

HARMONY REIGNS IN THE CAMP OF THE REPUBLICANS

So Far the Democrats Have Been Unable to Point Out Anything that Indicates Rival-als' Failure.

BEVERIDGE SUPPORT
REMAINS SOLID ONE

Republicans Not Fully Agreed on the Issues, But Differences Not Such as to Create Party War.

(Palladium Special) Indianapolis, July 27.—While the democrats of the state are making a lot of noise about what they declare to be serious differences among the republicans of Indiana, the fact remains that they are not able to point out anything in this line that appears to indicate failure for the republican ticket. When you ask them to name a single republican in the state who is going to vote against the republican ticket this fall they are not able to do so. They carry their prediction this fall and there they stop.

The democrats are doing everything in their power to create and spread the impression that Watson, Hemenway, Durbin and numerous other good republicans are fighting the republican ticket this year, or that they are doing everything in their power to bring about the defeat of Senator Beveridge, who is the only candidate for United States senator.
They say that these men will exert their influence to defeat Beveridge, even if they are obliged to go to the length of electing a democratic legislature to carry their point. But when you ask them to tell when and where any of these men made such a statement of their purpose they are not able to do so.

It Would Cause Scrap.
The fact is that these men have never made any such statement. It is quite likely that if any person were to charge directly any one of them with such purpose he would have a scrap on his hands in a minute. While it is admitted and well known that all republicans are not agreed on some of the issues, but their differences are not sufficiently great to cause any of them to help elect a democratic legislature or set of democratic state officers.

The democrats are taking the position that the voters of the state are dissatisfied with the republican part in its present condition and that there is going to be a widespread sweep of bolting among them this year. They say the republican voters are going to flock to the democratic standard this year and vote the democratic ticket.
Just what they find on which to base such a prediction no one knows. They do not even know themselves.

Republicans who have been out in the state and who have mingled with the voters report that they have failed to find any such condition. They declare that the farmers are very well satisfied with present conditions and that they are not talking of voting against the republican ticket. They know that the defeat of the republican ticket this year would mean that the tariff would be taken off farm products and the farmers are not in favor of that move. The farmers are prosperous so these men say, and they are not going to throw away their prosperity.

Asks Them to Think.
"If these democrats would just stop and think a moment," said one of the men after he had made a trip through several counties, looking into conditions," they would see the fallacy of their claim. They must remember that if the republicans help to elect a democratic legislature in order to defeat Senator Beveridge they will at the same time elect a democrat as United States senator. The republican vote is not built that way. Of course, the democrats in urging this argument and making these statements, are speaking one word for the republicans and a dozen words for themselves. I have found that the republicans are just as well lined up now as they have ever been, and that they are just as firm in their determination to elect their ticket this year. I have heard democrats make the statement that thousands of republicans were going to vote against their ticket this year and I have asked several of them to name a single man who would do this. In every instance they have been unable to point out one republican who is going to vote the democratic ticket."

James E. Watson has already made a public statement that he is eager for the success of the entire republican ticket in this state this year, and that he is ready to do his share of the work to elect it. In spite of the wild stories that have been circulated to the contrary, Watson will not oppose anybody on the ticket. And if Watson remains in line there is no reason to believe that any of the other party leaders will do differently.

Still Spreading Story.
The democrats also are hard at work spreading the story that even in case the republicans carry the legislature this year Senator Beveridge will not be re-elected. They declare with great emphasis that this is the plan of those who are opposed to Beveridge. This, of course is another story out of which the democrats hope to make capital in the campaign. The fact is that the democrats have instructed their speakers this year to make this point and hammer on it good and hard, in the hope that it will stir up disaffection among the republicans.
But there is nothing in the situation at this time that indicates that there will be any candidate among the republicans for United States senator besides Beveridge. The republicans all understand that if the republicans win Beveridge will be re-elected. If the democrats win he will not be re-elected.

The democratic state committee will meet in this city tomorrow to discuss campaign plans. It was expected that Senator Shively would attend the meeting but a telegram was received by Stokes Jackson, democratic state chairman, from Shively yesterday afternoon saying he would be here on Friday morning. The democrats are planning a much closer and stronger organization this year than they had two years ago. It is well known that in many parts of the state for an organization of any kind. This year, however, they are already at work shaping up their lines.

Workers Very Active.
The same is true of the republicans.
They are doing organization work all over the state, and at headquarters reports are coming in that the workers are busy. It is pointed out that while the republican farmers are well satisfied with present prosperous conditions and will stand by their ticket the same as usual, the republicans are sure to benefit in the cities and towns from organized labor. Union labor has not forgotten the double cross which the democrats gave them in the legislature two years ago, and the leaders of labor throughout the state are offering their services to the republican organization this year. The Union, the official paper of the State Federation of Labor, published in this city, has given the democratic party to understand editorially that there are other issues in Indiana more important than the brand of beer that is sold in the state, or whether liquor may be sold at all in the state. It declares that the interests of the laborer demand better attention than was given it by the last democratic legislature, and all signs indicate that organized labor will vote the republican ticket this year.

Dreams of Genius.
An interesting book might be written on the subject of the dreams of genius.
Stevenson maintained that much of his work was only partially original. His collaborators were the brownies who ran riot through his brain during the hours of sleep. He instances the case of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." "I had long been trying to write a story on this subject," he writes, "to find a body, a vehicle for that strong sense of man's double being which must at times come in upon and overwhelm the mind of every thinking creature. For two days I went about racking my brains for a plot of any sort, and on the second night I dreamed the scene at the window and a scene afterward split in two, in which Hyde, pursued for some crime, took the powder and underwent the change in the presence of his pursuers. All the rest was made awake and consciously, although I think I can trace in much of it the manner of my brownies."—London Molders' Union to Insure.

The Iron Molders' union is beginning a comprehensive insurance plan that is likely to enlist the entire trade.
The start is being made in Ohio, where 500 members will incorporate under the laws, and then one state after another will be attached to the organization. The molders claim they will pay benefits of $500 to $1,000 at less cost than any insurance company in the world.

Union Farmers Incorporate.
In line with the declaration adopted at the recent conference of the organized farmers in St. Louis, the American Co-operative union has been incorporated with a capitalization of $1,000,000. The society will begin a crusade against high prices and to eliminate middlemen in the sale of products raised or used on the farm.
