

ALL ROADS LEAD TO SAGAMORE HILL

Politicians the Country Over Want Roosevelt to Help Them Out.

NO CONFERENCES TODAY

THE EX-PRESIDENT SPENDS TIME ATTENDING TO HUNDREDS OF PERSONAL LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS.

Oyster Bay, July 8.—Theodore Roosevelt is spending today free from political conferences. It is not sure that anyone will call on the ex-president tomorrow, although there is a hint that insurgent senators, Dilliver and Cummins, of Iowa, may appear at the Hill. The two progressive senators have delayed their proposed visit for some unexplained reason but Col. Roosevelt has not given them up as lost.

Col. Roosevelt got up at 8:30 o'clock this morning and after breakfast delved into a pile of telegrams and letters that had accumulated during the past few days. There were some 1,000 letters from all over the country, all bearing, it is said, upon politics. Since the Colonel has shown that he is to take an active, leading part in political affairs the country over, all sorts of frantic appeals have come to him for help.

The insurgents all hope to have him fight their battles for them. From New York to the western coast the Colonel is getting letters from progressives asking that he come out with an endorsement in their various campaigns. The regulars, at the same time, disturbed lest the Colonel be too much swayed by insurgent cries, are sending word urging that he hold off until he has got the sentiment of both sides of the factional fights in the states.

ANNA HELD LONESOME

Pretty French Actress Wants a Nice Man to Drive Away Blues.

WON'T SOMEONE APPLY?

New York, July 8.—Anna Held is lonesome. She is spending her vacation in Paris and says she is tired of the cloistered life of a grass widow. Mogens Ziegfeld, the theatrical manager, who is the husband of the pliant French actress, persists in staying in New York and his pretty spouse says she don't like it. In a cable from Paris this week, she gave him notice that she would submit to her isolation but a short time longer and that if he did not join her he would have to take the consequences. Anna was always of an independent disposition, but now that she has accumulated a private fortune from the American stage, estimated at half a million, she feels more able than ever to finance her own board bills and such incidental expenses as may be necessary to maintain her position as a prima donna. She suspects that she has lost some of her influence over Ziegfeld and frankly confesses it. If another woman has superseded her in his esteem, the little songbird vows she will tear her eyes out. Maybe she will.

Bad Stomach

My Stomach is Going from Bad to Worse.

Yes, it's true: thousands of people cannot eat the simplest meal without having it lie on the stomach like a lump of lead, causing misery, sour stomach and gas eruptions. And later, when the stomach has gone from bad to worse, there will be longer periods of food fermentation, and then dizziness, biliousness, sick headaches and nervousness. If your stomach is out of order, if it doesn't feel right after meals, go today and get a 50 cent box of Mi-na stomach tablets. In a few minutes after the first dose, the misery will disappear, and you will be thankful.

These go right on taking Mi-na for a few days. It will build up the stomach, unclog the liver, purify the bowels and make you entirely satisfied with your stomach in a few days.

Mi-na stomach tablets are made from the best prescription for stomach troubles ever written. They are sold by druggists everywhere and by L. H. Feltman, who are guaranteed to cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or money back.

Both's Pills are best for torpid liver and constipation. 25 cents.

BRADLEY ROMANCE ENDS IN DIVORCE

Runaway Marriage of Sixteen-Year-Old Boy Has Its Sequel Today.

HIS WIFE KIDNAPPED HIM

YOUNGSTER DECLARES THE GIRL, WHO WAS OLDER, JUST DRAGGED HIM DOWN TO KENTUCKY TO HAVE THE KNOT TIED.

The romance of Cora E. Bradley, nee Taylor, and Everett D. Bradley, which began with the kidnapping of the groom in the summer of 1908, had its ending in the circuit court this morning, the marriage being annulled by Judge Fox on petition of the wife. It is alleged that the woman, who is 23 years old, compelled her husband who is but 18, to marry her at Newport, Ky.

According to Bradley's story, all arrangements for the marriage were made by the wife. Bradley's parents were opposed because the strenuous marital relations of the two were constantly bringing them all before the public eye. A street fight in Boston between the Bradleys and the Taylors was one of the many disorders with which the household was afflicted.

In December, 1909, the boy's parents filed suit for the annulment of the marriage but the charge was not pressed, chiefly because their son returned home at that time. The next step was made by Cora, who filed suit for divorce. With the granting of the divorce this morning, the suit by Bradley's parents was dismissed. The court also acted favorably on the petition of the wife to restore her maiden name.

FIGHT FILMS ARRIVE

New York, July 8.—President Rock, of the Vitaphone Co., arrived today on a special train with the motion pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries prize fight. They will be ready for exhibition in a week from Monday and Rock says they will be exhibited only at such places where no objection is offered until the courts have decided regarding other cities in response to the suits which will be pushed in a friendly way to secure the rights under the existing laws.

70,000 CEASE WORK

Cloakmaking Industry in New York and Vicinity Completely Tied Up.

THE STRIKE MAY EXTEND

New York, July 8.—With the cloakmaking business in this city completely tied up by the strike of 70,000 men and women members of the Garment Makers' Union, plans were made today for extending it throughout the country unless the peace efforts now being made succeed. Fully 100,000 more will be ordered out if the national strike is called, involving members of all large cities. The strike already is the largest in a single trade ever known in New York.

Believing that there was a strong possibility of settling the trouble without delay, the directors of the employers organization today called a special meeting to consider ways and means of peace.

It was declared by some of the employers that by tomorrow 10,000 of the strikers will have returned to their jobs.

On the other hand, the leaders of the strikers declared that they were prepared for a long siege. When the New York men and women walked out there was in the coffers of the union $10,000. Besides this the members throughout the country remaining at work were immediately assessed—the men $1 and the women 50 cents. This, it was declared today, will be repeated when necessary as long as the strike lasts. If all go out, affiliated workers would have to be depended upon, should the funds run short.

"We are going to win," said Abraham Rosenberg, president of the union. "There has been some talk of the manufacturers deciding to have their work done outside of the city. Such a move would inevitably result in a general strike throughout the country."

"When we went out, 44,000 employees of the 1,350 factories in Greater New York belonged to the union; the others joining the strike did not hold membership cards. The work of recruiting them is proceeding fast, however. When we go back, every worker will belong to the union."

AEROPLANES IN RACE

Atlantic City, July 8.—Five thousand spectators were thrilled today by a daring aerial race between Glenn Curtiss in his own aeroplane, and Walter Brookings, of Dayton, in a Wright machine. Curtiss outdistanced Brookings easily, the crowds on the board walk and beach cheering wildly. Curtiss flew a mile out over the ocean and returned. The machines raced one hundred and fifty feet above each other.

Champion Jack Johnson Says He Refused to "Lay Down" to Jeffries.

FORTUNE WAS AT STAKE

Chicago, July 8.—The real truth of the split between Jack Johnson, conqueror of Jeffries and George Little, his erstwhile manager, is out. Johnson says Little told him there would be $100,000 for him if he (Johnson) "laid down" to the undefeated white champion inside of eight rounds. This, Johnson says, was Little's first proposition, made about a week before their final break. In the second discussion of the plan to hippodrome the "fight of the century," a day later, Johnson says Little suggested an added inducement in the following language:

"Don't you see, Jack, the pictures will be worth $100,000,000 more if Jeffries wins? Get wise."

"I laughed at him," said Johnson. "I thought he was merely feeling me out."

"The second time he approached me, I said: 'See here, George Little, there isn't enough money in the world to make me throw this fight. I think I can whip this man the best day he ever saw, and beside, I have too many friends who believe in me and will bet their money to lay down.'"

"Do you believe Jeffries knew anything about this proposed 'frame up'?" Johnson was asked. "No, I am sure he did not, because Little went to Jeffries at one time and wanted him to agree to an even split of the $101,000 purse and he refused. He insisted on the winner receiving 75 per cent and the loser 25 per cent. Later, as you know, he agreed reluctantly, however, to a sixty and forty per cent division."

"Little's proposal then, was the real cause of your dismissing him as your manager?" Johnson was asked. "I had been suspicious of him for some time. I don't know who was behind him. Little didn't tell me who had the $100,000. I know this much—the picture men have always been on the square with me and Mr. Rock told me he would just as soon see me win as to see Jeffries win."

Little is on his way home from San Francisco and could not be reached today.

WALTER PAULUS ILL

Assistant fire chief Walter Paulus is critically ill at his home on North A street and is not expected to survive the day. He was taken ill on Monday with brain fever and his condition has grown worse since.

Nashville, Tenn., July 8.—Conductor Sid Knight and Fireman Lindsey were killed and Engineer Stephens was seriously injured when a freight train on the Tennessee Central was wrecked by colliding with a huge rock on track near Algood, at midnight.

600 ELKS STRANDED

Detroit, Mich., July 8.—A wireless received at one o'clock this afternoon says the steamer "Eastern States," with six hundred Elks aboard bound from Buffalo to the Detroit convention, is disabled on Lake Erie, off Long Point. It is attempting to make port under low-pressure steam.
