BABY WANTED A JOB

Young James Brannon, aged three years, decided he needed a job this morning. He left his grandfather's home, 619 North Eighth street, about eight o'clock. William Brannon, his grandfather, notified the police and young Brannon was found at Routh's blacksmith shop, Ft. Wayne avenue and North D street, about an hour later. He was returned to his almost frantic grandparents. James lives on South Ninth street but had been visiting his grandparents for several days. His father is Thomas Brannon.

ROB A CANDY STORE

Robbers Take $5.65 in Coppers But Overlooked Sum of $318.

OPEN THE FRONT DOOR

Overlooking $318 in cash robbers Sunday night entered the confectionery of Orville Nixon at Eighth and Main streets and escaped with $5.65. Two dollars in coppers were taken from the cash drawer and left on a serving table in the back room, evidently too small an amount to take. When Mr. Nixon started to open up his store this morning he found the front door open. The cash register drawer was out and the drawer cash missing. In a small compartment of the drawer was $18 which had not been touched. The safe immediately back of the register was not securely locked and contained $300 in cash and about $400 of valuable papers. It is believed amateurs are responsible for the job.

HONORS TO Y. M. C. A.

Third place on the "Association Roll of Honor," and eighth place on the "All-American Roll of Honor," in the International Bible study examinations of the Y. M. C. A. has been awarded to the Richmond association. The "Association Roll of Honor," awards are for the number of examination certificates awarded in proportion to the membership and "All-American Roll of Honor," is for the actual number of certificates awarded. Ten awards are made in each class. Last year the Richmond association was given third in the All-American class and ninth in the association class. Secretary George Goodwin considers the honor a great one.

Death, Ancient and Modern.

The art of the ancients would certainly seem to show that their conception of death was a much more cheerful one than that which has obtained in later times. It was at one time thought that the old Greeks and Egyptians had no artistic symbol for death but this was a misconception. Death was almost invariably represented by them as the kinsman of sleep. The Greeks personified it as Thanatos, elder brother of Sleep. The Romans sometimes depicted Death and Sleep as twin children reposing in the arms of Night. The skull and crossbones and the skeleton as emblems of death do not appear to have become common until comparatively late Christian times. It has been suggested that the terrible fancies and pestilences which scourged Europe during the middle ages were responsible for the fear or horror with which the modern mind is usually accustomed to look upon death.

The Science of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for such powerful laxatives as castor oil, pills, powders or salines. Give them a safe, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the same price in 25 cent or $1.00 drug stores. It is the only great remedy for you to have in the house to cure children when they need it.

ASK THAT A NEW

cials of the railroad, past or present, who know of the alleged grafting.

Cause of Attitude.
Two reasons for Rawn's attitude on the hearing before Master-in-Chancery Taylor when he placed the responsibility for the "farming out" custom of the Illinois Central on the shoulders of President Harahan as well as himself were advanced last night by an Illinois Central official.

"The principal reason Rawn dragged in Harahan's name was his hatred for his former chief. He knew Harahan had started the inquiry which was slowly but surely tightening its coils about him. He knew he faced disgrace and that Harahan was partly responsible for turning on the spotlight of inquiry. In desperation he turned on his former enemy and attempted to make him a partner in his guilt."

The strict injunction not to discuss the car fraud investigation was passed to Illinois Central officials by Harahan today.

The Pinkerton office has issued many thousand slips offering $5,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Rawn. There is no attempt at description of the alleged murderer offered by Mrs. Rawn and her married daughters.

After a search of the dead railroaders' effects there is no trace of a will. William Bury, his personal attorney is of the opinion that he died intestate.

THINK BIG LINER CARRIES MAN WHO IS BADLY WANTED

The Montrose, whose quick action led to the discovery of the pair believed to be Crippen and his companion. Through other ships that relay the messages, the Montrose today was in communication with Scotland Yard, it was learned here in spite of the taciturnity of the police.

Moscrop Gets Orders.

It is also known that the authorities have requested Captain Moscrop—who is his own master, under no jurisdiction when on the high seas—to keep the disguised persons under close surveillance, and moreover to throw Crippen into irons at the first intimation that he has learned his situation. In spite of the efforts of Captain Moscrop and his officers, fears are entertained here that an idea of the supposed identity of the pseudo clergyman and his son—the roles taken by the suspected pair—will be gained by the score of other second class passengers, or even some of the 400 in the steerage.

Such an event might lead Crippen to desperation. There is a strong belief here, however, that he would brazen it out, hoping for liberty, if brought to trial, on the ground that there is not a scrap of direct evidence against him and even the corpus delicti, the body proving murder is not producible, there being as yet no legal certainty as to the identity of the woman's body found mutilated and in quicklime, buried in the cellar of the Crippen home, 39 Hilldrop Crescent, North London.

The police today refused to comment on the report that Inspector Dew had decided to board the Montrose at sea.

Montrose Is Slowest.

In the best informed circles, however, little credence is given to the report. The Montrose is a two-day boat, and the Laurentic makes the passage of the Atlantic in eight days. The Laurentic will get to Quebec twelve hours before the Montrose is due there, on Monday. The climax in the sensational dash across the ocean may come at Rimouski, where the ships are due the day before they reach Quebec.

To attempt a transfer at sea, even should no difficulty be experienced in having the vessels meet, would excite the suspicion of the quay, if nothing else did. In the eyes of the authorities little would be gained and such an arrest might prove the basis for a technical defense in court, the sea being under the law of no country.

State of Indiana, Wayne County, ss:

In the Wayne Circuit Court, April Term, 1910.

Ex parte Eldo A. Cain, et al.
Petition for Drainage.

To John G. Clark and Nellie Savory, Louisa Doan.

You are hereby notified that I and others, have filed in the office of the Clerk of the Wayne Circuit Court a petition for drainage of certain real estate in Wayne County, State of Indiana, being in Sections 29, 30 and 31, and Township 18, Range 13 East.

It is believed that said drainage can be best and most cheaply accomplished by a ditch and drain beginning at or near a point about 20 rods north of the south line and 60 rods west of the east line of northeast quarter of Sec. 30, Twp. 18, Range 13
