

MOSBAUGH IS AWAY

And Does Not Know of Charges Made by the State Accounting Agents.

VARIOUS VIEWS ON CASE

Whether or not Frank Mosbaugh of Cambridge City, the former county recorder will be compelled to make good the shortage which was discovered by the field examiners of the state board of accounts is a question viewed differently by the county officials. Mr. Mosbaugh is in the Dakotas and knows nothing of the field examiners report charging him with indebtedness to the county in the sum of $105.18.

The fact that the field examiners found him short so small an amount does not settle the authenticity of their report. Some of the county officials believe that the adjudication of the matter will be found the former recorder has to pay but a small percentage of the amount which is charged against him. He followed the advice of counsel in the administration of his office and also in small matters did at his predecessor's had done. Because he did not charge a sufficient amount for two plat records, it is probable that the South Side Improvement Association and the management of the Benton Heights addition will be compelled to pay the shortage as Mr. Mosbaugh did not charge them enough when he made the records.

History of Political Contests in New York a Stirring One

(American News Service)

New York, Nov. 1.—The election to be held next Tuesday will be the twenty-sixth contest between the Republican and Democratic parties for the governorship of New York. In twenty-five, beginning with the election of 1854, the Republicans have elected sixteen candidates and the Democrats nine. The pluralities of the winning candidates have ranged from Penton's 7,293 to Black's 212,992. These extremes are both Republican pluralities. The greatest Democratic plurality was 192,854 for Cleveland.

In the election of 1854 all elements opposed to the Democrats fused on the Whig candidate, Miron H. Clark, and he was elected. He was the last Whig and the first Republican governor. John A. King, elected in 1856, was the first straight-out Republican governor. In 1858 Edwin D. Morgan, long one of the big figures of the State, and in many respects the Mark Hanna of his time, was put up by the Republicans. The Democrats nominated Amasa J. Parker of Albany. Morgan was elected by 17,440 votes. In 1860, the Democratic party being badly split over slavery Gov. Morgan was re-elected by a plurality of 90,460, which stood for years as one of the record pluralities.

In 1862 the Democrats again rallied around their old chief, Horatio Seymour, and elected him over James W. Wadsworth by 10,752. The victory of Gettysburg and Vicksburg did much to help the Republicans elect Reuben E. Penton over Seymour in 1864. Penton was a victory won after a bitter struggle, and by a margin of only 7,293. Penton had another hard struggle to win re-election two years later. The Democratic candidate was John T. Hoffman, a Tammany Hall man. Hoffman tried again in 1868 and defeated John A. Griswold, the Republican candidate, by a plurality of 32,066. He was the last Simon-pure Tammany Hall governor. It was under his administration that Tweed reached the height of his power.

The election of John A. Dix over Francis Kernan in 1872 put the Republicans in power again. His plurality was 53,451. Dix tried for re-election in 1874, and was defeated by 50,000 by Samuel J. Tilden. The Republicans names Edwin D. Morgan again in 1876. But the Democratic national ticket of Tilden and Hendricks swept Morgan's opponent, Lucius Robinson, into office by 30,460. Two years later Robinson was defeated for re-election by the Republican candidate, Alonzo B. Cornell.

It was in 1882 that the greatest Democratic plurality was obtained. The row between Presidents Garfield and Senators Conkling and Platt led to a great Republican defection and the result was the election of the Democratic candidate, Grover Cleveland, then mayor of Buffalo, over Charles J. Folger, the Republican candidate, by the tremendous plurality of 192,854. The next election marked the return of most of the voters to their former party allegiance. David B. Hill, who had become governor in place of Grover Cleveland, who had been elected President, was elected for a full term, receiving 501,465 votes to 490,331 received by Ira Davenport, the Republican candidate.

The beginning of the long and bitter struggle between Grover Cleveland and David B. Hill marked the contest for the governorship in 1888. Hill was re-elected over Warner Miller, Republican, by a plurality of 19,171. In the next election Roswell P. Flower, Democrat, defeated J. Sloat Fassett, Republican by 47,832. Flower was the last Democratic governor. In 1894 Senator Hill was nominated by the Democrats. The Republicans named ex-Vice-President Morton, who was elected by a plurality of 156,108.

The record plurality was rolled up in 1896. The Democrats split over the silver question and Frank S. Black, the Republican candidate, was elected by 212,992. One of the greatest surprises came two years later, when Theodore Roosevelt defeated Augustus Van Wyck by the small plurality of

POLICE ARE ACTIVE

Chicago Officers Guard the Clothes Factories Very Vigilantly Today.

(American News Service)

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Fearing a repetition of the riots in the Garment Workers strike yesterday in which fifty or more persons were injured and a score arrested, the police guards at the clothes factories today was doubled and special orders issued to allow no crowds to congregate within a half mile radius of the factories.

Despite the threatened trouble, the society women who are picketing for the striking girls, insisted on sticking to their posts and were out early, trying to induce other workers to join the strike and to prevent unorganized.

Women with babies in their arms fought side by side with the men in the riots at John J. Peckle's tailoring shop, 2343 South Trumbull avenue.

When the police finally dispersed the crowd of 1,000, several had been badly injured. Trouble started when the strikers charged the building which was guarded by three policemen. A riot call was sent in and a wagonload of policemen arrived and began waging clubs vigorously.

The mob fought back, but the thirty policemen who took part soon succeeded in routing the whole thousand and arresting thirty-seven men and women.

Five thousand more were to join the strike today, according to word from the strike headquarters. This would make the total nearly 35,000.

CARD PARTY AT CLUB.

The weekly card party at the Country club will be held Thursday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Mrs. W. O. Crawford will be the hostess.

CUT OUT RAG TIME?

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 2.—The question of playing rag-time music in Sunday schools is one of the most important matters to be discussed at the annual convention of the Michigan State Sunday School association which assembled in this city today for a three days' session. A spirited debate over the subject is expected. Some of the Sunday school leaders are understood to favor the lively music as a medium to attract and interest the children, while others hold firmly to the belief that sacred songs should constitute the only music in the Sabbath schools.

COUNCIL WILL MEET

City council will meet Monday night probably in a short session. The annexation of Benton Heights and the building code ordinance, suggested by the Commercial Club, will come up.

The building ordinance is not considered practical, because it creates the office of building inspector at a salary of at least $1,200 a year, and many other expensive features. Some of the councilmen think the city has too many ordinances now that cannot be enforced.

GEORGIA WOMEN'S CLUBS

Athens, Ga., Nov. 2.—Athens extended a cordial greeting to the many visitors arrived here today for the annual meeting of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs. A meeting of the executive board was held this afternoon. The regular sessions of the convention will begin tomorrow morning.

Years of Suffering

Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For two years I have been troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sanatorium, which took a bottle of his medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

CUTICURA CURED FAMILY OF ECZEMA

Father, Mother and Child had it for 8 Months. Heads Mass of Sores. Could Not Sleep. Itching Terrible. Cured in 2 Months.

"The Cuticura treatment has absolutely cured me and family of eczema which I, my wife and two-year-old child had. I had a single pimple on the head of my child which gradually broke out in sores, and it was not long before I and my wife got the same. Our heads were one mass of sores, and we could not sleep. Itching terribly. We suffered for eight months. We tried different kinds of ointments and medicine but it did us no good and soon it began to break out on our bodies until a friend who had the same trouble told me about Cuticura Soap. I tried two bars of Cuticura Soap, and I was surprised. After the first few days our heads began to heal and in two months we were absolutely cured of the terrible sores. Eugene Pothoff, 581 Ralph Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., February 18, 1910."

No stronger evidence than this could be given of the success and economy of the Cuticura Remedies in the treatment of torturing, disfiguring hives of the skin and scalp, in children and adults. A single hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are equally effective in preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands and in preventing minor eruptions becoming chronic. A 16-page booklet giving description and treatment of skin afflictions will be sent free, on application, by the Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., 135 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.
