(Palladium Special)
Indianapolis, July 19.—The republican state committee will issue within a few days a campaign book which will contain material for the speakers and workers in Indiana during the coming state campaign. Much time and care has been spent in the preparation of the book, which is largely the handiwork of John Hays, the secretary of the state committee, and it is said that it will be the most complete book of its kind ever issued by any committee in Indiana. It will give all information possible to put between its covers, including the state platform, the record of the party in Indiana on important matters, a list of congressional and legislative nominees, the vote by counties at the election two years ago and many arguments for the use of the speakers.

such book this year, it is said. In fact it has not been the policy of the democrats to issue a campaign book in Indiana. But they will conduct a very active campaign.

For Short Campaign.

There seems to be a disposition just now to make the campaign short and sharp instead of long drawn out. John Hays, secretary of the republican state committee, said yesterday that the activities of the campaign would probably be confined to a few weeks preceding the election in November, and the democrats are talking in the same way. From present indications it looks like the real campaign will not begin much before the 20th of September. It is said that John W. Kern and Senator Beveridge will not return home from their vacations before about the second week in September and of course the campaign cannot open without them. Senator Beveridge will of course make the keynote speech for the republicans, but the place for his speech has not been selected. Whether Governor Marshall or Mr. Kern will make the opening speech for the democrats is not known, as these two men are to be the headliners for their party during the campaign. Senator Shively also will make many speeches in the state, but it is said that his efforts will be directed largely to helping those members of the legislature who voted for him for senator and who have been renominated.

Some Interesting News.

An interesting bit of news comes from Washington, arriving yesterday, to the effect that Speaker Cannon, James E. Watson and James A. Hemenway of Indiana, and Congressman McKinley of Illinois, are to be guests of Toke Hert, former superintendent of the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville during the month of August at his cottage at Mackinac. The story says that Speaker Cannon has promised to stay all month, and that the others will stay nearly as long. They will talk politics, of course, and it is said that they will decide whether to join in a party to kill the insurgent movement with one hard battle or help to elect republican candidates for congress, regardless of whether they are insurgents or standpatters. A list of the congressional districts to be visited by Cannon and Watson during the campaign will be made up.

Both parties have this year abandoned the idea of taking a six months poll of the state, because, they say, it does not pay. A six months poll does not indicate what the situation will be on election day. They say it is a waste of money to take a six months poll. Great care is to be taken this year, however, in the taking of sixty day poll and the thirty day poll because these polls amount to something.

That Option Law.

The anti-saloon league officials are of the opinion that party lines are going to rest lightly on the voters this year, when it comes to voting on the question of whether the county option law shall be saved or repealed. R. C. Minton, the attorney for the league and also the legislative manager says he has been out in the state much of the time lately and that people tell him they are going to vote to save that law no matter whom they are required to vote for to do this.

"I believe the people are as much, if not more, interested in the county option question than in anything else, and this being the case they will not pay much attention to party lines," he said. An amusing situation has developed between the anti-saloon league and the brewers' association. Both sides started some time ago to send out great quantities of literature to voters over the state. Each side seemed to be trying to outdo each other in the amount of stuff sent out. The brewers got a little ahead of the anti-saloon league, because they had more money to spend and could hire a larger force of assistants. The brewers developed a daily bulletin service, mailing thousands of pieces of mail matter each day.

It was up to the anti-saloon league to do something to hold its own, so it bought a multigraph, operated it by hand, with which it could make 600 copies an hour of any piece of literature which it wished to send out. This led the brewers by several lengths, and for a few days the anti-saloon league had the lead.

Brewers Hit Hard.

But the brewers came to bat strong in the next inning. They went out and bought a fine multigraph which is operated by electricity and which is capable of producing 5,000 copies an hour as against the league's 500 copies. Thus the anti-saloon people were outclassed by the sheer use of money. The brewers' machine cost $500, while the league's machine cost only $100. Now the anti-saloon people are talking about raising enough money to enable them to buy an electric attachment to their machine, so they can again catch up with the brewers. They haven't made it yet.

George Williamson of Knightstown, republican nominee for representative from Henry county was in the city yesterday and called at the republican state headquarters. He is very optimistic about the republican prospects in the Sixth congressional district. He believes the conditions are such that the republicans will easily win at the election. He is sanguine as to his own election, for Henry county is a strong republican county.

Farmers Are Satisfied.

"The farmers are pretty well satisfied with present conditions," he said, "and they can be counted on to vote their party ticket this year. They do not see any reason for making any change of any kind at this time. I see the democrats are trying to make much out of the high cost of living, but the farmers are not complaining on that score. Once in a while you hear a man say something of that kind but it is not often. I am in the dry goods and clothing business at Knightstown, and a few days ago a farmer came in with his little son and fitted him out with a new suit and outfit of clothes. He was complaining about the high cost of everything. I said to him: 'Now, see here, you are a good democrat, aren't you?' He said he was. 'Well, now, how old were you before you got as nice a suit and outfit as you have just bought for your son?' 'Why, Mr. Williamson, I never had such a nice suit of clothes until I was twenty-one years old,' the fellow answered. Now, that shows present conditions. People live better, and buy better goods now than they used to buy. They have more money than ever before and they spend more money than they ever did. I tell you, the whole country is prosperous from one end to the other, and as long as the people are prosperous they are not going to vote for a change."

One of the organization tasks that confronts both parties this year is the problem of organizing the foreign voters of Lake and St. Joseph counties. Two years ago the republicans were able to get the best of the foreigners in those two counties, because it was presidential year and the organizations had plenty of resources with which to naturalize thousands of the foreigners. And the result was shown at the election. This year, however, there has been some fear that it might be more difficult to naturalize the foreigners because of the fact that this year the campaign is a state fight instead of a national one. However, both sides are going after the foreign vote in those two counties, and it will be a race between for the most of it.

MINISTER WAS COOL

Threats of Crowd on Pastor
Who Abducted Little Girl, Fruitless.

SCENE IN A COURT ROOM

Schenectady, N. Y., July 19.—When Rev. Clinton Dewitt Sharpe, the abductor of pretty fourteen-year-old Eunice Whittaker, of South Schenectady, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Siegel shouts of "Tar and feather him!" "Horsewhip him!" and "Lynch him!" came from the spectators.

The pastor appeared unconcerned when he beheld the angry mob, father of the abducted girl.

"Have you engaged counsel?" was the first question asked.

"No, sir; it is not necessary. I intend to fight my own battles," was the quick reply of the minister.

The charge was then read, and Sharpe answered "Not guilty," and he waived examination.

Eunice Whittaker pleaded guilty to the charge of being a disorderly child and was turned over to the care of the humane society until after Sharpe's trial, in order that she might be used as a witness. After that she will be sent to the house of correction.

Since the father and grandfather of the abducted girl have both made public threats that they would kill Sharpe on sight, Sheriff Hathaway ordered both carefully searched before they were allowed in the court room.

MUST PAY ALIMONY

New York, July 19.—Broughton Brandenburg, magazine writer, formerly of Dayton, O., who is awaiting examination on the charge of passing a worthless check for $50, on the complaint of Hugh Logan, Jr., was arraigned before Magistrate Herbert in the Yorkville court, on a charge of abandonment made his wife, Valine Brandenburg of No. 1380 Broadway.

After an examination in which Brandenburg acted as his own lawyer, cross-examining his wife for about one hour, the magistrate ordered him to pay his wife $5 a week and to furnish bond as a guarantee of the payments in default of which he was to go to Blackwell's Island for six months. Brandenburg failed to produce a bondsman and was held.

Mrs. Brandenburg said that $5 would not pay for the drinks he buys for his affinity.

His Money Saving Plan.

"Speaking of plans for saving money," remarked a Jersey commuter, "I invented one last week that's increasing my surplus revenue considerably already, and without any effort."

"Burying it out in the yard?" a skeptical friend queried.

"Nothing so foolish. You see, my wife has that unfortunate habit of going through her husband's trousers pocket while he's abed and extracting whatever coin he may contain. One night when I was down in the kitchen closing up the house I found a defunct mouse in the trap."

"Well?"

"Well, I put it in my trousers pocket just before I got into bed."—New York Globe.

TO HOLD CONGRESS

(American News Service)
San Antonio, Tex., July 18.—For the purpose of making final arrangements for the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress which is to convene in this city on November 21, Fred W. Fleming, chairman of the executive committee of that body, will open headquarters here on August 15. It is expected that this year's meeting of the congress will be one of the most important yet held and that many questions of national and international importance will be dealt with. Among the subjects to be gone into will be conservation and the tariff as affecting the Trans-Mississippi states. In point of view of attendance the Twenty-first annual meeting of the organization will be of extraordinary interest. Invitations have already been accepted by practically every important personage in the country and by many prominent foreigners, especially Latin Americans. President Taft, Secretary of State Knox and many other department heads and the governors of at least thirty-five states will attend. An effort is now being made to get Mr. Roosevelt to be present. Although too early to predict this with any degree of certainty the impression prevails that conservation will be the principal topic to be treated and it is quite possible that a more definite policy in regard to this will come into being as the result of the San Antonio congress. A definite program will be mapped out as soon as Col. Fleming and Col. Ike T. Pryor, president of the congress, can come together in this city.

HOT-WEATHER DYSPEPSIA

It is a well known fact that it is harder to digest cold food than warm food, and as most of the food eaten in hot weather is iced, a great amount of digestive suffering results. It is well to be careful about what you eat in hot weather, and not to over-eat, but it is more important still if you are suffering from indigestion to have it cured promptly. It is hard enough at best to bear up under terrible heat, but when the stomach is loaded with food it cannot digest and the bowels are clogged with decaying matter, the whole system becomes congested. You become subject to headaches, colds, fever, constipation and a dozen and one ailments that make life a burden. Take a few doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you will find immediate relief and in a short time a permanent cure. It will cleanse the stomach and bowels and give your system a new start. Appetite, good spirit, sound sleep and energy will soon return and your dyspepsia will have vanished. The cost is only 50 cents or $1.00 a bottle, and there is sufficient for you and your family. Mob-Coddling by Congressmen

A measure to protect the people was butchered by cowardly Congressmen and saved by a brave President to whom honor is due for his protection. $200,000.00 now to be appropriated for use by the Dept. of Justice in prosecuting offenders under the Sherman Anti-Trust law, which is intended to protect men at work, whether they be working with hands, heads, or both.

Protect them from "combinations and conspiracies in restraint of trade." That means combinations of men who conspire to prevent other men from earning a living.

Two or three large oil companies might "combine and conspire" to freeze out a small dealer.

He has a right to conduct a business and earn a living for his family and should have protection from "combinations" which "conspire" to ruin him.

It also applies to "combinations" of workmen who "conspire" to drive other workmen from work.

The great "Labor Trust" has been seized by certain men who now have control.

They force every member to pay fees, which aggregate several hundred thousand dollars a year.

They intend that no men who refuse to pay fees to them shall work.

Whenever independent men or those who form their own union seek to work, the big trust orders strikes to work, to force the independent men, or independent union men out of work until they join the big trust and pay fees to the leaders.

One illustration will suffice: On June 22nd, 1910, the N. Y. Building Trades Council (part of the Labor Trust) declared a strike of all trades on a 12-story building at 35th and 6th Ave., because of the employment of members of an electrical union, not members of the trust. Work on the entire building was stopped.

The Sec'y of the "trust" said that general strikes would be ordered on every building where the "obnoxious electricians" are employed.

These electricians belong to a union formed under the arbitration plan some time ago and kept their jobs. The employers afterward contracted, under pressure with the big trust and were told to do or did order independent union to join the Labor Trust. The men refused because they did not like the trust methods of coercion, bullying, slugging and general violence.

This is only one illustration of hundreds of cases where the trust "conspires in restraint of trade."

That is, by combination they conspire to and do stop work, interfere with industry, and prevent men from earning a living unless they pay fees to the trust leaders.

There is perhaps never one single day in a year, but what the Labor Trust is engaged somewhere in America in "restraining trade," preventing men from working and stopping the flow of industry. No trust in this country breaks the law one-tenth as many times, or takes the bread from men's mouths as frequently as the Labor Trust.

No trust has ever "restrained" such volumes of work or stopped the payment of so much money.

No trust has maligned and killed so many men or blown up and destroyed so much property and yet the attorney general has been held back from prosecutions for some unexplained reason. What does a workman care about the prosecution of the oil trust when the big labor trust keeps him out of work every now and then.

Suppose you write Pres. Taft and ask why the Atty Gen'l does not prosecute the people against the biggest and most hurtful trust we have.

The authorities forget there are about thirty million workers in this country and only about 1,700,000 members of the Labor Trust and that most of them are coerced into membership.

How can the authorities answer to the vast army of 28 million free workers, farmers and householders whose affairs are from time to time interfered with and who have to bear the loss of wages, and the general heavy loss of stopped industries brought about by the leaders of the Labor Trust in their manipulation of men seeking to drive them into fee-paying slavery?

The 28,000,000 workers, not members of the trust, object to being driven from work, or having R. R. trains stopped with all the far-reaching losses, or the street cars stopped and men and women prevented from getting to and from work, or factories struck and perhaps destroyed, the weekly pay roll stopped and the sustenance of at least part and perhaps all of a community withdrawn.

The great Philadelphia street car strike was forced by the big Labor Trust, not on account of wages and hours, but to throw out about 4,000 men who had their own union a peaceable one.

These men did not want to pay fees to the trust leaders and be subject to their whims so they formed their own union for self protection. Thereupon the big trust called a strike, blew up and burned cars, attacked and slaughtered men, kept people from getting to and from work, forced their other slaves to quit work and cost the people of Phil. several million dollars and untold suffering and inconvenience solely for the purpose of "showing" them the power of the Labor Trust to "force" people to "mind" and force these independent men to join the trust, "obey" and pay fees to the leaders.

That is a serious state of affairs in this free country and is enough to awaken every American to the necessity of curbing such men in their insane race for notoriety, power and fee-gathering.

Citizens want industry, commerce and wages to continue without interference from any set of men either employers or employees who seek selfish gain to themselves alone, without regard to how much all the people outside the trust may be inconvenienced and damaged.

The trust leaders, to make stronger their control of members, fight valiantly to be allowed to boycott and conspire to ruin all free citizens either employers or workmen who do not pay fees to the trust leaders.

Therefore when this $200,000.00 appropriation bill came up they deluged Congress with demands to exempt combinations of labor from prosecution if they broke the law and startling as it may seem, over a hundred Congressmen voted to exempt them.

One of these, the Nat'l Trades and Workers Ass'n with headquarters at Battle Creek, Mich., recently offered Ex-Pres. Roosevelt its Presidency.

The Ass'n hadn't means enough to pay a suitable salary for his great ability and moral worth.

I became so strongly impressed with the honesty of purpose and progressive principles of this labor organization that I considered it worth while offering him $100,000.00 a year if he would accept.

This organization takes in many of the best skilled workers in various crafts. They are pledged to no strike, no boycott, picketing, coercion or violence of any kind. They present their cause peacefully and with dignity.

The great mass of citizens who are to be tyrannized over have no organization to warn them to notify Congressmen of their wishes and so the heavy fire comes from but one side

(the Labor Trust side) and thus impresses the members of Congress with the belief that the whole mass of laboring men are crying for exemption from punishment for law breaking.

In this particular case the President induced Congress to reconsider the vote and protect the masses from the proposed tyranny.

Don't forget the issue.

The Labor Trust leaders called for exemption from prosecution when they break the law of conspiracy and they thus sought to be free to drive millions of free workmen into idleness.

These freemen will not soon forget the effort of their representatives in Congress to force them into the iron slavery of the big Labor Trust which seeks to dictate first, monthly fees, then, when and where they can work, for whom, or what wages and how long.

That kind of "hand tying" is not relished by millions of free men or by thousands of "tied" men now forced into membership in order to get jobs and not be slugged yet they are ordered on strike from time to time and made to boycott, picket and act as law breakers at the behest of the leaders fighting to hold power over them.

"How can the citizen and free man protect himself?"

Write to your Congressman and Senator. (Address them at home now.) Say "Whenever any measure comes up presented by the Labor Trust leaders and intended to give them more power over us, and restrict our liberties, please protect us by voting it down; analyze each measure carefully and vote only for laws intended to protect the great majority of your constituents from their freedom, uncontrolled by any set of men either of capital or labor. It is dangerous to give any combination privilege or power to dictate to other citizens. We will support you if you protect us, but we must put in a representative who will defend the majority of the people if you refuse." Write him and write him now.

Don't sit in silence and permit your liberties to be taken from you because the big Labor Trust supported by fees stirs its local managers to continued activity, while the plain every day citizen says nothing, having no organization.

Experience in the past has shown that the great big factor known as the "common man" may not be so quick as local Labor Trust leaders to write his Congressman for protection, yet he reads and votes; that is why many a candidate who thought he could help push through trust laws of either Capital or Labor, seeking gain or control of the average citizen has met defeat when he comes up for re-election.

No one leads the common people, but they are at least 90 per cent in the majority. Many new and peaceful organizations of labor are being established free from the fee-hunting tyranny of the big Labor Trust.

One of these, The Nat'l Trades and Workers Ass'n with headquarters at Battle Creek, Mich., recently offered Ex-Pres. Roosevelt its Presidency.

The Ass'n hadn't means enough to pay a suitable salary for his great ability and moral worth.

I became so strongly impressed with the honesty of purpose and progressive principles of this labor organization that I considered it worth while offering him $100,000.00 a year if he would accept.

This organization takes in many of the best skilled workers in various crafts. They are pledged to no strike, no boycott, picketing, coercion or violence of any kind. They present their cause peacefully and with dignity.

The great mass of citizens who are to be tyrannized over have no organization to warn them to notify Congressmen of their wishes and so the heavy fire comes from but one side

If settlements cannot be made, the case goes to a carefully selected board of mediation. When the facts are brought out in friendly conference a settlement is reached in a great majority of cases. If not, the facts on both sides are given to the local press and thus the citizens of the community become entirely conversant with the matter and public opinion steps in.

It's hard for either side to stand for a wrong, with the great weight of public opinion opposed.

Up to the time of the mediation proceeding the men keep at work and the flow of money through the community is continued. If, thereafter, they feel they can do better elsewhere, they have a right to withdraw 5 per cent of the men each day and to a job better liked than they make no objection to the employer putting new men in the places they leave. It seldom comes to that.

The practical working of the plan shows the industries go on and the employer holds his time-ripened men to him on any reasonable terms and they and he are friends working together, whereas if they settled by the club and force, hate would invariably follow, greatly to the detriment of the industry and the men personally.

The Trades and Workers Ass'n is growing rapidly among some of the best workmen in America.

It marks a new epoch. Let workmen write the Trades and Workers Ass'n of Battle Creek, Mich., for a constitution and by-laws and study the new peace movement.

Practically all real workers dislike to have their negotiations conducted by strikes, violence, hate and general disturbance, but the noisy ones have gained control of the big Labor Trust and they force the peaceful ones, and by such methods have brought much odium on the name of Labor.

A better day is coming. A day of peace and steady prosperity for the workers, but it will be delayed by cowardly Congressmen if they mistakenly vote to put more power in the hands of the trust leaders and make them immune from prosecution when they boycott, slug, burn and dynamite using such means to hold workmen in their power to extract monthly fees from them and to force the rest of humanity to "obey" them or take the consequences. It is high time the people were protected by the strongarm of the law.

Reader if you want to retain your freedom talk plainly to your Congressman and Legislators. Remember the high priests of the Labor Trust are always busy hounding Congressmen to pass new laws to protect them in their attacks on the average workmen and citizens.

Do your duty and compel your representatives to protect you. If they don't respond, see you are at the polls and cast a vote for the man who has first agreed to stand by the majority and give "exemption" and special privilege to no tight and snug combination of either Labor or Capital.

Guard your sacred personal liberty actively and at all times, for the interests which would like to harness you are busy day in and day out.

Permit no set of men to gain power to force you to buy only what they order, hire only those men they name, also to order when you can work, where, for whom, at what wages and how long.

Fall in watchfulness and you will drift into humiliating servility from which it will be difficult to free yourself.

This is a time when individual liberty is being attacked.

Guard yours as you would your soul. There's a Reason.
