

RENEWED EFFORTS TO BE PUT FORTH TO HELP EARLHAM

Campaign Will Be Made in
This City to Raise $70,000
Debt of College by First of the Year.

leges and the same advantage of the income of the General fund.

Ninety-one of the students were from 14 other states.

The Bundy dormitory, the library, the heating plant and electric lighting cost over $120,000, $55,000 of which was donated by three individuals. The principal part of the indebtedness of the college arose from the erection of these very necessary improvements.

On behalf of the committee, Geo. H. Knollenberg, Chairman Indorsement and Appeal of the Commercial Club.

The Commercial club of Richmond, takes this means of giving emphatic indorsement to the effort of Earlham college to liquidate its building debt. For more than sixty years this excellent institution has furnished to the aspiring young men and women of our city the opportunity to secure a sound and thorough education. Hundreds of them have taken advantage of this opportunity. As a result the level of our citizenship has been raised at home and the fame of our city and her institutions has been spread abroad. Many Richmond men and women have laid the foundation at Earlham college for most honorable careers. To-day more than three-fourths of all our youth who press forward for a college education do so at the home college. Without the intellectual and spiritual influences which Earlham affords, the city would be bereft of one of its finest assets. Our children get the cultural advantages of the college atmosphere and do not lose the benefit of their normal home life.

The plant and endowment of the college are conservatively estimated at $700,000.00. The annual budget is $100,000.00, and in addition to this thousands of dollars are spent annually in Richmond by members of the college. Within the last few years permanent improvements aggregating $125,000.00 have been made. Most of the money making up these sums has been contributed by outside parties. Never has the college received a cent of money from public funds—national, state, county, or municipal. The college is in almost continual session and has a total annual enrollment of six hundred students. It is a philanthropic institution and is maintained by voluntary contributions.

The present administration of the college has the most kindly and sympathetic attitude toward the city. The members of the Faculty identify themselves actively and intelligently with our best interests. Because the college is here many families make this city their home. Every form of business represented in the Commercial club is quickened because Earlham is Richmond's institution. The college is advancing each year and greater things are yet to be.

In consideration of such facts as these the Commercial club pledges its moral support and urges its members to give liberal financial support in the effort now being put forth to wipe out the building debt by January 1, 1911, and we urge our citizens to contribute liberally of their means that this may be accomplished.

The foregoing resolution was unanimously indorsed by the Board of Directors of the club at the regular May meeting and recommended to the club for its adoption. At the meeting of the club on May 9, the resolution was presented and, with much favorable comment and a unanimous vote, the club indorsed it. It further authorized the committee to take whatever steps it desired to aid in the movement, with additional authority to increase the committee if desired.

Respectfully,
E. M. Haas, Secretary
S. E. Swayne, President.

Another Delay in a Long Drawn Out Litigation.

The case of the Craighood Plumbing and Electrical company against A. H. Brown, owner of the Westcott hotel, which has almost continuously demanded the attention of the Wayne circuit court since March 11, was postponed from Thursday until Saturday, Special Judge John L. Rupp, presiding in the case had an engagement at Indianapolis on Masonic business while John P. Robbins, one of the counsel for the plumbing and electrical company, was in Indianapolis, conferring in regard to the hearing to be given Dr. S. G. Smelser of this city. Dr. Smelser is a member of the state board of medical registration and his removal is sought on that ground of alleged incompetency. The case will come up in Indianapolis on April 3, unless postponed. It is probable that the result of the hearing, if favorable to the local physician will be followed by several sensational suits for damages for slander. It is probable a postponement of the hearing will be asked as the Craighood-Brown case will not be completed for at least another week. The arguments will take four or five days.

MOP AND DUSTER ROUT LECTURER

Speaker on Art Gives Way to Determined Intruder with "Better Subject."

Chicago, March 31.—Flourishing a mop and a feather duster, Mrs. F. B. Davidson, of the Women's City club, made the members of the West End Mothers' association gasp with astonishment Thursday.

The women had gathered in the John Marshall school for the monthly meeting of the club to listen to psychological discourse on the relation of paintings, poetry and music by George W. Eggers of the state normal school. They were first compelled to listen to an unannounced lecture on sanitation of public buildings by Mrs. Davidson.

"Stand up, ladies," she said, entering the room as meeting was about to be called to order. "I want to show you the dirty condition of the chairs on which you are sitting and which your children use day after day."

With a wave of her dust rags and brush she walked from chair to chair wielding her implements vigorously. By the time the furniture had been treated, the women were sufficiently recovered to listen to Mrs. Davidson while she discussed proper methods of school ventilation. Finding a ventilator flue unsatisfactory, she took a number of the members of the club with her to the principal's office while she registered a complaint with Mrs. Ella Flagg Young by telephone. Mrs. Young promised that the matter would be referred to the proper committee.

"I am devoting all my time to the inspection of public buildings, especially school buildings," announced Mrs. Davidson. "Art lectures are well enough, but the proper sanitation of the buildings which your children stay in for hours every day is more important. You may listen to Mr. Eggers when I am through, but I am going to show you that the building in which you are meeting today is unfit for school purposes."

A few members of the club were indignant at what they termed the intrusion of Mrs. Davidson. Others treated the matter as a comedy and warned late comers against taking dancing seats in the room, telling them the dust would spoil their finery.

After Mrs. Davidson had finished her discourse, Mr. Eggers gave his lecture, using stereopticon views and a phonograph to show the relation between works of the painter's art and classic music.

Merely an Accessory.

Spokane Will be Given Very Thorough Cleaning in April

(Palladium Special)

Spokane, Wash., March 31.—One of the most unique and wholesome spectacles ever witnessed on this continent will be the cleaning and special arbor day celebration in Spokane the latter part of April, when the city commissioners will cooperate with the residents in an effort to make Spokane a "spotless town." Mayor William J. Hindley will proclaim a public holiday to start the campaign, after which the City Beautiful committee of the Chamber of Commerce and allied organizations will take charge.

"Our arrangements are not yet completed," Mayor Hindley said, "but I believe we can bring out from 45,000 to 50,000 men and women, including railroad and bank presidents, manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers and society matrons on the opening day to assist in beautifying the residence districts. The city crematorium will take care of the business streets and alleys and special detachments of firemen will be on hand to avert fires. The refuse will be destroyed under their direction."

Aubrey Lee White, president of the Spokane park commission, is the organizer of the municipal cleaning day plan, first worked out in this city early in the spring of 1906 through the City Beautiful committee of the 150,000 club, now headed by C. Herbert Moors, formerly mayor of the city. It has become an annual institution in Spokane and has been taken up by other cities in the United States and the Dominion of Canada.

Twenty thousand men, women and school children participated in the first annual cleaning day, five years ago. The army of volunteer workers, composed of people from all walks of life, was under the direction of City Engineer Henry J. Lillenthal, who was marshal of the day. The men and boys were armed with shovels, piling implements and rakes, while the women and girls assisted in planting trees and shrubs and other seeds. They worked from early morning until the sun passed from view behind the Western hills and the results were highly satisfactory.

Five hundred teams were provided by the 150,000 club, mill owners, business houses and residents, generally to haul the garbage to the municipal incinerating plants, and special firemen were stationed in various parts of the city and outskirts to supervise the destruction of refuse by bonfires. Business was suspended during the hours the people were engaged in cleaning the city.

The 150,000 club turned out its entire membership of 3,200 in command of Ben H. Rice, then secretary of the organization and the Mc-Mow & Nicks, the woman's auxiliary, headed by Mrs. P. F. Smery, assisted the school girls with the planting of shrubs and flowering vines and seeding plots of ground. Ten thousand packets of flower seeds were used. When Spokane awakened the next morning the city presented the appearance of a new pin.

Beautification and artistic improvements were noticeable in all parts of the city and it was generally conceded that the first cleaning day campaign was one of the most successful semi-civic movements carried to a successful conclusion in Spokane and the Northwest. Then and there it was decided to devote one day each year to this work. Afterward the campaign was extended to cover six days closing with an arbor day celebration the last afternoon of the week.

Another movement in connection with the cleaning day plan was the organization of the Spokane Tree Planting association with 10,000 active members among the children above the third grade in the public schools. Pupils promising to plant one or more trees or shrubs a year are eligible to free memberships. The certificates presented to the children contain full instructions in taking up and transplanting trees and shrubs, also hints on caring for the plants. To defray the expense of the organization special membership cards were sold to adults at $1 each.

The City Beautiful committee is declared to be one of the best organized bodies in America. In addition to the chairman and permanent secretary, there is a vice chairman in each ward, a captain in each precinct and a lieutenant in every block within the incorporated city limits. There also is a joint committee of 20 business men, making up a sub-committee on cleaning day, public buildings, parks, drive-ways and alleys, streets, bridges and tree planting. The joint committee meets twice a week, when plans are submitted for discussion, and upon adoption the work is carried out through the captains in the various wards.

The older boys in colleges and high schools are organized to assist the officers of the association in reporting districts or lots that require attention. The captains and lieutenants of the companies of boys make tours of every block in their neighborhoods, to oversee the work. They are supplied with blanks to make reports on the cation of ashpiles, refuse-littered alleys, neglected lawns and trees and broken fences and sidewalks, and as soon as these are checked the work of betterment begins.

The success of the several campaigns resulted in the formation of a civic plan commission, consisting of 50 liberal and esthetically educated business and professional men to work out a practical program for water, sewer, transportation, parks, and boulevard system and municipal art in Spokane for the next fifty years. Experts declare this is one of the most important and far-reaching pieces of business wisdom yet advanced by any American city.

George Wharton James, one of the foremost municipal art critics in America, said after examining the Spokane plan:

"I look upon Spokane as one of the most—if not the most—enlightened and hopeful of the younger cities in regard to general civic improvement. That the United States has today, and I heartily commend its spirit to those who are seeking the way to educate and arouse public sentiment in their own cities as to what should and can be done."

Constipated all His Life Now Cured—Trial Free

One of the most harassing of troubles, though fortunately not fatal, is constipation, and millions of people suffer with it from infancy to old age. Its cause may be traced to any one of a dozen different circumstances of diet, environment and even birth.

Millions are practically born with constipation. Had they used intelligent methods at the beginning perhaps they would have found relief, but they had the usual misfortune of bad advice. They tried dieting, stewed fruits, then laxative waters, then pills and various other cathartics, and so in the end made matters worse. But there is still hope, even for the seemingly hopeless.

Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Grip Peppin? It has been on the market for many years and is as staple in the households of those who know its value as salt and sugar. It is a liquid laxative-remedy that you can buy of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size. But if you prefer to learn its value personally before buying, then send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample.

It is without doubt the best laxative for constipation that you can find, and in every way the best remedy for that and headaches due to constipation, indigestion or dyspepsia, heartburn, drowsiness after eating, gas on the stomach, biliousness and similar troubles. It is a mild, gentle remedy free from gripping and bad taste. Children take to it readily. It is a standby in the homes of Mr. George W. Zimmerman, of 1817 N. 6th St., Harrisburg, Pa.; Robert Atkinson, Sr., of Cuba, Ill., and thousands of others.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy adds his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 551 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.
