TUMOR OF YEARS GROWTH

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Holly Springs, Miss.—"Words are inadequate for me to express what your wonderful medicine have done for me. The doctors said I had a tumor, and I had an operation, but was soon as bad again. I wrote to you for advice, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you told me to do. I am glad to say that now I look and feel so well that my friends keep asking me what has helped me so much, and I gladly recommend your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. WILLIE EDWARDS, Holly Springs, Miss.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy—tumor. If you have mysterious pains, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give everyone confidence.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Father Mattingly, Mrs. Carney, Miss Mary Carney, Miss Lucile Carney and Miss Mary Grady, of Logansport.

BE GAY, SAYS MRS. SANGSTER.

"Our besetting sin is to be too serious and set too high a value upon sobriety," says Margaret E. Sangster in the Woman's Home Companion for August. "I hold a brief for pure fun. Laughter is wholesome; mirth does more good than medicine. Not merely when we are on a holiday, but in mid-current of the daily round we are better for an interlude of amusement. The person who was born without a sense of humor is greatly to be pitied. No situation is intolerable if one can see the fun in it. When I hear or see condemnation of a girl's gaiety, I am forced to the conviction that the grave censor never had a girlhood worth the name or else was born under a baleful star. Immoderate giggling belongs to a transient phase and should not be repressed when children are in their early teens; rather it should be rejoiced in, and their elders look back in tender wishfulness on their own days of such thoughtless delight. Be as frivolous as you please, dear maid, and matron, in the summer days and be assured that in its place frivolity is the sunshine, that dances on the wave. Some of the most portentious people one meets, people solemn and severe and given to frowning, are fools underneath their masks. Some of the lightest-hearted gayest and most winsome in their capacity for seeing fun and making it are among the great and wise. If one has no native sense of humor one should endeavor by every legitimate means to acquire it. An evening spent at a play which from the first act to the last scintillates with jests and irresistibly provokes mirth is a boon to tired folk; so, too, is an hour with a novel in which the serious underlying purpose is illuminated by flashes of fun on a summer day or a winter afternoon."

CHARMING PICNIC.

One of the most charming picnic parties of the summer season was given yesterday afternoon at Glen Miller park by Mrs. Lee Ryan, when she took this means of entertaining the members of the American Card club and invited guests. An elegant picnic supper was served at five o'clock. The table was attractively decorated with American flags. The place cards were very unique in design, being ornamented with flags. Covers were laid for twenty-two guests. Those participating in the affair were Mrs. E. Longstreth, Mrs. Smelser, Mrs. C. R. Woodbury, Mrs. Harry Wooters, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. A. O. Smith, Mrs. Andrew Kordel, Mrs. W. B. Dye, Mrs. Thomas Williams, Mrs. Thornton Hall, Mrs. Harry Bennett, Mr. Raymond Bennett of Michigan City, Mrs. Frank Laymon, Mrs. Myron Crane, Mr. Lloyd Dye, Mr. Wilkie Dye, Mr. Russell Taylor, Mr. Lawrence Taylor and Mr. Russell Ryan.

A GUEST HERE.

Mr. Erman Smith of Connersville, Ind., was in the city yesterday on business.

While there she was honor guest at several social functions. Among these events was an automobile party, the guests going to Danville, Ill., from Indianapolis.

A number of young people from town went to Jackson's park last evening and enjoyed a picnic. Later dancing furnished the amusement. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jameson, of Indianapolis, who are guests in this city. Those participating in the event were Miss Helen Jameson, Miss Louise Malaby, Miss Emerald Hasecoeter, Miss Elaine Jones, Miss Abbie Schaeffer, Miss Ruth Friedgen, Miss Genevieve Newlin, Miss Helen Nicholson and Miss Bertha Taylor, Mr. Roland Coate, Mr. Huston Marlatt, Mr. Robert Crane, Mr. Everett McConaha, Mr. Frank Wissler, Mr. Grant Fry, Mr. Charles Buhl, Mr. Emmett Bartel, of Chicago and Mr. Arthur Curme.

hay wagon, which conveyed the party to the Shute home. Between forty and fifty persons were in attendance. A feature of the evening was the musical program including vocal and instrumental numbers. Late in the evening ice cream and cake was served.

My Corns Don't Hurt A Bit

Tired, Ailing, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet, Corns Callouses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right Off.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous, or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your fist if you wish—no more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your feet. Doesn't that sound good to you? Doesn't it? Then read this.

"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. To-day there is no sign of corns on either foot and no soreness. It's an up-to-date Godsend."—Sam. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C.

Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principal of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out, and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all drugists, 25 cents per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luder Dodge & Co., Dodge Building, Chicago, Ill.
