of the Duke family to mar their newly acquired happiness.

"Mr. Duke's money had no weight in my decision to marry him," said the bride. "I love him. I think he is a very fascinating man. If he were to lose all his money tomorrow I would still be fond of him and watch over him and take care of him when ill. He is not at all strong and needs a good deal of petting."

"I do not know whether we shall go back to Durham to live on Mr. Duke's estate, as Mr. Duke's people do not approve of our marriage in which case it would be better for us to live elsewhere. I think that Washington is a beautiful city and I prefer the social life. We take a large house here and entertain next winter quite a little. Mr.
