

HOOSIER DRIVEN OUT OF SERVICE

J. F. Stutesman Compelled to Resign as U. S. Minister to Bolivia.

HAD MADE A GOOD RECORD

WHEN CARPENTER WAS SENT TO MOROCCO, MAN HE SUCCEEDED WAS GIVEN BOLIVIAN JOB TO PACIFY LODGE.

(American News Service)
Washington, June 16.—James F. Stutesman, of Peru, personally handed in his resignation as minister to Bolivia today. His action caused a great surprise in the Indiana colony here. Stutesman was reticent and made no explanation but it is rumored he was forced out.
Stutesman was wired from the state department to come to Washington a few days ago. It is believed that he was practically forced out by President Taft to meet the exigencies of caring for the president's former secretary, Fred Carpenter. In order to send Carpenter as minister to Morocco it became necessary to force out Percival Dodge of Massachusetts. Senator Lodge "screamed" because of this diplomatic outrage and Dodge and his sponsor, the Massachusetts senator, were promised "something equally as good," which proved to be Stutesman's job in Bolivia.
Stutesman was appointed on the recommendation of Charles B. Landis while the latter was in congress. Stutesman is said to have made good as a diplomat.

DIAMOND CHIPS

Washington is bound to get a fine ball team if hustling will do it. The club has four scouts on the road and is paying big prices for the men wanted.—Boston Globe.

Pat Donohue, secured from the Boston team, played in his first game for the Athletics recently. Donohue relieved Lapp and will alternate behind the bat with the youngster until Thomas and Livingstone return.

Chase is the veteran in point of service on the New York American team, and yet he is under thirty and this is only his sixth season with the Highlanders.

Detroit concedes that Russell Ford is a great pitcher, but doubt is expressed there whether he lasts the year out, the way he exerts his arm in throwing the spitter.

Manager Stallings of the Highlanders is undecided on his regular shortstop. Foster, Roach and Knight are fighting for the position. Knight played in yesterday's game.

Victim of the Milan Murder Mystery

A new picture of Mrs. Porter Charlton, the American woman, whose body was recently found in a trunk in Lake Como, Italy, by several fishermen. The police have arrested Constantine Isopoltoff, a Russian, and have put him through a severe grilling, they have been unable to learn anything from him. The Russian was frequently seen in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Charlton. Porter Charlton is missing and it is feared that he too has been murdered.

ents in the last four games, and no runs for Chicago in the last three. Only twenty hits have been made by opponents in the last four games.—New York Sun.

Bonesetter Reese broke a resolution not to treat any more ball players and fixed up Overall's arm. "He fixed me up and told me not to tell any one about it," says Overall. Overall didn't tell anybody, so nobody knows about it.

"Keep your eye on the Boston Americans," says Jack Dunn. "They are a great team, and I am surprised every time they lose." Here in New York we are not surprised every time the Giants or Highlanders lose, but we are pained.—New York Sun.

Seven straight for Ford his first year as a major leaguer. Mathewson won seven straight for the Giants the year of his first success, Patsy Donovan's St. Louis team stopping him.

The Pittsburg club has had enough first basemen in recent years to put a whole nine in the field—Beckley, Harry Davis, Bransfield, Gill, Swacina, Kane, Abstein, Sharpe and Flynn.

Twice in succession—in Philadelphia, then New York—Beaumont came to bat as pinch man and each time he delivered a single. His clout also helped turn defeat into victory each time.

In seventeen American league games last week there was a total of 227 hits, an average of 13 6-17 hits a game. In a like number of National league battles there was a total of 271 hits, an average of 15 15-17 hits a game. Not much pitchers' domination in that.

PRESENT A MOTION

In all the testimony presented by witnesses for Charles Vinton, the attorneys for the Dayton and Western Traction company averred that nothing had been shown which would indicate negligence on the part of the defendant and a motion to instruct the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant was presented this morning to Judge Fox. The court postponed the trial until this afternoon, at which time he will rule on the motion. The defendant asks for $1,800 damages for personal injuries, caused by the breaking of a trolley wire while he was motorman for the defendant company.

The case was started before the petit jury of the circuit court yesterday. Attorneys Conner and Lindemuth are representing Vinton, while John F. Robbins is acting as counsel for the railway company.

Henry's Sufferings.
In fifty-four years of his life—he was born in 1849—W. E. Henry never knew what a day's perfect health meant. When little more than a boy he was attacked by a disease which necessitated the amputation of one foot. He was told later by the doctors that the sacrifice of the other leg was necessary were he to live. The fame of Dr. Lister had reached Henry, and, penniless and almost friendless, he determined to try Edinburgh, Scotland. Thither he traveled, third class in physical suffering such as few have known, and when he reached the infirmary his whole possessions amounted to a few shillings. His confidence in Lister was justified, and his leg was saved. He was and remained a cripple, but neither hopeless nor helpless. His astounding blindness under these conditions suggested to Robert Louis Stevenson the physical sketch of John Silver.

LAUGHLIN CALLS TAFT A FAILURE

Chicago University Professor Critiques in Drake University Speech.

HE LAUDS COL. ROOSEVELT

HE ASSERTS THAT THE PRESI-DENT IS WEAK IN MORAL COUR-AGE—TAFT IS INFLUENCED BY
"THE INTERESTS."

Des Moines, Ia., June 16.—President Taft was held up as a failure before the graduating class of Drake university yesterday by Prof. J. Lawrence Laughlin of the university of Chicago who delivered the commencement address. He is head professor of political economy at the Midway institution.

The address, the subject of which was "Leadership," was a criticism of the president and his administration, and the graduating class was told to steer clear of men in whom such great trust had been placed, but who failed in their stewardship.

Former President Roosevelt was lauded as the real leader and held up as an example. Prof. Laughlin contrasted the lives and administrations of the two presidents, declaring that the one was a tremendous success, while the other was a big failure.

"Well Intentioned Failure."
"A tolerant, weak, well-intentioned failure" was the description of President Taft given by the Chicago professor. He had the greatest opportunity for leadership, Mr. Laughlin said, of any president who had entered the White House, but had failed through want of moral courage.

The "interests" were frequently referred to throughout the address of Prof. Laughlin, and their influence on President Taft, he said, was the cause of the failure of his administration. Contrasting Roosevelt and Taft, Prof. Laughlin said:

"On the one hand is the man who won the hearts of the people by taking them into his confidence, by standing out strongly against selfish and corrupting interests, and by aligning himself with the people on all questions. He had the wisdom to find out what the people wanted, and the moral strength to carry out their wishes. Special interests had no voice in his administration.

Sees Sharp Contrast.
"On the other hand is a man who stands out in sharp contrast. Possibly no greater opportunity for leadership ever confronted one man, but this one failed to grasp it. He failed to seize the opportunity to become the leader of a nation, an opportunity which he never will have again. "He is weak in moral courage and listens to the voices of the selfish interests. He is a tolerable, weak, well intentioned failure. When he entered upon the office he did so while a public waited anxious and eager to accept him as leader. But he failed to respond to them."

A UNION MEETING

The Christian Endeavor association of the city will hold a union meeting on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First English Lutheran church. Miss Ellen Knollenberg will have charge of the program, which will include a review of the convention at Fountain City, recently.

LANDS FIVE MILES AWAY

YOUTH LEAPS WHEN LACK OF GAS SENDS CRAFT NEAR THE GROUND—CAPT. BALDWIN FELL FROM AIRSHIP.

Chillicothe, O., June 16.—A dirigible balloon belonging to Cromwell Dixon of Columbus, O., broke from its moorings and soared half a mile above this city yesterday, carrying with it Freddy Meyers, 10 years old, while thousands of horrified spectators looked on helplessly to aid him.

The balloon drifted five miles to the westward, when the hydrogen gas became exhausted and it came slowly toward the earth. The boy had crawled out to the extreme end of the framework opposite to that on which the engine is situated and when within ten feet of the ground dropped safely.

The balloon arose when relieved of the weight and soared to a great height and disappeared.

One of the guy ropes holding the balloon broke while the lad was on the rigging. The wind was high and in swinging around the balloon broke the other ropes, and the balloon ascended before the boy could jump.

Automobiles starting in pursuit of the wild air craft, found the lad wandering toward the city. They picked him up and rushed him to his mother, who was almost frantic after hearing of the news that her boy had been carried away. The boy said his first impulse was to jump, but by the time

BALDWIN FALLS OUT.

New York, June 16.—Capt. Baldwin fell with his aeroplanes seventy-five feet while he was practicing yesterday at Mineola, L. I., but though his machine was smashed, he was not injured.

Baldwin had just started and was making a turn when he either lost control of his engine or shut off the power too soon. At any rate, the aeroplane dipped and started for the earth. He tried to right it so that he could glide down, but could not. The aviator fell out, but without enough force to hurt himself.

Mayer Zimmerman was absent from police court this morning and Justice of the Peace Luther C. Abbott presided in his stead as special judge.
