

MAIL CLERKS ASK SUPPORT OF CLUB

Railway Service Is Underpaid and the Work Is Too Hard, They Say.

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Commercial club last evening a lengthy letter signed by "A Railway Postal Clerk," setting forth the hardships of the hazardous occupation of these employees of Uncle Sam was presented for the directors' consideration with the request that a resolution be passed asking Indiana congressmen and senators to vote for the passage of laws giving the employees a 25 per cent increase in salary and limiting the number of hours they have to work. No definite action was taken on the matter.

The communication alleges that the salaries of the employees are not in proportion to the risk and severity of the work. It is declared that it is especially desired to have a law prohibiting the employees being called on extra duty.

A Legislative Report.
A report of the legislative committee was submitted showing that Senator Walter S. Commons has presented to the general assembly, the bill, recently prepared, providing for the establishment of a state penal farm; that Joint Representative Elmer E. Oldaker is preparing to present this week the bill providing for the districting of the cities of the state by the city councils for the purpose of having the streets systematically sprinkled each day; and that Representative Lee J. Reynolds had presented the bill establishing a shade tree commission in the cities of the state with the power to regulate the planting of all trees and see to their protection.

It was announced at the meeting by the committee having in charge the May Musical Festival that the Coliseum had been rented for May 25 and 26, when the festival will be held.

The annual election of directors will occur at the meeting of the club next Monday evening. There are seven directors to be elected. These immediately upon their election, with the eight directors whose terms do not expire until next year, will hold an executive session and elect officers for the ensuing year.

Two tickets of directors have been prepared as follows:

No. 1—Adam H. Bartel, Henry Genett, A. L. Jenkins, W. H. Quigg, J. A. Carr, George R. Dilks and George E. Seidel.

No. 2—William H. Campbell, John M. Lantz, Everett R. Lemon, Lee B. Nussbaum, M. J. Quigley, John L. Rupe and William H. Romey.

The Poor Man.

A man sent to an insane asylum with a load of coal found on his arrival the gates were open, but not knowing where to deposit the fuel he left his horse and cart outside while he went to inquire. He walked about the grounds, but failed to see any one, so made his way back to the gates, but to his horror found they were closed. He tried in vain to open them and appealed to passersby to help him, as the horse and cart belonged to him. "Fancy," said one passerby to another, "that poor man thinks he is a carter." —London Idens.

MARITAL TROUBLES AGAIN PATCHED UP

The marital troubles of March C. Lindsey and wife of Perry township, took a different angle on Tuesday with a dismissal of a petition for divorce, which the husband had applied for in the Wayne circuit court several weeks ago. After charging his wife with nearly everything in the category of abuse, apparently their differences were made up and the two are living together again. A New Castle legal firm which represented Lindsey notified the court to dismiss the suit at Lindsey's costs. About nine months ago Mrs. Della P. Lindsey filed suit for divorce but before the trial she and her husband made up their differences. They live on a productive farm north of Economy. He formerly engaged in the dry goods business at Lynn.

End of the Trail.

"I lost a pocketbook with a roll of bills in it a few weeks ago," Charlie Gibson told us. "I didn't make a fuss about it and tell the papers, but it was more than I could afford to lose. So I put a detective on it. He asked a lot of questions, looked wise and said he'd report in a day or two. Well, about three days later I found that pocketbook where I had mislaid it. I rejoiced exceedingly, and then I called up the detective agency to confess. The sleuth seemed disgusted. 'Mighty careless of you,' he said. 'And I'd just found a darned good clew too!'" —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SHIVELEY WILL BE DRAWN INTO SUIT

Attorney Charles E. Shiveley, past chancellor commander of the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias, who with Mrs. Shiveley, is wintering in Florida, will upon his return probably be called on to assist in the defense of the lodge in regard to litigation on its insurance feature, which some recalcitrant Louisiana members instituted. He was chancellor commander of the supreme lodge when the question of putting its insurance on a more scientific basis arose, and also by virtue of his office was an ex officio member of the board of control of the insurance funds. The establishment of a fifth class of insurance business on the plan of the old line companies and encouraging members to join this class, abandoning the fourth class, put the fourth class insurance in a bad way. Those members of the order who continued to stand by the fourth class insurance instituted the litigation.

MILLIONAIRE IS ON THE PENSION ROLL

Denver, Colo., Feb. 7.—Chester S. Morey, millionaire, has just been granted a pension of $12 a month from the United States. He is now eagerly awaiting the coming of the accrued sum due him and will be just as eager every three months for the payment of $36 as any other veteran.

Though president of the Great Western Sugar company, owner of a dozen of the best sugar factories of the country, Mr. Morey did not hesitate to apply for a pension as soon as he had reached the age at which he might get one without any claim of disability or need.

He justified his action by explaining that the money he would receive from the government would not be devoted to his own use. The pension money is to be given to an aged man who was Mr. Morey's comrade in the days of the war. Mr. Morey refuses, however, to make public his old comrade's name.

Mr. Morey enlisted in company I of the Thirty-sixth Wisconsin volunteers.

DOG SELECTS MASTER

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 7.—The Gibbs and the Swartz families had a field day in the Central police court yesterday over the ownership of a collie dog.

Mr. and Mrs. Swartz declared the dog was theirs. Gibbs and his wife were equally sure that the dog belonged to them, declaring it had been lost eight months.

Magistrate Scott stated that he would leave it to the dog himself, and thereupon had the dog up beside him on the bench. He asked Mrs. Swartz to call the dog, and she shouted "Marty, Marty," and the collie jumped from the bench and ran to her. The dog was then taken back, and Mrs. Gibbs was asked to call him, and she called "Rover, Rover," but the dog paid no attention.

The dog was then handed over to Mrs. Swartz.
