

A MASS MEETING AT EATON SUNDAY

Adopt Resolution Appealing to Governor to frustrate Dean Measure.

Eaton, O., Feb. 20.—Resolutions appealing to Governor Harmon to do all in his power to frustrate the adoption of the Dean Local Option bill, and urging Hon. Earl H. Irvin, assemblyman from Preble county, to vote against the measure, were adopted Sunday afternoon at a mass meeting of citizens held at the Opera house.

Hon. Lindley G. Long, judge of the police court of Dayton, was the chief speaker at the gathering and gave a stirring temperance address, reciting conditions as he found them in the discharge of his official duties, and discussing causes and effects. The opera house was crowded with people interested in the measure now before the legislature and which will come to a vote this week. Judge Long's address met with frequent applause and seemed to make a profound impression upon his hearers.

Concluding his interesting talk, which contained some surprising figures, the speaker declared his belief in state-wide prohibition as near future measure and insisted that the Dean bill became a law there would not be another democratic legislature in Ohio within the next two decades.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon league, and is believed to have been arranged in the hope of influencing Hon. Earl H. Irvin, who is now classed in the doubtful column, to cast his ballot against the measure. It has been freely predicted that Mr. Irvin would favor the measure, because it is known he received the support of the liquor adherents in the last campaign, but great pressure has been brought to bear upon him lately and it will determine the final count of votes to determine his attitude.

FEAR FOR APPONYI

Chicago Police to Guard the Famous Hungarian.

(American News Service)

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Dr. Ernest A. Loewinger, president of the Hungarian American federation has been threatened with death unless he withdraws from his position as chairman of the reception committee which will this afternoon receive Count Apponyi, the former Hungarian minister of education, when he arrives in Chicago.

Dr. Loewinger declared today that three men called upon him yesterday and told him that if he did not retire he would get into serious trouble.

Later he declares, a man called him on the telephone and told him he would be killed if he persists in his attitude toward the count, who has incurred the hatred of many Slavs because of his insistence upon the teaching of the Magyar language in all Hungarian schools.

Dr. Loewinger has asked a police guard for Count Apponyi, who is due in Chicago at six o'clock this evening.

BESCHER PUTS ONE OVER ON DOC GENN

Again in the role of the best of his kind, Street Commissioner D. C. Genn said this morning, if all the sand he had ever shoveled was placed in a single pile it would be twice as high as the city hall. "That was a good one 'Doc,'" commented Clerk Baltz Baschier, "but I've got one on you. If all the boilers I've ever built were placed on end it would make a pile five times as high as the Washington monument at the Capital." Genn "lowed the beers were on him and the meeting broke up.

ONE WAYNE COUNTY GIRL WAS WINNER

Selected Substitute on District Team for State Spelling Bee.

After spelling for five hours, Miss Edith Stevenson of Williamsburg, was rewarded by being selected as a member of the team of the best spellers of the Sixth district. This team will enter the state contest at Indianapolis in March. The district spelling bee was held in Connersville on Saturday, there being three contestants from this county. The district winners were Levin Litzenberger of Henry county, aged about ten years, Naomi Frank of Hancock county and Gladys Tittsworth of Rush county, with Miss Stevenson as substitute in case any of the above are unable to enter the state contest.

Edna Linderman of Greensfork, and Gladys Harris of Webster, the other two Wayne county contestants in the district match were spelled down rather early in the contest. These little Misses were affected with stage fright, according to visitors who accompanied the county team. Miss Linderman was proclaimed county champion in a test match held recently.

The opera house in Connersville, where the spelling "bee" was held, was crowded, there being a number from this county in attendance. There were twenty-four contestants, all counties in the district with the exception of Shelby being represented.

After every word in the spelling had been given and the supply from other sources, excepting the dictionary, had been exhausted, the judges called for a recess, and a committee was selected, which after much research found a hundred words of the hardest kind in the text books. There were six contestants still standing when these words were given. "Macistrom" and "osier" caused two of the six to step down. Miss Stevenson was given the word "illimitable" and missed and the spelling bee was adjourned. She will substitute in case any of the other three can not go on in the state contest.

"Seldom" was spelled with an "n" by Miss Linderman, she being the sixth to go down. She spelled for an hour. Miss Harris was up for two hours, but missed "solemn" by substituting "o" for "e." She was the ninth contestant to miss. Miss Harris seemed to be frightened and this is accounted for her inability to spell the word.

LABOR BODIES OF WEST VIRGINIA MEET

(American News Service)

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 20.—Several score of delegates representing trades unions throughout the State assembled in this city today for the fourth annual convention of the West Virginia branch of the American Federation of Labor. The convention will last several days and will consider legislative measures and other matters of importance in the cause of labor. The annual reports of the officers show that the State federation made gratifying gains in membership during the past year.

OLD CAR APPEARS WITH NEW OUTFIT

That promised relief from old and filthy, dirty street cars came Saturday when No. 308 put in its appearance in a new dress of paint and showing respectability in some other ways. The car should be the pride of the city and the envy of all other cars on the system, despite the fact it is said to be the same one that was banged up in a collision with an interurban car, east of the city, in the fall.

APPEAL CERTAIN IN STREET CASE

No Matter What Jury's Verdict Is Such Action Is Regarded Probable.

The hearing of the South N street controversy between the South Side Improvement association and the C. & O. of Indiana railroad was resumed in the circuit court Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock with yardmaster Clevenger on the stand and under cross examination by attorney P. J. Freeman. The attempt was made to bring out that the yard master thought the present yards were sufficient for ordinary purposes and would be able to accommodate all freights as soon as the additional two tracks were laid. He however, did not commit himself definitely, sparing with the attorneys over one question and another, forgetting some of the testimony which he was alleged to have given on direct examination on Friday, and having to study over other matters about which he was asked.

The railroad company expected to have all its evidence in by evening and then the evidence in rebuttal will be introduced. This will not require more than a half day, it is believed, as little attempt will be made to refute the testimony of expert witnesses. The arguments probably will begin on Tuesday with counsel for the South Side Improvement association opening and closing. It is thought that the jury will be given the case on Wednesday. Whatever decision the jury makes, it is probable an appeal will be taken to the higher courts of the state.

With appropriation bills in badly contested condition with the Lorimer case pending, with the permanent tariff board bill pressing for consideration, with the general service pension bill being urged by many senators and with the resolutions of senators coming up daily as the unfinished business, the chances for action upon the Canadian reciprocity agreement are slight. Of course, however, conditions may change.

Opponents of the reciprocity agreement are viewing with complacency the contested conditions existing in that body.

The house bills are such that a vote of reciprocity can be avoided easily without the appearance of a filibuster. The bill carrying the agreement into effect will probably not be reached before Thursday at the earliest. At that time there will remain only seven and a half legislative days of the present session.

SWITCH TO LORIMER

From a Defeated Man He Now Appears a Winner.

(Palladium Special)

Washington, Feb. 20.—There has been a rift in the clouds for Lorimer. A week ago he would have been unseated; some of his supporters in the senate were urging him to resign and save himself from the humiliation of his expulsion. But he "stood pat." Now every indication points to a victory for him.

Three things have contributed to change the situation in his favor. These are the speech of Baily of Texas, resentment by senators of the methods employed by Chicago newspapers fighting Lorimer which have attacked the senators mercilessly, and the Canadian reciprocity agreement. The last consideration has been one of the most influential. Senators opposing Canadian reciprocity have traded with the Lorimer people for votes. There can be no doubt that if a vote were taken today Lorimer would win hands down. The vote will probably be taken Wednesday immediately following a speech by Lorimer in his own behalf. Lorimer's opponents today conceded his lead after taking a careful poll.

WITHOUT MEANING TO VIOLATE LAWS

Trustees of New Garden, Clay and Green townships have unwittingly been violating the law. This is also true of many other township trustees in the state. On request of the state board of education, attorney general Honan of Indianapolis, gave it as his opinion that the elementary schools of a township had to be run as long as the commissioned high schools were. In the above three townships the grade schools were closed a month or so before the high schools. Accordingly, in order to rectify the matter, the state board with the endorsement of the county superintendents of the state, have introduced a bill in the lower house, known as No. 616, to legalize the operation of schools in townships as they have been in the past. The school officials feel that the high school should be operated for longer periods in the year than the common schools.

AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS SURE

Canadian Treaty and Other Important Matters Are Requiring Action.

(American News Service)

Washington, Feb. 20.—Both Senators and congressmen are preparing for an extra session. They expect it to convene about March 15 and many of them are making preparations to hurry to their homes immediately after the present session ends and prepare their affairs for a long stay in Washington.

The first authoritative announcement that President Taft will call an extra session if the senate fails to act on the McCall bill, carrying into effect the Canadian reciprocity agreements, has come from Mr. McCall himself, following an interview with the president at the White House. According to McCall's announcement, the president feels that he is under an international obligation to summon an extra session, if it be necessary, to secure action on the reciprocity agreement.

It Came Too Late.

While it is the purpose of the president in permitting the announcement of Mr. McCall to avoid an extra session by inducing Senators to act upon the agreement, it is the opinion of many about the capitol that in all probabilities the statement has come too late.

With appropriation bills in badly contested condition with the Lorimer case pending, with the permanent tariff board bill pressing for consideration, with the general service pension bill being urged by many senators and with the resolutions of senators coming up daily as the unfinished business, the chances for action upon the Canadian reciprocity agreement are slight. Of course, however, conditions may change.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Mr. Neff returned last night from Anderson where he attended a meeting of the high school principals' club Friday and Saturday. This club discussed several high school problems, the most important one being "How and Where to Find Good Teachers." They also formed an organization to assist each other in this matter. The principals were entertained at the Anderson club Friday evening. The club will meet here next October. The new building and the new work being done here made every member anxious to visit Richmond. Mr. Neff went from Anderson Saturday afternoon to Marion to attend a meeting there of the state athletic board. There were several schools on trial for irregularities in their playing. North Manchester, Roann, Matthews, Eaton, Andrews, Peru, Rochester and South Bend were all censured severely for their conduct in athletic contests. North Manchester and Roann were forbidden to play each other. The board did not complete its business and so will meet again at Indianapolis in about two weeks. Rose Poly had a representative at the meeting Saturday to complete arrangements for the high school state meet which will be held at Terre Haute, May 19. The contestants will be taken care of by the students.

Miss Tallant has returned to her classes after a few days absence on account of illness.

The Pedestrian club, composed of about twenty girls under the direction of Miss Tallant, has ordered pins and will reorganize as soon as they come.

The old members of the girls basketball league will give a "spread" to the new members in the gymnasium Saturday afternoon. About fifty are expected to attend.

The Kit Kat club, a literary society composed of sophomores, will meet Thursday evening. A special program has been arranged.

The debate postponed from last week will be held the eighth hour tomorrow. This week's regular debate will be held Thursday evening. The subject for both debates is "Resolved

That the commission plan of government is desirable and practical for the cities of the United States." This subject is the one chosen for the debates between Kokomo and Marion.

The debate with Marion will be held April 26 and the one with Kokomo May 19. The first try out will be held March 24 at which time six students will be chosen. March 31 by another try out four of these six will be chosen to represent this school at the debates.

The basketball team will go to Marion Saturday to play at that place. The team defeated Rushville here Friday evening by a score of 30 to 23.

They have four more games to play before the season is finished. These games are with Marion, Connersville, Portland and Rushville. All are out of town games.

UNCLE SAM TAKES A HAND IN CASE

Secret Service Men of Postal Department to Probe Centerville Theft.

(Palladium Special)

Washington, Feb. 20.—Inventory made by Postmaster Thomas Dunbar of this place as to the exact loss incurred by the burglarizing of the office safe on Saturday morning shows the total value of the stamps taken was $625 together with about $13 in money. The loss so far as the stamps are concerned will fall entirely upon the government, it is understood, as the postal department does not ask its agents to stand responsible for the loss of stamps.

Authorities do not admit that they have any more information than gained on Saturday. Apparently they are standing aside awaiting the investigation by the postal inspectors. The government will not spare any expense or time in running down the yeggmen and no doubt if they succeed the perpetrators of several safe blowings in the past central part of Indiana this winter will have been run to earth.
