

CHICAGO TO HAVE A GREAT REVIVAL

Arrangements for the Chapman-Alexander Meetings Are Now Completed.

A CAMPAIGN FOR SOULS

CO-OPERATION OF OVER 400 CHICAGO AND SUBURBAN CHURCHES HAS BEEN SECURED—HELD AT BIG PARK.

(Palladium Special)
Chicago, Oct. 15.—Arrangements for the big Chapman-Alexander revival meetings are completed, and Chicago will tomorrow enter upon a campaign for souls which will be more vast in scope and promises to receive greater support than any similar series of meetings ever conducted in this city.

Through the efforts of the Laymen's Evangelistic council, the co-operation of over 400 Chicago and suburban churches of Protestant denominations has been secured for the meetings, which will begin tomorrow, and which will continue for six weeks.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman has been secured as leader of these meetings and will be assisted by the noted choir leader, Charles M. Alexander and some forty or fifty evangelists and singers.

Chicago's best known amusement park—the White City—has been completely turned over to the council for meetings and Dr. Chapman begins his meetings in the big ball room of this "White City" and will speak here each day and night for two weeks. The room seats about 6,000 with a platform for the choir which will seat almost another thousand.

Permits for two great tabernacles have been secured from the city council and are being erected on the north side district. Meetings will be held here for two weeks by Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander and during the last two weeks, meetings will be held in the great tabernacle which is being erected on the west side.

These buildings are under the supervision of Mr. William Gill, best known as "Billy" Sunday's architect.

In addition Dr. Chapman will hold noonday meetings in the Chicago opera house and if the situation demands it, other meetings will be held at convenient points.

It is estimated that the 400 churches co-operating in this campaign represent approximately 100,000 church members. During the past week an organization of group committees and central committees has been perfected.

There will be several conference days when ministers of Illinois and adjoining states will attend. Prominent religious workers have been invited to speak on these days, among them Commander Eva Booth of the Salvation Army.

Mr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander have just returned from abroad where they held conferences in Oldham, England; Dundee, Scotland; Cardiff, New South Wales; and Chesterham, England.

At the close of the Chicago campaign Dr. Chapman and party will conduct meetings in Fort Wayne, Ind., and in January will go to Toronto, Canada.

M. A. MARTIN.

GARFIELD TO SPEAK HERE

James R. Garfield, secretary of the interior, during the administration of President Roosevelt, and one of the most aggressive insurgent leaders in the country, will speak Monday evening at the Pythian Temple. This will be one of the most important republican speeches of the campaign in Wayne county and a large crowd is anticipated. Mr. Garfield spoke here two years ago and pleased a large audience.

What Beauty is Called.
Socrates called beauty a short lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Cæneides, a solitary kingdom; Aristotle, that it was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature.—housekeeper.

King Manuel and Queen Mother

WANTED IN DAYTON

Man Arrested Here While Enroute to California for His Health.

SAYS ACTION SPITE WORK

On a warrant sworn out by the Anderson Fruit company, of Dayton, O., W. R. Prince was arrested by Patrolman Lawler, as he left a train from Dayton, this morning. Prince and his family were about to transfer to a west bound train for Chicago from where they intended to go to California for Prince's health, they said.

Prince is charged with embezzlement of $35. It is said he collected a sum of $35 which was owed the fruit company and did not turn in the money. Prince says he worked for the commission house 16 years.

"They were sore," he said, "because I was leaving, and took this opportunity for revenge. I am not guilty of the embezzlement and have never been in trouble before."

The Dayton police wired Superintendent Gorman to arrest the man and after being notified of his apprehension said they would send an officer to Richmond immediately.

Fresh supply Mrs. Austin's Famous Buckwheat Flour at all grocers.

BOYS PLAY INDIAN

And One Member Is Tied to Stake, but He Breaks Bonds and Kills Fire.

ANOTHER LAD IS TORTURED

The court house gang caught two of the weaker members on Saturday morning and taking them into the river bottoms proceeded to play Indian in realistic fashion. One of the boys was burned to the stake or at least would have been, had he not been fortunate enough to get his feet loose and stamp out the fire. The other was tied on a board and bounded up and down for several minutes. The authorities are investigating but have not yet given out any names of the boys implicated.

EXPOSURES COMING.

New York, Oct. 15.—The affair so far is of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come! This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

CHURCH KEEPS NAME.

Cincinnati, Oct. 15.—The House of Bishops of the Episcopal convention decided not to change the name to Holy Catholic church. Change of name was lost by one vote.

ROBBERS MAKE HAUL.

Churubusco, Ind., Oct. 15.—The post office here was dynamited during the night and eighteen hundred dollars in money and stamps were taken.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Spiceland, Ind., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Etta Young Johnson was arrested this morning on a grand jury indictment, charging her with first degree murder of her husband, George Edward Johnson, who died August seventeenth from carbolic acid. He carried one thousand dollars life insurance. The couple had three children.

ONE DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION AND SETTLES ANY SOUR, GASSY, DISORDERED STOMACH.

A little Diapepsin regulates bad Stomachs in five minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwords.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belchings of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness, or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure almost any chronic case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other Stomach trouble.

Pape's Diapepsin and take a

GROWS IN POWER

TRADE UNIONISM FLOURISHES DESPITE OPPONITION.

MASTERS ALL OBSTACLES.

Record of the Labor Movement Justifies Faith In Its Continued Progress. Ultimate Organization of All Workers Assured.

In the writings and speech of some men of labor I have noticed a vein of pessimistic discouragement which it seems to me is not warranted by facts or conditions as they apply to organized labor today, writes G. W. Perkins in the American Federationist.

It is true that we have received many hard jolts from some courts, some judges, injunctions, judge made laws, damage suits, etc., and a hostile congress within the last few years, but the membership has increased and is still increasing.

It is true that we have been assailed by the National Manufacturers' association, with its "open shippers," by a hostile and indifferent press, which has fed the public on half truths and all of our faults and none of our virtues and splendid work. But what of it? The old timer expects this and remains with undaunted courage, refusing to surrender. And why? He knows the past; he has seen and experienced greater opposition and persecution when he had to fight almost single handed and has seen the movement grow and prosper beneath it.

Thirty-five, forty and fifty years ago it was held to be a crime to even organize. Members of unions were arrested under alleged conspiracy laws, common laws and any old law, tried, convicted and sent to jail for even asking for an increase of wages. They did not wait for a strike in those days; they went after the workers right on the jump.

Formerly organized labor was ignorized, humiliated, browbeaten, bulldozed and its members looked upon as worse than outlaws. Manufacturers' associations existed. Courts, judges, public officials, police, Pinkertons and the militia were hostile and bitter in their opposition, and the general public looked on with indifference or with approval and satisfaction over the persecution.

Wages were low, hours long, conditions frightful, with no rights for the workers that anybody was bound to or did respect.

Despite all of this, the trade union movement has steadily grown in power, strength, usefulness and numbers and has the respect and confidence of a large portion of the general public.

The fierce attack we are now undergoing, in which courts, judges, congress, presidents and others have been drawn in and have taken a hand in, is a decided compliment to the stability, worth, effectiveness and usefulness of the present trade union movement. It justifies our faith in the soundness of the movement, our policies and leadership and argues well for the future.

The record of the trade union movement, which under the severest opposition and relentless persecution has overcome and mastered all obstacles from within and without, proves that we will successfully combat and finally master all opposition, regardless of what it may be in the future. It justifies an optimistic outlook and means success.

The methods, plans, work and policies of the past, changed only to meet changing conditions, such as experience and ripe judgment may justify, if adhered to in the future, will surely bring success and the final organization of all workers.

Apaches are not born; they are made—made by the peculiar laws of France. Every citizen of the republic, without distinction of rank or class, must serve under his country's flag for two years. Only the physically unfit escape that servitude. At the end of his term in the ranks every Frenchman seeking employment must present as means of identification his certificate of honorable discharge.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

The only danger, and that of a temporary nature, that can overtake us is that of minor importance, the principal exposures are still to come!

This statement made today by Wm. Leeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, summed up the government's work to date in the great fraud charges made against Duveen Brothers, the International art dealers who are accused of bringing millions of dollars worth of rare art works into this country and unlawfully evading the customs duties.

APACHES OF PARIS

NIGHT PROWLERS WHOSE TRADE IS MURDER AND ROBBERY.

THE TERROR OF THE POLICE.

These Desperadoes Rarely Use a Gun, but Work With the Knife, the Bludgeon or by "Tolling"—They Have a Short and Bloody Career.

There are very few nights in the year when Paris policemen on their rounds do not stumble upon a body lying in a gory pool. Sometimes the handle of a long, slender knife protrudes between the shoulder blades; sometimes an ugly gash bleeds from ear to ear; not seldom blood oozes from mouth, nose and ears, as though the dead had not sustained any apparent wound, or three little starlike bruises may dot the temple, or a bluish hue an inch wide may mar the back of the neck, just above the collar line.

"Les Apaches," the "cops" whisper to each other for Parisian police officers always go two by two, and they call for an ambulance, much relieved not to have witnessed the incident.

The steel blade, the blackjack, the brass knuckles, will serve the purpose of the Apache, according to his victim's size and presumable strength. For a prey of small stature, however, the Apache reserves what in his slang he calls "tolling." A sharp blow dazes the victim and throws him down; the Apache's knees bore themselves into the chest, while his hands seize the ears, lift the head and slam it a couple of inches; then the back is struck again, and the Apache's feet are driven into the victim's back.

Until an Apache is an adept at "sticking" his man in very much the same way in which a Spanish torero dispatches a bull, with a single thrust between the shoulders, or at cracking a skull bone at one blow, he is held in little esteem and never allowed to take charge of "big jobs" in a dangerous neighborhood, for Paris is a well policed city. The night hawk must strike like lightning, empty the dead man's pockets in a wink and slink away into the dark. Therefore Apaches very seldom carry guns; the knife is silent. Tolling, too, is safe—so many people are known to have slipped and fractured their skulls! Unless the victim is especially well dressed there is not much of an inquiry.

When it is all over the gang, which scatters like a flock of frightened sparrows, meets again at some wineshop where no one is welcome who is not of the "in" business.

Despite all of this, the trade union movement has steadily grown in power, strength, usefulness and numbers and has the respect and confidence of a large portion of the general public.

The fierce attack we are now undergoing, in which courts, judges, congress, presidents and others have been drawn in and have taken a hand in, is a decided compliment to the stability, worth, effectiveness and usefulness of the present trade union movement. It justifies our faith in the soundness of the movement, our policies and leadership and argues well for the future.

The record of the trade union movement, which under the severest opposition and relentless persecution has overcome and mastered all obstacles from within and without, proves that we will successfully combat and finally master all opposition, regardless of what it may be in the future. It justifies an optimistic outlook and means success.

The methods, plans, work and policies of the past, changed only to meet changing conditions, such as experience and ripe judgment may justify, if adhered to in the future, will surely bring success and the final organization of all workers.