

"BILL" ENDICOTT HEADS COLE TEAM

Re-enters Dangerous Sport in Order to Purchase Another Farm.

(Palladium Special)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 6.—"Farmer Bill" Endicott has come back. The glare and glamour that surrounds the big 500-mile race on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, May 30, was too much for him to stay down on his farm near Crawfordsville, Ind., and "Farmer Bill" is to drive the Cole "30" Wizard in the big race. J. J. Cole, president of the Cole Motor Car company, has entered the Cole Wizard for Endicott; also a regular Cole "30" racing car, the driver of which is yet to be selected.

It was a huge surprise when "Farmer Bill" Endicott stepped into Mr. Cole's office and made known the fact that he was uncomfortable because the Cole was not to be run in the race. It was only a five minutes conversation that brought him back, temporarily, to be the head of the Cole racing organization and caused Mr. Cole to send his check to the Speedway officials, making the Cole entries officially numbers 42 and 43.

"Farmer Bill" has been arranging his spring farm duties in hope of a big crop for the coming season. He has kept away from automobile circles. But, a visit to Indianapolis and the tremendous excitement that characterizes the coming race and the fact that his pride and pet, the Cole "30," was not entered made him gloomy.

"Mr. Cole," queried Endicott, "why isn't the Cole in the 500-mile race?" "Well, Bill," confessed Mr. Cole, "we were just waiting for you to come back."

It was a random shot but "Farmer Bill" was ready for the emergency and said:

"I'm game, you furnish me the car and I'm your driver. That $10,000 looks good to me. It would buy another farm."

Negotiations were promptly closed. Mr. Cole decided that Endicott should drive a Cole special and "Farmer Bill" said that it ought to be called the "Wizard." In addition to the "Wizard" it was decided that a regular Cole "30" racer should also be entered in the 500-mile race.

Endicott did not go back to the farm. He telephoned for Mrs. Endicott to hire a farm hand and bring the children to Indianapolis.

"Farmer Bill" went into the racing shop at the Cole factory and quietly changed his clothes for his kakis racing suit still in his locker. It was not long before he had the various mechanics jumping about, getting the material ready for his big car.

The old happy smile of Bill's played around his face. He was like a school boy. Bronzed all over from his farm work, without a thought he would ev-

THE STOLEN HORSE.

An Old Proverb With a New Application.

The woods are full of "so-called" remedies for Baldness. You may call anything in creation a remedy, but to use them is like locking the stable after the horse is stolen. Baldness and Dandruff are caused by a germ—if you don't kill the germ the germ will kill the hair.

Scientists have labored with the problem of a preventative for Baldness for many years.

Newbro's Herpicide is the product of a modern idea and will cure Dandruff and prevent Baldness because germs cannot exist when you apply Herpicide.

Herpicide is a valuable hair dressing and scalp disinfectant as well as a cure for Dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. A. G. Luken & Co., special agents.

er change his mind to come back to the racing game, Endicott has entered into the spirit of the occasion just as it was only yesterday that he stepped out of the Cole racing camp and retired to the farm.

During the 1910 season Endicott won more than $10,000 cash, with which he purchased a farm near Crawfordsville. Among his prominent victories last year were a world's speed record at Los Angeles, a successful completion of two 24-hour races and winning the classic Massapequa trophy in the Vanderbilt cup race.

EARLHAM SHUT OUT BY DEPAUW TEAM

Greencastle, Ind., May 6.—De Pauw blanked Earlham yesterday, 5 to 0, in an unusual game in which Patterson, the De Pauw pitcher, allowed no hits and no bases on balls. A two-bagger by Johnson brought in one run for De Pauw in the second. No more scoring was done until the eighth, when a single by Johnson, followed by a three-bagger by Hardin and a long drive to the fence behind center field, brought in four runs. Hays, the Earlham pitcher, allowed four hits. Coach Jack Grimm, of Indianapolis, who now has charge of the De Pauw team, was on the bench for the first time. Coach Grimm formerly caught for the Brooklyn Nationals. Score:

M'NAMARA SR. IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

Efforts Being Made to Locate Father of Alleged Dynamiters.

(Palladium Special)

Cincinnati, May 6.—Old residents in Cumminsville are wondering what has become of John McNamara, father of J. J. McNamara and James B. McNamara, under arrest in Los Angeles in connection with dynamiting there. The father was sentenced to the penitentiary in the local courts for an assault upon his daughter, Mary. In 1894, his sentence was commuted to 20 years as the result of a change in the law applicable to the crimes for which he was convicted. About a year ago application was made for his parole. Mrs. McNamara, who has lived with her daughter and two sons, Daniel and Robert, at the family home in Cumminsville, protested against it, but the pardon board granted the application and the father was paroled last fall. So far as is known he never returned to Cincinnati, but is supposed to be in the vicinity of Columbus now.

The boys, John J., who was known by his middle name, Joe, and James, known as Jim, were both in Cincinnati until a few years ago. James worked for several years at the traction company power house in Cumminsville, where he learned the trade of electrician. Later he went with the Westinghouse company in Cleveland. It was thought among his Cumminsville acquaintances that he had educated himself to be an expert electrician and had a responsible position in Cleveland.

Cumminsville residents give an unusual explanation of the fact that Jim was arrested under the name of J. C. Bryce. They say that when Jim was a youth his boon companion in Cumminsville was Cornelius Bryce, who died about ten years ago. The boys were almost constantly together. When it was announced that a man giving the name of "J. C. Bryce" was arrested and was supposed to be James McNamara of Cincinnati, some of the Cumminsville residents at once said "That's Jim all right. He has taken the last name of his old friend."

The mother is known as a religious woman and is a member of St. Patrick's church in Cumminsville. When the McNamara boys were in school Father Hickey, now of Holy Name church, Mt. Auburn, was pastor of St. Patrick's church, and he is credited with having done more for the boys than probably any other person. It is said it was through his influence that they all were given good educations at St. Joseph's college on West Eighth street. After John J. went to Indianapolis and became a power in the Iron Workers' union he sent for his youngest sister, Alice. She was employed in his office and later became his stenographer. Last summer she was married and is now living in Arizona.

Years ago Mr. McCarthy had made the acquaintance of the family of the Anderson young lady and a warm friendship resulted. The wealthy farmer had no relatives to his knowledge and left the bulk of his estate to Miss Roach. The farm is valued at $35,000 and Miss Roach will also be the recipient of $10,000 in cash provided she marries within a stipulated time.

The Seven Sleepers. The seven sleepers were seven noble youths of Ephesus, who in the time of the Decian persecutions, it is said, fled to a certain cavern for refuge. They were pursued, discovered and walled in the cave, the perpetrators of the deed hoping to mete out a cruel and horrible death. However, according to the legend, they were made to fall asleep and were miraculously kept alive for nearly two centuries. Their names are given as Maximian, Malchus, Martinian, Denis, John, Serapion and Constantine.

INHERITS $50,000 IF SHE WILL MARRY

Anderson, May 6.—Family friendship for years standing is responsible for Miss Lulu Roach of this city having received a rich legacy, according to a will probated in Jasper county, Illinois. J. E. McCarthy was a wealthy farmer living near Willow Hill, Ill., who never married. During life he had been a quiet but thrifty man and amassed a fortune consisting of 360 acres of land and $10,000 in cash.

THRASHED MOTORIST

Pedestrian Was Struck and Rolled in Dust.

(Palladium Special)

Providence, May 6.—The worm, the pedestrian, having been rolled in the dust for five yards, turned on the automobile driver. John Hamilton, a muscular young fellow, who was the man in the road, got even with John Olsen, the man in the car.

Biff! Olsen got it in one of his automobile "lamps"—a fearful blow in his right eye. Bang! Another blow and Olsen's other lamp was put out of business. Smash! A blow on the jaw made Olsen dizzy and so disabled his steering apparatus.

Hamilton, of No. 109 River avenue had jumped in Olsen's motor car and pumped at him until he was tired.

Olsen, of No. 9 Regent avenue was driving his car in Chalkstone avenue. In the machine, which was going only about two miles an hour, were Mrs. Olsen and their two children. Hamilton and two young women were about to board an electric car. Seemingly Hamilton did not see the slowly approaching auto.

The auto knocked him over and over; those looking on feared he was killed. Instead, when Olsen halted the machine, Hamilton jumped in it and, purple with rage, attacked the driver. Olsen sat motionless while his assailant unchained away at him. Finally onlookers dragged Hamilton away.
