

HE TAKES A WIFE THEN LEAVES HER

Alleged Samuel Ketron Deserted His Young Bride Right After the Ceremony.

AN INVESTIGATION IS MADE

ACCUSED, A BOSTON, IND., YOUNG MAN, WAS ARRESTED BUT RELEASED ON BOND—BRIDE SENT TO PARENTS.

Charging that after their marriage, about ten-days ago, her husband took her to her parents home and left her, advising her to make the best of the situation, Minnie Ketron, a sixteen year old girl living with her parents near Boston has filed suit in the circuit court on relation of the state against Samuel Ketron, alleging that he married her for fraudulent purposes.

Prosecuting Attorney Charles Ladd who filed the charge against Ketron is now investigating authorities to ascertain whether a more serious charge—that of having alleged criminal relations with a child under sixteen years of age, cannot be filed against the defendant.

Ketron was arrested at Boston on Monday evening by Deputy Sheriff Oscar Mashmeyer. He offered no resistance nor explanation and asked his father, who is a rural route carrier out of Boston, to go on his bond, which he did. He furnished $600 for his son's appearance in court whenever called by Judge Fox.

The state's attorney said Tuesday morning that Ketron married Minnie Presley in order to avoid legal proceedings. After they were married, it is said by Mr. Ladd, Ketron drove to his wife's parents home and left his bride there. This was all the attention which he has given her, according to the prosecuting attorney. It is said by the official that Ketron went to his parent's home and had been living there until arrested.

The Presleys are poor but industrious residents of Boston township. Ketron has been employed on the railroad section near Boston. He comes from a good family.

City Statistics

Deaths and Funerals.

SUDHOFF—George G. Sudhoff, formerly a popular and efficient carrier in the city mail service, died Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. G. Weidner, 301 South Third street. Mr. Sudhoff had been in poor health for a considerable time, his retirement from the mail service having been due to this fact. Mr. Sudhoff is survived by a wife and one son. He was 51 years old.

DRIFMEYER—The funeral of William C. Drifmeyer will take place on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home, 304 South Fourth street, and at 2 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran church. The services will be in charge of Rev. J. Beck and interment will be at Lutherana. Friends may call any time on Wednesday afternoon and evening.

ROW OVER A HORSE

Following an altercation between Levi Rhodes and George W. Harvey at the shoeing shop of Mr. Rhodes on Monday, Harvey filed an affidavit against Rhodes for assault and battery and the case was called in the city court Tuesday morning. As not all the witnesses were on hand there was a postponement until Friday morning. Harvey was having a horse shod at the Rhodes shop and the work not being completed in time to suit him, he undertook to take his horse away. Rhodes objected to this and prevented it until certain conditions had been complied with by Harvey. The affidavit against Rhodes followed. Rhodes claims he was merely protecting his own interests and he will defend himself against the charge of assault and battery.

WILLIAMS IS AWAY

County Superintendent C. O. Williams will be absent from the office until Thursday. He is making an inspection of the district schools in the county. He has several plans in view wherein he believes the efficiency of the schools may be increased.

CLIFTON
The New ARROW
Notch COLLARS
fit snugly to the neck, the topmost
in front and there is ample space for the cravat.
Made for Mr. Cleon, Peabody & Co., Makers

New York City Shown Upside Down

ACCUSED OF HERESY FINDS NO BONDSEN

Minister to Face This Charge at the Michigan Baptists' Convention.

CASE VERY UNUSUAL ONE

(American News Service)

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 18.—Among the ministerial and lay delegates who have arrived to attend the annual convention of Michigan Baptists here this week almost the sole topic of discussion is the "heresy" trial which promises to enliven the proceedings. A trial for heresy is something unusual in the Baptist denomination. Never before has such a trial taken place in the history of the Michigan Baptists' convention, but the present dispute over doctrinal differences has reached such an acute stage that it is felt that the convention cannot very well avoid taking official action in the matter.

The storm-centre of the present trouble is the Rev. Frederick Merrifield, director of the Ann Arbor Baptist guild, which directs the theological training of students destined for the Baptist ministry. For some years Mr. Merrifield's teachings have been criticised by certain old-time Baptists who have openly charged him with denying the divinity of Christ and his bodily resurrection. As a result of these criticisms Mr. Merrifield has been requested to submit a full statement of his doctrinal beliefs and teachings. The convention itself will then discuss the whole matter and by a vote decide whether Mr. Merrifield shall be asked to resign his position. The introduction of the controversy on the convention floor is expected to precipitate a lively discussion as the accused clergyman has the support of many prominent divines and laymen throughout Michigan.

UNDERTAKER FILES CLAIM.

Cornelius T. Wright, of Cambridge City, an undertaker, has filed a claim of $226 against the estate of the late Charles D. Miller.

FINED FOR DRUNK.

Fred Ellis and William Miller were fined the usual amount in the city court, Tuesday, for intoxication.

TASMANIA.

Nicknames Applied to the One Time Convict Settlement.

"Tasmania is perhaps the most interesting of the states of our commonwealth," remarked the Australian. "It is a large triangular island lying to the south of Melbourne and was once a convict settlement.

"The climate is delightful and the soil remarkably fertile. The island is practically one large orchard, where peaches, apples, cherries, etc., are grown in sufficient quantities to keep the adjoining continent supplied. Some left over for export to England. As fruit trees do not require much tending, leisure is a notable characteristic of the inhabitants, and Tasmania is known throughout the antipodes as 'the land of lots of time' or 'the land of sleep a lot.' It is also called 'the jam country' and its natives familiarly termed 'jam eaters.' This is on account of the presence of an enormous cannery in the island, where some of the orchard products are converted into jams, jellies and preserved fruits.

"But this by no means ends the list of Tasmanian nicknames. Two Dutch explorers—Tasman and Van Dieman—had to do with the discovery of the island, and, although the name of Tasman is now used, it is often referred to in old school books as Van Dieman's Land. We find it amusing to twist the latter name a bit and call the Tasmanians 'dennies,' which is a shame, as they are the mildest and best fellows in the world. They speak of themselves as 'Tasies,' and that may be accepted as their unofficial designation."—New York Press.

BEWARE CAR TRACKS

People passing the street car tracks on South Eighth street, near the interurban station, have been much shocked. This is not due to any misdemeanor or high jinks on the part of any individual, but to the fact that the tracks have become heavily charged with electricity due to defective ground connection and the passersby occasionally gets the benefit of it.

COUNCIL'S BIG JOB

One of the big jobs that the city council has on hand is the consideration of the building ordinance, typewritten copies of which have been supplied to each member of the council. The ordinance covers 45 type-written pages and enters into the rules and regulations for building to the minutest detail. If the ordinance is ever considered section by section, it will require something like a week to get through it. The purport of this ordinance has already appeared in the Palladium.

REPORT

BALLOONS

(American News Service)

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Balloons which left St. Louis yesterday on the International race were reported today as follows: Million Population Club landed near Racine, Wis., at eight this morning; St. Louis No. 4 passed Grinnell, Wis., traveling east at eight o'clock; America II passed Eagle, Wis., at eight-fifteen going east; Hamburg III passed Milwaukee at seven o'clock going northeast; the Germania was crossing Lake Michigan near Milwaukee at eight o'clock; the Dusseldorf passed Big Bend, Wis., at seven-thirty; the Isle de France was reported by Zion, Ill., at six-thirty.

DO YOU WONDER AT IT?

PETITION TO SELL

Perry J. Freeman, administrator of the estate of the late W. C. Converse, a prominent attorney and former police judge, filed a petition in the probate court to sell personal property of the decedent in order to pay debts. He states in his petition which has been approved by the court, that claims in the aggregate of $3,000 have been filed against the estate. He asked to sell 20 shares in the Union Development Company of Georgia, which is of the probable value of $100 a share, with six per cent interest.

A Dependable, Accurate Watch For Electricians

The G. M. Wheeler Model Elgin combines all the good points any man can ask for. Unharmful by vibration, jolt or temperature changes. Has 17 Jewels, Compensating Balance, automatic temperature adjuster; Micrometric Regulator, which cannot be accidentally moved; factory adjustment, perfect materials, expert manufacture, absolute accuracy.

Elgin Watch

G. M. WHEELER MODEL

18 Size

The finished product of 43 years' experience. The best medium priced watch we have ever made.

Test it under most trying conditions. Prove it in any way you wish. It will stand a reliable timekeeper. Fully guaranteed against defects of every kind.

Examine the G. M. Wheeler Model Elgin at the nearest jeweler's. He will gladly show it to you.

Price of Movement Only, $17
In Solid Gold Cases, $20 and up

Every man and woman should own an Elgin Watch. There are many models, each priced according to grade of case and works, and fully guaranteed. Jewelers everywhere sell them.

ELGIN NATIONAL WATCH CO., Elgin, Illinois

A FAMOUS AUTHOR HELPS BEVERIDGE

Winston Churchill, at Indianapolis, Says He Admires the Indiana Senator.

HIS CAMPAIGN A NOVEL ONE

CHURCHILL SAYS THAT BEVERIDGE'S NON-PARTISAN APPEAL MAKES A HIT WITH WRITER OF "THE CRISIS."

(Palladium Special)

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—"My instinct tells me insurgency is going to win all along the line," said Winston Churchill, author of "The Crisis," "Richard Carvel," "The Crossing," "Coniston," and "Mr. Crewe's Career," and famous New Hampshire legislator, who looked and acted the typical New Englander when he blew into breezy, slangy Indianapolis on Monday afternoon. He was tired. But Tuesday morning when he awoke in the Columbia club, having returned there from Frankfort where he spoke Monday night, he was fresh and eager for the rest of his campaigning. Breakfast found the downeast aglow with enthusiasm. For like Senator Beveridge he is a fighter.

Calls It Courage.

"Do you know I think it was a splendid piece of courage for the people of Indiana to be first in putting citizenship above partisanship, as Senator Beveridge puts it," he began. "I believe Senator Beveridge knew the spirit of Indiana people well before he uttered that, and I don't mind telling you that is chiefly what brought me out here. I like the idea. I came out with some notions along that line in a non-partisan speech in Peoria, Ill., and when I met Senator Beveridge he told me he had used that non-partisan speech as campaign literature. He asked me to come into the state and speak in his behalf and I thought the least I could do was to back my original speech.

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record of Senator Beveridge from first to last, else I could not have been persuaded to come this far just to make three speeches. I think the republican party, just as it has always been the party of progress in the past, is again forging ahead and framing the policies of the future along advanced lines."

"I admire the record