OPENING HELD TOMORROW

(American News Service.)
Cincinnati, Oct. 2.—A host of bishops, clergy, and laity, representing the intellect and the power of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States, flocked into Cincinnati today for the forty-third triennial general convention of the church which has its formal opening tomorrow. Fraternal visitors from Canada, England and Mexico are here to attend the gathering, together with mission workers from China, Japan, South America and other parts of the world. Prominent among the distinguished clergy arrived in the city is the Rt. Rev. John Wordsworth, D. D., bishop of Salisbury, England, who is to preach the convention sermon. Heading the list of laymen is J. Pierpont Morgan, the eminent New York financier, who has hosted a large house for the occasion and will entertain lavishly during the period of the convention.

RAIN HATE IN KOREA.
Korea is a country of strange head-dresses, but perhaps the most curious headgear of all are the immense rain hats worn by the farmers' wives while working in the fields during the rainy season. These extraordinary coverings are often as much as seven feet long and five feet broad and protect the body as effectively as any umbrella could do.
