Did Roman marriages. June was the month which the ancient Romans considered the most propitious season of the year for contracting matrimonial engagements, especially if the day chosen were that of the full moon or the conjunction of the sun and moon. The month of May was especially to be avoided as under the influence of spirits adverse to happy households.

James P. Goodrich, as Receiver of The Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville Railroad Company, by order of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Indiana, heretofore made in cause No. 10,772, in Equity, wherein George A. Fernald, et al., were complainants and The Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville Railroad Company, et al., defendants, and by ancillary orders made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, and in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division, in the cause between the same parties, hereby notifies the holders of any indebtedness, liabilities or of claims against the Receiver remaining unpaid on this, the sixth day of July, 1910, after the delivery to The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company of Indiana, assignees of the purchasers of the property sold under this decree, that all indebtedness, liabilities or of claims and demands of any kind whatsoever against said Receiver shall be presented in writing to the said Receiver at his office, Number 355 Dearborn street, Chicago, Illinois, for allowance within sixty days after this, the sixth day of July, 1910, and any such indebtedness, liabilities or claims not so presented to the Receiver within said sixty days shall not be enforceable against the said Receiver or against the property sold under such decree of the said Courts of the United States; said sale being made by Noble C. Butler, Special Master in Chancery, on the 23rd day of June, 1910, of all the property heretofore held by the said Receiver as such.

GENNETT THEATER

GREATLY IMPROVED

And Popular Playhouse Will Open for the Season Next Monday.

A FIRE WALL FOR STAGE

FIREPROOF CURTAIN AND FIRE SHUTTERS ARE ALSO ADDED WHICH PRACTICALLY PROTECT THE AUDIENCES.

After being extensively improved the Gennett theater will open Monday for the 1910-1911 season. Manager Ora Parks has returned from the South and states the improvements on the Gennett have made it one of the best theaters of its size in this section of the state. Many excellent attractions will come here this season. It is thought the opening with large attractions will be about the middle of August.

As a fire proof house the Gennett is complete. A new fireproof curtain has just been installed at a cost of about $1,000. Fuses are attached to supports of the curtain so that when heated the fuses break and the curtain automatically drops. Fire shutters have been built so that they will open on the same principle. These openings practically the entire roof. When opened there is a heavy draft taking the fire away from the auditorium. A two foot fire wall is built from the top of the proscenium arch to the roof and all openings, between the stage and auditorium sealed with the exception of one door, where heavy fire doors are placed. Manager Parks says fire could consume the entire stage and scenery without damaging the front of the house. A pipe full of small holes has been placed over the arch and when water is turned on the scenery and stage will be thoroughly sprayed, adding to the fire protection.

A car load of new scenery has arrived and is a great improvement over that of last season. The entire house is redecorated in gold paint and has been cleaned. Both boxes are being rebuilt and will be ready for the opening. Retiring rooms are placed in the rear of each box. New carpet and draperies add to the appearance of the theater.

Manager Parks will open the theater with May La Forie, in stock company Monday. He says this is an excellent company. Miss Affie McVicker, the treasurer, will probably return.

One Man Alleges Another Took the Contents of a Keg of Beer.

ACCUSED BLAMES TRAMPS

For the theft of the contents of an eight gallon keg of beer, Jeff Goins, colored, was arrested this morning.

J. M. Stikeleather, 933 North Fourteenth street, who filed the affidavit, says he bought the beer and placed it on his doorstep. He returned a few minutes later and the keg was empty. He claims Goins took it. However Goins said it was taken by two tramps. The thief put the contents of the keg into a vessel and carried it away. Afterwards Goins brought Stikeleather a pitcher full of beer asking him if he were thirsty.

MILONE BAD ACTOR

Rome, July 20.—Polla Milone, an Italian brigand has for twenty-five years terrorized the island of Sicily, and as yet it has not been possible for the authorities to effect his capture, but proceedings have been taken against him time after time, and in his absence he has been sentenced.

In 1905 he was sentenced to twenty years, the next year to seventeen years and later to fifteen years, whilst he has had other sentences of thirteen, nineteen and twenty years passed against him.

Now at Perouse he has been condemned to a further thirty years imprisonment, making in all 134 years which the brigand ought to spend in durance vile.
