ART IN RICHMOND.

The following article concerning the local art exhibit was clipped from the Fort Wayne News and will interest many here:

Mr. Robert Grafton, the foremost portrait painter of Indiana, received the first prize at the Richmond exhibition of the canvases of the artists of Indiana, which has been held in that city during the past week. The picture Mr. Grafton sent to the exhibition is one recently painted of Mrs. S. D. Hanna, of East Berry street. The picture is a three-quarter-length canvas, representing Mrs. Hanna standing beside a small stand, on which is a softly colored Tiffany glass vase. The coloring is exquisite, soft and dark, but wonderfully clear. The portrait entered the contest with thirty-one pictures from Indiana artists. The jury was composed of Mr. Edmund H. Werpel, dean of the faculty of St. Louis; Mr. Antonio Sterba, a member of the faculty of the Art Institute in Chicago and Mr. Clifton A. Wheeler, of Indianapolis. The prize was awarded to Mr. Grafton, while Mr. Steele, the well known landscape artist of Indiana, received honorable mention.

Mr. Grafton's work was honored because of its sincerity, being a sincere work of art in every sense of the word and is unique in that it is the first portrait to receive first prize in the Richmond exhibitions. Mr. John W. Alexander, who has been critic for various art exhibitions in the country, stated in a recent article published in one of the New York papers that the Richmond art exhibition ranks second to none in the United States. The standing of the exhibition is of the

WONDERFUL CURE OF SORE HANDS

Skin Peeled and Flesh Got Hard and Broke—Blood Flowed in Fifty Places—"Single Box of Cuticura Ended Suffering."

"About eleven years ago I was troubled with sore hands, so sore that when I would put them in water the pain would very nearly set me crazy, the skin would peel off and the flesh would get hard and break. There would be blood flowing from at least fifty places on each hand. Words could never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried everything I was told to use for fully three years, but could get no relief. I tried at least eight different doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, as my hands were as bad when I got through doctoring as when I first began. I also tried many remedies, but none of them ever did me one cent's worth of good. I was discouraged and heartless. I would feel so bad mornings when I got up that I had to go to work and stand the pain for ten hours, and I often felt like giving up my position. Before I started to work mornings I would have to wrap my finger up separately, so as to try and keep them soft and then wear gloves over the rags to keep the grease from getting on my work. At night I would have to wear gloves in bed. In fact, I had to wear gloves all the time. Cuticura Ointment cured me in three days, and spending much money, a single box of Cuticura Ointment ended all my sufferings. It's been eight years since I used any and I don't know what sore hands are now, and never lost a day's work while using Cuticura Ointment. Thomas A. Clancy, 310 N. Montgomery St., Trenton, N. J., Nov. 11, 1909."

A single set of Cuticura Soap and Ointment is often sufficient to cure the skin and scalp. Sold everywhere for 25 cents. Price per box, 50 cents. Sole Props., 135 Columbia Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

cloud of beautiful red roses formed a centerpiece for the table. The color scheme red and white, was carried out in all the appointments in this apartment. White roses were also used copiously. The club has decided to study France for this season's work. The next regular meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. George Knight in South Twelfth street.

STAR EUCHE CLUB.

At a meeting of the Star Euche club held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. John Elliott, at her home on the National road, west, the favor was presented to Mrs. Frank Waters. After the game the lunch was served in the dining room. Autumn leaves in beautiful tints of red, brown and gold were used in decorating. Mrs. Frank Youngflesh and Mrs. Edward Geier with two out of town guests were among those invited to enjoy the afternoon, not including the membership.

HELD MEETING THURSDAY.

A meeting of the Woman's Collegiate club was held yesterday afternoon instead of Thursday of next week on account of the State Federation meeting of clubs to be held here. Mrs. Benjamin Bartel was hostess for this session at her home in South Eighteenth street. Mrs. A. L. Murray had charge of the program which was a very interesting one. She read a paper referring to the Consumer's league, bringing out many facts pertaining to the fabric of modern society.

Among these being that Indiana is a leader in all reforms standing high in the list of states in progressive legislation. Reference was made to the work of Miss Marjorie Johnson, niece of Mr. B. B. Johnson, of this city, a young woman of wealth and education, who is devoting herself to social betterment, having been engaged in settlement work in London for several years and who is now investigating conditions among working girls for the Consumer's league, her experiences in this regard being recorded in a recent number of McClure's magazine, the article attracting wide attention. The music for the afternoon was

A publication of the state charities and correction department of Massachusetts contains an article by Gov. Thomas R. Marshall on "The Mission of the Prison" and also a short treatise by Rabbi Emil W. Leitziger of Terre Haute.

SKIRTS TOO TIGHT

Athlete Had to Carry Those Wearing the Most Up-to-date Skirts Up Steps.

AT A BANQUET IN GARY

Gary, Ind., Oct. 21.—Members of the leading social set in this city established a new precedent when they gave a hobble-skirt party in honor of Carl Schmidt, a Broadway business man. Incidentally, when the ladies arrived at the Schmidt home, they found that their unique wearing apparel prevented them from negotiating the trip up stairs to the second floor. To turn back was out of the question. So George Clinton, a six-footer, solved their dilemma by carrying the ladies one by one up the steps.

A large crowd assembled to witness the scene and when Clinton was through he needed stimulants, and the men of the party had to assist him up the steps.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Kettles, Mr. and Mrs. George Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fage, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acker and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt.

In order that the men could keep step with the ladies when dancing began they wore hobble bows below
