Indianapolis, Logansport, Cincinnati and numerous other places and finally succeeded in landing a few pounds of the goose liver in Logansport. No little amount of amusement was caused by the still hunt of Elmer's for the liver, but that does not retard him in any of his undertakings. When Lebo sets his mind on something to eat for the boys that something must come if the heavens must be moved to obtain it.

Notwithstanding the fact that the boys were very busy last night, two new members were written up and added their names to applications. The new members are W. D. Jenkins of Cambridge City, and Walter Kleckhoff of Richmond.

Elmer Lebo was the most busy man in Richmond Friday and Saturday. He was hot on the trail of goose liver and gooseliver it had to be. He telegraphed to Milwaukee, telephoned to
