RICHMOND, INDIANA "PANIC PROOF CITY"

Has a population of 25,000 and is growing. It is the county

This Is My 32nd Birthday

LUKE LEA.
Luke Lea, who has just taken his seat as United States senator from Tennessee, was born in Nashville, April 12, 1879. His great-grandfather was the late Col. Luke Lea, a distinguished soldier and member of congress. Senator Lea left college only seven years ago and has the distinguished honor of the youngest senator in the present congress. His education was received at the University of the South and the Columbia university law school. After receiving his degree from the latter institution he began the practice of law in Nashville.
Three years later at the age of twenty-six he was a delegate to the Tennessee Democratic state convention and in that stormy gathering he secured the nomination of Malcolm Patterson for governor. The next year Mr. Lea "inspired" against the Democratic leaders, affiliated himself with the prohibitionists and, coming out as an independent, founded a newspaper in Nashville to promote the interests of his faction. From that time in he was an influential factor in Tennessee politics and his election to the senate followed as a matter of course when his faction held the balance of power in the legislature. Senator Lea is a Democrat of the progressive type and is expected to align himself in the senate.

The Lorimer Tragedy

Michael Link, who was indicted for perjury in the Lorimer case and turned State's evidence, was found dead yesterday. Apoplexy killed him.
He had expected death, arranged his affairs for it, warned his friends.
There can be little doubt that his connection with the scandal of Lorimer had shortened his life.

It is useless, the attempt to take a light or flippant view of this matter. It is a ghastly tragedy of American politics. Link lies dead of it.
With the $2,500 that he deposited to his credit in Chicago, Holstlaw accepted and must always feel the contempt of those who had respected him as the banker of a little country town. White and Beckmeyer, self-confessed takers of bribes, find their avowal no jest. Browne, who wore the blue belt stuffed with bank-bills about his waist, and Manny Abrahams, the bell-wether of the bribed, can scarcely enjoy their public prominence.

Suave, smiling and cynical, the man whose triumph has cost so much anguish and shadowed so many homes still sits in the Senate. He was chosen in Springfield by the mysterious votes of 53 Democrats and only 48 of his own party members. In Washington 22 out of 57 Senators of his party faith voted to deprive him of his seat. That is the title by which he holds. Is it good enough—in view of the new testimony brought out at Springfield—for the present Senate?—New York World.

SUFFRAGETTES WILL DEVELOP MUSCLES

(American News Service)

New York, April 12.—Plans of the English suffragettes to develop their muscles and place their strength on a par with a man's, received the enthusiastic endorsement in New York today. It is the plan of the women's development society, just organized in London to knock the props out from under the old denomination of women as the weaker sex. A similar Amazon-ian propaganda is advocated for America.

"I am heartily in accord with the idea of stronger women," said Mrs.
Sophia Loebinger, leader of the American militants today. "There are certain persons who contend that the basis of the ballot is brawn, not brain; that it is man's ability to fight for his country and his supposed superiority of mind that makes him the race dictator. Of course that is ridiculous.
The birth of every child represents a battle and it is a matter of record that more women have been sacrificed through maternity than men have perished on the battlefield. Women are more courageous than men. They bear pain better."
"Do you think that Joan of Arc endured agony equal to the half man whose dinner was fifteen minutes late.
Woman have courage and endurance and all they need now is lessons in scientific way to develop their muscle."

The Ladies of South Eighth Street Friends' Church will have an all day market, Saturday, in the Leeds Room, No. 824 Main Street.

FAIRBANKS TO SPEAK AT PARKER MEMORIAL

celebration will be held at the home of the society in this city, April 27. A number of prominent men will speak, including former Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks.

OREGON SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

hundred delegates, representing the state, are in Eugene for the 26th annual convention of the Oregon Sunday school association, which met today for a three days' session. Sixty of the most prominent Sunday school workers on the Pacific coast are on the program for addresses.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Atlanta probably will bid for the Democratic national convention next year.

The Anti-Prohibitionists have made decided gains in the recent local option elections in Indiana.

United States Senator Thomas H.
Paynter, of Kentucky, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for re-election.

Elmer J. Burkett, of Nebraska, who completed his term in the United States senate on March 4, has returned to the practice of law in Lincoln.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to speak before the members of the Wisconsin legislature in Madison on April 15.

Governor Hadley will be the chief speaker at the annual banquet of the Association of Young Republicans of Missouri, to be given in Kansas City on April 15.

Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, the youngest member of the new Ways and Means committee, won national fame by his speech on the Payne bill.

A constitutional amendment granting the right to suffrage to women will be passed upon by the voters of California at a special election to be held next October.

Congressman Oile James, who hopes to be the next United States senator from Kentucky, has been in politics almost since boyhood, having served his apprenticeship as a page in the Kentucky legislature.

Representative Winfield S. Hammond, of the Second Minnesota district, is the only Democrat, with the exception of former Governor John Lind, whom the State of Minnesota has sent to Congress in many years.

A fact not generally known is that William H. Taft and Judson Harmon, who may be the rival candidates for president next year, are both members of the faculty of the law department of the University of Cincinnati.

Congressman Lincoln Dixon, of Indiana, who is a member of the new Ways and Means committee of the house, is a country lawyer and belongs to the old school of Indiana Democrats that included Thomas P. Hendricks and Daniel Voorhees.

In the event of Governor Donaghey of Arkansas declining to become a candidate for a third nomination, it is said his friends will urge the nomination of John I. Moore of Helena, who is known to favor the state policies advocated by the present governor.

Congressman Cordell Hull of Tenn-nessee, enlisted in the volunteer army as a private at the beginning of the Spanish war and emerged as a captain. He is known as one of the quiet, earnest workers on the Democratic side of the house. Though seldom heard in debate on the floor, he is nevertheless strong in the councils of the party.

Randolph Wiley, a Democrat, has announced his intention to contest the seat of Congressman James A. Hughes of the Fifth West Virginia district, the only Republican, according to the returns, who was elected to congress at the last election. Mr. Wiley asserts that Mr. Hughes is not a citizen of the United States, that he was born in Canada and that no record of naturalization can be found.

Rushville, Ind., April 12.—Fearing that he would die and that his wife would have no proof to draw his pension, since they had no certificate of asked for his marriage certificate. He was married here, December 29, 1859, account of injuries received in a trol-

The musician testified that since the accident he has been unable to "wiggle his fingers" and therefore unable to collect $125 each week which he alleged he had been in the habit of receiving for playing. Since the accident he has been forced to wear a

To the Editor:

I have read with much interest the recent reports on the ventilation of our school buildings and other matters pertaining to the welfare of our children while at their daily work in our public schools, but in my estimation one of the most vital points has not been mentioned.

Why is there not a fire escape on our high school building? This seems to me a most momentous question and one that should be given immediate consideration.

It may be true that this is a "fire proof" building, but can a building be made absolutely fire proof? Again, it may be that daily drills are given to the pupils, but these are not an absolute safeguard in time of fire. We all know how apt one is to become excited at such time, and how much more this applies to children than to adults. Think for a moment what would happen in our high school if the first floor was ablaze, cutting off the chance of escape through the front doors on this floor. There would certainly be a panic, the results of which we do not want to even imagine.

We have just read of a most unfortunate fire in New York City with dreadful loss of life, and God only knows how many of these poor creatures could have been saved had they the proper means of exit.

Richmond cannot afford to lose any of her children. They are the flowers of our life in whom we place our greatest hopes for the future, and it is our duty to protect them in every way.

Let us have fire escapes on our school buildings, and, in particular, the high school, no matter what it costs.
